AT DEATH'S DOOR. NERVOUS PROSTRATION. EXTREME DEBILITY AFTER THE GRIP.

Mr. Peter Lingley, Councillor, Peterborough, Ontario, N. B., says: "Oct. 21, 1892.—Last winter I had a very severe attack of the Grip, which left me very feeble and prostrated in health. I had no appetite and was unable to eat or sleep. I was under Doctors' treatment for several weeks, but received no benefit. My friends thought I had consumed and lost my last breath, but I was respecting my death at any day. As a last resort they decided to try HAWKER'S NERVE AND STOMACH TONIC, 3 bottles of which Rapidly Restored Me To Health. I slept well, my appetite was renewed and I soon became strong, cheerful and active again. I can speak on behalf of this medicine as I feel that I owe my life to its virtues. Mr. Isaac G. Brown, Gatekeeper, C. B. Dep't, St. John, N. B., says: "I was with Mr. Lingley during his severe illness and was daily expecting to have to notify his relatives of his death. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers for 50 cents per bottle, 3 bottles $1.25. Manufactured by the HAWKER MEDICINE CO., Limited, St. John, N. B. HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS cure all Stomach Ills."

REV. J. T. GIBB, PITTSFIELD, ME. Two Bottles Groder's Syrup Cured Him. FOOD WOULD SOUR IN 30 MINUTES AFTER EATING IT.

Your DYSPEPSIA CURE is a valuable remedy. I have been afflicted with this painful disease for more than 12 YEARS. For 3 years I was unable to take any solid food. MY FOOD DISTRESSED ME and was SOFTENED IN 30 MINUTES after eating it. My stomach was weak, my LIVER KEENLY IRRITATED, and I was affected with CONSTIPATION. I had no sleep, and I was very NERVOUS and could not sleep, and I had lost my courage, and I was unable to attend to my ministerial labors. 2 BOTTLES of your SYRUP has cured me. Such a remedy is invaluable in nearly every family. You are very kind to make public this statement for the benefit of others afflicted in this way. Respectfully, A. T. C. CRODER, THE GRODER SYRUP COMPANY, Ltd., St. John, N. B.

Mothers, Does the housework tire you? If so, ask yourself the reason why.

Is there a means by which the WEARINESS and the WEAKNESS and the DREAD can be removed? Do the words of friends and the experience of others influence you? There is reason why they should. They are constituted as you are. Relief to them is relief to you.

The case of Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, of Milford, St. John, has many a parallel. Consider it. This lady, whose portrait appears above these lines, suffered four years from that common complaint, Dyspepsia—accompanied, of course, by its train of ill—flatulency, constipation, nervousness, loss of appetite.

WHAT WOMEN WEAR.

THE PRINCESS AND THE REDINGOTE WILL DIVIDE THE HONORS

During the Summer—Gowns Are BOUND Waisted—A House Dress of Navy Blue Bengaline With Supple Skirt. The old French days still hold a compelling spell over our fashion-makers. A while ago Victoria, apparently had it all her own way, but Marie Antoinette has shaken off the weight of years, and even of very defunct Louis is contributing something to the pot-pourri of our summer styles.

Here for instance is a gown which is imperial among the many empire designs. The skirt is of biscuit cloth and comes away up under the arms. The seams are outlined with dark green braid, as is also the waist. The short bodice is of the cloth, with wide revers of green velvet. Inside the waist is worn a tucker or gimp of white French batiste with a jabot of lace.

Almost every gown is round waisted, but princess and redingote gowns divide the field. In sleeves the Russian model, having a puff falling to the elbow, while a tight sleeve is underneath, is very popular. Some of the latest designs, however, contain a horrible suggestion of the lengthening of the shoulder seams, from which fashion may the fates preserve us!

A Navy Blue House Dress. The European edition of The New York Herald gives the following as one of its "Daily Hints from Paris."

A HOUSE DRESS. Navy blue bengaline. The employment forms a pelrine, embroidered with old gold and edged with dark green silk ruching, bouffant short sleeves and centre of green velvet with gold ornament. The skirt is wide at the bottom, but supple and stiffened with horse-hair.

Black Serge for Outing Gowns. Serviceable and Fashionable Material for Head, Eye and Bad Weather. Black serge, which used to be looked upon as sacred to the cause of mourning, has proved itself to be useful and trustworthy in almost any line of service. It is now a rival of dark blue flannels and serges for outing gowns and will bear harder use than those well-tried favorites. A good black "storm serge" dress does not tear, does not crease, does not fade, and—not the least of its virtues—never turns of that tell-tale azure at the edge of the skirt which the best navy blue serge persists in showing when badly wet.

