MASONIC.—The Masonic Bazaar will be held in the new Masonic Temple, commencing the 6th December. It promises to be a great success. SEE the stock of pictures framed to order at the Bazaar Store. They have the pictures and will frame them from any of the 100 samples of mouldings. A GOOD SHOWING.—Mr. John McDonald of Cherry Valley, Lot 49, shipped to Arichat a hog, killed at the age of thirteen months, weighing 660 pounds. A POINTER.—Take your tea at St. Joseph's Convent this evening. The ladies in charge of the tea tables are more than excelling themselves this year.

IN NEUTRAL WATERS.—A further batch of affidavits proving that Canadian sealers seized by Russians in the North Pacific were in neutral waters, has been received at Ottawa. MORE DIMISSALS.—Two more railway employes—Michael Kelly and John McPherson—have received notice that their services are no longer required. This is to be regretted. ANOTHER FASTER.—A colored man named James Still, an inmate of the New Brunswick, N. J., Reform School, completed the sixty eighth day of the fast he has undertaken on Tuesday. He is very weak.

REMEMBER that Rev. A. Falconer, of Picton will lecture in Zion Church this evening. His subject will be "Religious Characteristics of the 19th Century." Give him a full house. Admission 10 cents. THE LOTTERIES.—Two articles were lotteried at St. Joseph's Convent last night, viz, a doll's bed and a footstool. The former was won by Thomas Hughes, and the latter by Miss Butler. The other lotteries will come off to-night. A GRATUITY.—The Dominion Government have, through Department of Militia and Defence, presented the wife of the late Corp'l Rufus McDonald, who was killed at Quebec, with a cheque for $1,000 as a gratuity.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST.—A Manitowish, Mich., young woman recently received a letter from a Kansas man in which he devoted seven pages to telling of business, crops and politics. In a postscript he said he would like her to marry him. JOURNALISTIC.—Cape Breton is not yet ready for a daily paper, therefore the Sun expands as a daily and will continue as a tri-weekly and weekly. Mr. Stearns put out a creditable paper and deserved better success.

DALHOUSIE REMEMBERED.—The will of the late John Ross, of Victoria Settlement, near Amherst, contains a bequest of $500 to Dalhousie college, to be appropriated to establish a professor's chair in connection with the Presbyterian church. ASK your neighbors if they use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They strengthen the nerves, tone the system, and remove the cause of kidney diseases yield to their influence. They are especially appreciated by the old. Ask your neighbors about them. 10

SKODA'S GEMMA SOAP, "Soft as Velvet" and "Pure as Gold," that tells the whole story. Most highly medicated soap ever made. Try one cake. It is elegant. At all Druggists. Price, 25 cts. NOVA SCOTIA MINING TOWN.—Nova Scotia has a new mining town which is going ahead at a rapid rate. Since the opening up of the iron works at this place, Ferrona, some 120 houses have been put up for the miners. Shops are going up on all hands, and in course of a short time Ferrona will be a town of considerable importance.—Standard.

HORSES AND LAMBS.—The shipments of horses and lambs from Summerside still continues. The Farmer says that three horses were taken away by Mr. Sturgis, of St. John, on Monday and seven more by various parties on Wednesday morning. On Tuesday Mr. J. A. Kane shipped 205 lambs, Messrs. Deacon & Drummond 210, and Mr. John Layden 207, the latter claiming that his lot was the finest that had left for many a day. On Wednesday Mr. C. Kane shipped 410. AS TO SCOTCH JOKES.—In Scotland there would still appear to be some ground for Sydney Smith's taunt that the Scotchman is wanting in appreciation of humor. The editor of a certain religious journal announced to his readers the other day that "as the paper has been received with so much favor, and has so considerable a circulation, it will in future be published once a month instead of once a week." It is possible, of course, that the editor may be a wag.

SHOOTING ACCIDENTS.—A lad named M. rill, of Tiverton, near Digby, narrowly escaped shooting himself fatally with a revolver a day or two since. The ball passed through his hand, and it is feared blood poisoning may result. The careless handling of a Queen Ann musket, which had been loaded for over thirty years and laid away in a garret, almost resulted in the shooting of the wife of Capt. James Maine of Digby. The weapon knocked Mrs. Maine down and converted a table into a kindling wood.

