SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR:

The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL:

The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only school in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils.
For further particulars address the Principal.
Sept. 19, 1878.

SECOND EDITION

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 24, 1880.

LORD ARTHUR RAGEL will be in America next May.

LADY DUFFERIN prefers Ottawa to St. Petersburg.

EDISON gets $23,000 a year and tries to make light of it.

THE young Queen of Spain suffers from nervous agitation.

DR. BRANDETH never took his own pills, and so lived to a great age.

PRESIDENT GREY has $60,000 for travelling expenses and entertaining.

BOB INGERSOLL claims to have made $45,000 from his lectures last year.

SIR ALEX. T. GALT leaves Ottawa for England to-day (Wednesday.)

MRS. JAMES CLEMENS, mother of Mark Twain, resides at Fredonia, N. Y.

JOHN DUNN demands $1.12 a head from all Amatozgo laborers that pass into Natal.

THE Prince of Wales wants more salary. It's hardly likely that he will strike, however.

TOTAL subscriptions to the Herald Irish Famine Fund, to date, amounts to $308,137.20.

LORD MAYOR GRAY, of Dublin, has consented to contest Carlow County for Parliament.

THE Chinese Government have sent an order to New York for twenty million cartridges.

BISHOP COLEMAN of Cape Town, South Africa, has sued the Government for travelling expenses.

THE St. John, N. B., Bolt and Nut Company was organized Saturday. Bel. Lawrence was elected President.

THE Duke of Sutherland owns 1,208,546 acres of land, and the Duchess 149,876 acres in her own right.

TWO Chinamen have arrived in Ottawa with the object of opening a laundry. They say there are plenty more coming.

ACCORDING to Mr. Vennor we are to have a heavy snow fall this week. If it puts in an appearance it is to be hoped it will be "positively the last one for the season."

REV. GEORGE HEWORTH writes that the Committee of the Herald fund have donated $50,000 especially to give starving children food to enable them to attend the National Schools.

PRODUCE FOR ENGLAND.—The brig, "Ellen C. Nickerson," which sailed for London on Thursday 18th, takes 3,012 bbls apples, 170 bbls. potatoes, and 35 m feet deals, valued at $8,000. She was loaded by A. W. Corbitt & Son, and others.—Annapolis Journal.

THE ladies of St. Paul's congregation intend holding a "social" once a fortnight, in the Schoolroom, commencing in May, for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with each other, and the wants of its poorer members; at which meeting instructions in sewing will be given, suitable refreshments also, and instructive readings. All those desirous of carrying out the above object are cordially invited to attend a meeting to be held on Thursday next, 25th inst., at 4½ o'clock.

HANLAN has received a letter from Soule making propositions very similar to those suggested at the recent interview in Toronto. Hanlan says he will sign any negotiation to get rid of the subject, as long as the money is put in Blaikie's hands. He will row at Baltimore, Philadelphia or Washington. Hanlan expects his new boat to arrive shortly, and will almost immediately go into training. He is in capital health.

SAID the Duke of Argyll, in the House of Lords, on the 21st February: "I ask you, my Lords, whether there was ever in this world so fierce a fight as that which beats upon this Aighan policy of Her Majesty's Government, upon that empty throne, upon that ruined kingdom, upon your own murdered Ambassador, upon those desolated valleys, upon the whole country given up to tribal war, to a murderous soldiery, to anarchy and bloodshed."

AT a large meeting of the National Land League in Dublin on Monday last, a letter from Parnell was read, dated Des Moines, March 15th, in which he says:—"The general verdict of American opinion throughout the Union is overwhelmingly in favor of the radical changes in the Irish land system. We shall leave behind us in America a permanent organization in connection with the Land League, and prepared to support it financially and morally to any extent we may require. Such an awakening has come upon our exiled country over here it is impossible for those who have not witnessed it to imagine."

Why Didn't Mr. Stewart Run?

