MORE PILGRIMS.—An Ottawa despatch says: it is stated that 900 Irish-Catholic pilgrims will go to the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre next week.

HEAVY HEAD GRAB.—A farmer who saw his family attacked by a daisy, now has exclaimed:—"There go my wife and daughters with 50 bushels of oats apiece on their heads!"

GATHERING OF THE CLANS.—A programme of the sports, list of prizes, etc., for the 16th of August, has been made out. The games will take place on the grounds known as Longworth's field, close to the city.

SERVICES THIS EVENING.—At the services this evening in the Second Methodist Church, brief addresses will be given by several of the ministers who are attending the annual Financial District meeting. All are invited.

WEATHER PROPITIOUS.—Cape Traverse Picnic to-morrow is the word. St. Peter's Boys' Band accompany the picnickers, and discourse sweet music on the train and on the grounds. Don't miss the picnic of the season. N. B.—And we will all go to Cape Traverse.

THE BUGS STILL LIVE.—An American paper tells of a farmer near Elston, Me., who sent for an advertised twenty-five-cent potato bug killer. He received two little wooden mallets, with instruction to catch the bug and smash him with the mallet, and if he did not kill the first lick to repeat.

THE DOMINION ILLUSTRATED.—The fifth number of the Dominion Illustrated is to hand. It contains portraits of Lieutenant-Governors Schultz, Royal and McLellan, and W. H. Howland, President of the Prohibition Convention, besides several sketches including two spirited views by R. Harris, R. C. A. The letter press is very good.

BOAT RACE.—Considerable interest is taken in the race to come off on Saturday next. There will be some eight or ten starters. The following have already been entered:—Starling, Capt. T. C. Rodina, Puritan, Capt. Walker, Hector, Capt. Snelgrove, and Bluebird, Capt. Slackford. The different boats are busily engaged making ready for the event.

TEST MEETINGS.—Elder Wm. A. Burch, of New Bedford, Mass., and Elder G. M. Little, of Warren, N. H., who arrived at the Osborne last evening, expect to begin a series of Gospel Test meetings at Beaton's Mills, Lot 60, on Friday evening, August 10th. There will be preaching every evening at 7.30, and on Sundays at 10.30 a. m., 1.30 and 7 p. m. The meetings will be unsectarian, and all Christians are cordially invited to co-operate in this effort to save the perishing.

CREDITABLE.—Four electric lamps are to be placed on Queen Square by the Electric Light Company—free of charge—to show off the flower garden during the season. They are to be connected with the shop light circuit, and will be lighted till half-past ten every night. The posts will be neatly trimmed and painted, and the lamps placed on top of the post and not on the arm. The Electric Light Company are to be thanked for their creditable donation in the interests of the townpeople.

THE JAPAN TEA TRADE.—A statement compiled by the Vancouver, B. C. News Advertiser, shows that of 42,357,000 pounds of tea shipped from Japan in the year ending April 30 last to North American ports, the Canadian Pacific steamers carried 24 per cent; while of the proportion of this New York, Chicago and the Middle States, the same line carried nearly 25 per cent. As the line has been in operation only about ten months of the period referred to, the Canadian system really obtained about 30 per cent of the traffic.

BAD WRITING IN A WILL.—Says the Halifax Herald: "In a word of three letters which appears in the will of a wealthy lady recently deceased 'two' or 'ten' is a question which the lady's executors find it impossible to determine. The gift is either of $2,000 or $10,000, but as the word is written out in an open hand it can be taken for either amount. A large number of experts have examined the writing, but only a few of these have ventured an unhesitating opinion and these few are about equally divided in their views. The case will probably go to the courts, as the sum of $8,000 depends upon the interpretation to be put on the writing."

AFTER FISH AND FUN.—A jolly party came down from Boston on the Worcester this morning for an "outing" on the Island. The party consists of Messrs. A. D. Warner, C. J. Edwards, W. J. Madden, and H. P. Leggett, of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of New York, and Mr. J. J. Maloney, of Jordan Marsh & Co., Boston. They are to spend a week or so fishing, driving and exploring the Island. So far they are charmed with what they are pleased to term the "quiet quaintness" of the city and vicinity, and think this the ideal place for recreation. It is related, with how much truth we know not, that the light-heartedness of Messrs. Maloney and Warner kept some of the party from carrying out a preconcerted attempt at suicide, contemplated owing to the rather rough trip down.