Found a Rich Gold Mine. LOWER JORDON BAY, N. S., July 3.—Mr. Samuel Locke, of this place, has just discovered a gold mine here that pans out 100 per cent. of pure metal to the ton. It was a rich vein of sound health to which he was restored, by the use of Dodd's kidney pills, and which he would not exchange for any other mine in America. All last winter he suffered from kidney trouble which would not yield to the prescriptions of several doctors. A few months ago Mr. Locke heard of the good work done by Dodd's kidney pills and tried them with the invariable result. To-day he is well and thinks no praise too great for this wonderful remedy. His neighbors are much interested in what they describe as a marvelous cure. Take time by the spoonful, and your cough will vanish and your rosy cheeks return.

A KENTUCKY VETERAN.

He Bided His Time and Got Even With the Lawyer.

A case was on trial in a Kentucky courtroom. An old man of somewhat respectable appearance had just given important testimony, and the lawyer whose cause suffered by his statements strove in every way to confuse and trip him, but in vain. The witness stuck to his story and did not lose his temper in spite of the irritating manner in which the cross examination was conducted. Finally, in the hope of breaking down the credibility of the witness, the lawyer at a venture asked: "Have you ever been in prison?" "I have," replied the witness. "Ah," exclaimed the attorney, with a triumphant glance at the jury, "I thought as much. May I inquire how long you were there?" "Two years and three months," answered the witness quietly, with a manner that was interpreted by the lawyer as indicating chagrin at an unexpected exposure. "Indeed," said the delighted lawyer, feeling his case already won. "That was a heavy sentence. I trust the jury will note the significance of the fact. Now, sir, tell the jury where you were confined."

A Sure Sign. Mrs. Von Leer—Do you know that lady? Mrs. De Mit—Yes. Mrs. Von Leer—Kindly present me. I know by her vacant stare that she must be a lady of high breeding.

Proper Qualifications. Hicks—What do you think—I'll be a man? Wicks—It ought to be. He is a regular stick and she's all fire and brimstone.

A Black Sheep. Elder Feather—I see that Professor Shippah, de prestigator, is on de back seat, an he will bludge me by steppin out on de porch, while de colleschian is tuck up.

Of Course Not. "You don't mean to say that in Chicago ladies wear gloves at dinner?" "Why, of course they do. Would you have them eat asparagus without?"

Experience Taught Him. "Dobson must have an extensive experience of bachelor life. You ought to hear him at the club dilute on the joys of being single." "No wonder. Dobby's been married sixteen years."

Obedient Child. Teacher—I gave you three examples in arithmetic, and you have not done one of them. Pupil—No; my father told me always to shut bad examples.

No Time to Lose. She—Isn't your determination to get married rather sudden? I didn't know that you even thought of it. He—Indeed! But I have just heard of an excellent cook that I can get.

Weighty Enough. "What do you think would make a handsome present for the professor on his birthday?" "One of his own sentences," was the sarcastic answer.

An Eyewitness. Mrs. Newman—Will you guarantee that this picture was really painted by Holstein—Madam, I saw him paint it myself ven I vos ein boy in Chermany.

It Fell on His Nose. "In the case of the word onion," inquired the teacher, "where does the accent fall?" "In the case of the word onion," inquired the teacher, "where does the accent fall?"

Making It Pleasant for Their Successors. "You understand, Betty," said the mistress, "that we are to move out of this house the first of next month?" "Yes'm," answered Betty. "I've been sweepin' all the dirt into the registers for the last three weeks, num."

A Feasible Plan. Neighbor—Every time you feed your dog, he brings the bones over and gnaws them on my premises. Isn't there some way to stop it? Owner—Suppose you feed him, hereafter; then he'll probably bring them over and gnaw them on my premises.

The Darnier Resort. "Yes," said the Marchioness of Bogardis, as she furtively dried a tear, "my son, Lord De Massey, has run through his entire fortune; in fact, there is left to him only one loophole of escape from absolute ruin, and that is that he must at once avail himself."

What is it? "What is it?" asked Lord Zavus, to whom she was detailing her woes. "That is to cross the Atlantic and marry an American heiress."

Enforced Abstinence. She—Now promise me, that you won't go to drinking just because I have refused you. He (hesitatingly)—Decidedly not. I'll have to swear off for three months to get even on the flowers and theatre-tickets I've wasted on you. —Judge.