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR.—The Patriot says "he could not without such a sacrifice as his party did not wish him to make." Exactly so; the reasons are obvious, and very good indeed. In the first place, it was very doubtful if any man could be found, who would be willing to make such a laughing stock of himself as to nominate him; and, in the next place his party, if he has any, did not want the country to see the sickly position it would have been in on declaration day. I doubt if Mr. Stewart would have had even a Baker's dozen when the votes would have been counted. He was very anxious, however, to run. He secured the district, harangued the meetings and, of course, he did not stick at trifles when he opened his mouth. He even told the electors that the present Government had rolled up a deficit for the past year, of $108,000, or $110,000,—I forget which. It is immaterial, however, as Mr. Stewart has a very elastic tongue. Did he not, in view of the abolition of the Legislative Council, shed crocodile tears over the rights of property holders, vehemently declaring that they were dear to his heart? But, with all this, he could make no impression on the electors. They "knew him of old." It was "too thin"; and, after following up the chase for the last three or four months, he has finally beat an inglorious retreat. He remembered, with subdued satisfaction, the $1,600 a year that he pocketed from an over-confiding people, and he longs for return of those halcyone days. But "pride goeth before a fall," and this was surely verified in the case of Mr. Stewart. No wonder he looked with maddened envy on the popular and gentlemanly Commissioner of P. W. who succeeded him. Pardon the digression, when I say, Mr. Editor, that I notice his late leader—Mr. L. H. D.—is out in the last Patriot with his yearly Pastoral. May they rest in peace.
Yours, etc.,
L. C.
March 23, 1880.

Important Sale.

The following paragraph, clipped from the Leadville, Col., Herald, gives an account of an important sale, in which Mr. John F. Campion, of Souris, and Mr. Benjamin Hartz, of this city, are interested:—"The Crusader, Monarch, Magna Vista, and Stormy Petrel mines, located in Horseshoe mining district, on the east side of Mount Sheridan, a mile and a half from the head of Iowa gulch have just been sold in Boston, to the Crusader Mining company, which has been organized with a capital of two and one-half millions of dollars. Mr. Frederick Nickerson, of Boston, is the president, and among the incorporators are some of the wealthiest and most influential men of that city. A large reserve of stocks is set aside as a working capital, which is finding ready sale and work will be vigorously pushed on the mines. The mines are in fine ore, in the Crusader alone over five thousand tons of ore being in sight from present developments. The company propose to erect a smelter for the reduction of ore. The parties making the sale of these mines are J. F. Campion, Governor W. R. Marshall of Minnesota, G. F. Batchelder and W. H. Stevens.

The Panama Canal.

On the 10th of March a cablegram was received at Panama from New York announcing the action President Hayes has taken in regard to the Panama Inter-oceanic Canal. Great dissatisfaction prevailed and many of the most intelligent of the populace denounce it as impertinent, and assuming on the part of the President to dictate to the Columbian Government on the matter of the Ship Canal. The London Times of the 20th inst., in commenting on the Panama Canal project, urges the United States to either let M. de Lesseps build it, or charge themselves with the task. It says the Monroe doctrine, even in its most restricted shape, has never been admitted into the law of nations, and Europe will not recognize so gratuitous a demand as America now makes over South American countries, and might justly exclaim against the autocracy arrogated for the United States.

WHAT a surprise it would be if, after all, the fat "claimant" should prove to be the real Sir Roger. Such a surprise, indeed, it is not likely to befall us; but those whose faith, the offspring of desire, has been proof against the weight of evidence and the best legal opinions in England, have received a fresh impulse of hope from the arrival from Australia of Crosswell, who, they claim, is the veritable Arthur Orton. This man was only released from a lunatic asylum in Farranatta, by order of Mr. Justice Hargreaves, and sent to England in care of Mr. Echford, M. L. A., New South Wales.

"I believe in a personal devil," said Mr. Moody at a revival meeting held at a remote Western City. "That's true, that's true—you're right there stranger," said an old farmer, rising from his seat in his earnestness. Whereupon a calm-faced, placid-looking woman rose from the other end of the pew, took him by the ear, and slowly led him out, and the assembly knew then for the first time that the old man's mind was filled with domestic thoughts instead of the hereafter.

THE spring is opening threateningly in the freshest line in the valley of the Mississippi and in that of the Danube. Rivers are overflowing their banks, flooding the lowlands and doing much damage in both regions.