FIREMEN IN TROUBLE.—There is trouble among the Halifax firemen. Some time ago six men of No. 1 steamer accepted an invitation to visit Fredericton. They thoroughly enjoyed themselves, but their going caused trouble among the Union Engine company, the officers of which claimed that they had been ignored, that the men had gone without official consent and in violation of the bye laws. At a recent meeting of the company, the sixteen excursionists were expelled from membership. They embrace some of the most active and prominent members in the company, and the summary action has created quite a sensation among the firemen. Notice of reconsideration has been given and they will probably be reinstated. If the matter comes before the city council, its discussion there will probably be detrimental to the interests of Halifax firemen.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt. Nickerson, has arrived from Boston with a general cargo and the following passengers: Jennette W. Robertson, J. McKinnon, J. F. Adams, W. McKenzie, Mr. Maloney, C. J. Edwards, C. D. Warner, Miss Dorsey, Mary A. Hayes, Kate A. Hayes, Mr. Robertson, Mr. Robertson, W. J. Madden, Mr. Leggett, D. Fleming, Ella Fleming, Ethel Stewart, S. M. Blanchard, Miss Simms, F. Lockery, A. Tappan, G. J. McKenzie, Miss McDonald, Miss J. A. Stevens, Mrs. S. A. Titus, Minnie C. Titus, Sarah Morrison, Mrs. V. Young, Mrs. T. Young, Mrs. Redmond, Miss Vickerson, Mrs. Frattile, Miss Ross, Mary McLeod, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. McGuinness, Mrs. F. White, Mrs. White, Mrs. M. A. Stein, Mrs. Campbell, Kate Wilson, N. G. Woodward, A. T. McLean, J. C. Dogherty, J. Haggart, Mr. Trefrey, J. C. McDougall, H. Music, W. Campbell, J. McGuire, Eliza McCarron, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Merry, Mrs. A. G. Smith, Miss McLeod.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Sherman on the Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.

The Senate resumed consideration of the fishery treaty to-day, Sherman speaking and opposing ratification. He regarded the controversy with Great Britain as more important and more injurious than the controversy with any other nation. He would be glad to see in the impending treaty a settlement of the controversy, and he had approached its consideration with a desire to find in it such a settlement, but the more he examined it the more he became satisfied that the treaty, if ratified, would open up new avenues of controversy, lead to new ventilations and accomplish no purpose. He had a strong desire to maintain the most cordial relations with the Dominion, as he looked upon the Dominion and the United States as twin sisters. It would be impossible to establish a barrier between these people. He would vote against the treaty, because it tended to erect a barrier and prevent the very purpose which ought to be accomplished by it. He regarded the 15th section of the treaty as a surrender of the right of the United States to levy taxes on imported goods, and an insult to the United States. There was not in the history of diplomacy so one-sided a treaty between two great and powerful nations, and it was disgraceful to American diplomacy. The 55th section of the treaty was a Siamese twin to the Mills Bill, and they ought to be debated together. In fact the treaty might be considered as a sample supplement to the Mills Bill. The two nations would settle the controversy as they had settled many others. If the treaty was rejected the nation would stand as in 1886, under the treaty of 1818, and if the President of the United States would with moderation exercise the power conferred upon him by the law authorising retaliation, there would be no trouble. A discussion followed as to the time of a final vote on the treaty, but without action. The Senate adjourned.

The Parnell "Times" Inquiry.

LONDON, Aug. 7.

In the House of Commons this evening, Hon. Mr. Smith moved that the Parnell Inquiry Bill be not passed, (12 o'clock) the rule be suspended. On motion of Mr. Matthews it was moved to insert the following: "If any person having been served with a summons under this Act fails to appear, the commission shall have the power to issue a warrant for the arrest of such person." Adopted. Mr. Parnell moved an amendment to the effect that any person refusing to make a full and true disclosure touching all matters in respect to which he might be examined, should be liable to punishment by the High Court of Justice. Rejected.

A Terrible Crime.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 7.

A despatch from New Westminster, B. C., says a diabolical murder is reported from the mouth of Fraser River. An Indian girl 16 years old was sick. Three Chinamen who claimed to be doctors entered the house and poured inflammable liquid on the girl's wrists, tore out the lingual artery and two small arteries in the throat, and two other veins in the body. Two of the Chinese have been arrested, but the other is missing.

The receiver of wrecks for the district of North Sydney, C. B., has reported that a schooner was picked up off the coast of Newfoundland on the 23rd ult. Also quantities of deals, in all about four or five hundred pieces. Some of the deals were marked "Ede," with the letter "D" inserted. It is assumed that the deals came from a wrecked Canadian vessel.

[FOR THE EXAMINER.]

Tis Within a Mile of Charlottetown.

Upon the crest of yonder hill, Embowered in pines and maple trees, A mansion stands. The pleasant home Of culture, elegance and ease.

See, all around. The gay parterre Is radiant with the choicest flowers. What can excel the verdant lawn, Its sheen refreshed by vernal showers.

At early morn the balmy air Is scented with the blossoming peas; The clover fields at noontide hour Seem drowsy with the hum of bees.

When the red sun, his journey o'er, Into a crimson couch sinks down, Is borne upon the evening breeze Soft murmurs from the distant town.

Here may a weary, faded mind, Rest from the labor of the day, And in this sylvan calm retreat, Chase every fancied care away.

Who would not toil with heart and hand, So sweet a home as this to gain, And, (what enhances all its charm), Its beautiful and stately chateauine. D.