DELICIOUS BIVALVES.—The Farmer reports that a Summerside oyster shipper sent eight barrels of oysters to Sir A. P. Caron on Monday, he having received an order from the minister to that effect. The breakwater had recently been completed at a cost of about $100,000. FOOTBALL.—The annual match between Harvard and Yale will take place next Saturday, and the Yale-Princeton championship match will be decided on Thanksgiving Day. Yale ought to win both in her present form.

RESERVED.—"Fairholm," the residence of the late Judge Young, was offered at auction to-day by E. H. Norton & Co., and held on a reserve bid of $11,500 from Halifax. The highest offer received was from Maurice Blake, Esq., who bid $11,200. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.—Mr. W. W. Clarke has handed THE EXAMINER a neat little pamphlet containing the official time tables and much general information concerning the Grand Trunk Railway and its connections.

SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, Mild, Safe, Efficient. For superior relief of all cases of Catarrh of the Bladder and Liver Complaint nothing can equal these Tablets. With the DISCOVERY they cure Rheumatism. 50 in a box only 35 cts.

THE SAME HERE.—The Chatham World says: Prof Packard has a dancing class here. It is not very large. The professor finds "so many grades of society in Chatham" that he would have to open a good many classes in order to secure the patronage of all who want to learn to dance. Most of our dancers need instruction very badly, and it would pay them to forget their social status long enough to take advantage of this opportunity of learning.

SCOTT ACT MEETING.—A Moncton despatch says: If last night's mass meeting is any indication, the people of Moncton have lost faith in the efficacy of the Scott act as a means for the suppression of the liquor traffic. The meeting had been widely advertised and an array of six clergymen announced as speakers, yet not more than fifteen or twenty electors put in an appearance, the balance of the small audience being composed of women and children. A resolution was unanimously passed calling upon the city council to appoint an inspector, and the matter will no doubt be further considered at next Monday night's meeting of the board.

ST. JOSEPH'S CONVENT.—The Christmas Tree in St. Joseph's Convent yesterday afternoon and evening was well attended, and was very successful. The various fancy tables were well stocked, as were also the tea and refreshment tables. The ice cream on sale was from Carter's, and was delicious. The amusements customary on such occasions were also in abundance, and the 82nd Battalion Band furnished good music. The Christmas Tree will be continued this afternoon and evening. All who wish to enjoy themselves and pass away a pleasant hour or two should call at the Convent this evening.

THE CITY WINE.—At Halifax, on Tuesday, Judge Ritchie gave judgment in the case of Morley vs the city, deciding in favor of the city. This action, as was lately explained by THE EXAMINER, was brought by Mrs. Morley to recover compensation for injury to her property by fire on 1st October, 1891, on the ground that defendants wrongfully and negligently stored or permitted to be stored near plaintiff's premises large quantities of petroleum, on account of which the fire, which commenced at some distance away from plaintiff's house, spread rapidly and became unmanageable and consumed her premises, which, but for the storage of the oil in question, would have been saved from fire. A judgment against the city in this case would probably have involved the city in many other suits and heavy damages.

PRODUCE SHIPMENTS.—The Summerside Farmer says: A number of vessels produce laden cleared from Alberton during the past days of the present month. On the 5th the Sherbrooke cleared for Boston with 3,853 bushels potatoes, valued at $1,000; on the 9th the Hannah Coomer also loaded with potatoes, valued at $1,100, and on the same day the Vesper with 2,144 bags potatoes valued at $4,288 and 93 sheep valued at $372; on the 11th the Capdoodl with 4,350 bushels potatoes valued at $1,200. These were all loaded by Hon. Benj. Rogers. The Mary E. Leslie loaded by Mr. John Agnew, also cleared for Trinidad on the 7th with 1025 bushels oats, $2050; 410 bris. potatoes, $410; 3 horses, $300; 95 sheep, $380; geese, $84; total, $3174; and the Cepola, loaded by Mr. J. H. Myrick, left for Boston on the 11th with 4,900 bush. potatoes valued at $1,300. The Florence M. cleared from this port on the 12th with 3,175 bush. potatoes on board valued at $790. She was loaded by John Read & Co., and consigned to McKeever & Hall, Boston. On Tuesday the Hattie Louise hauled out into the stream preparatory to sailing for the West Indies. Her cargo consisted of about 2,400 sacks oats, 75 bris., 108 crates and 151 bags potatoes, 50 sheep, 34 horses, some fowl, 2 cases butter, 4 bris. cranberries, the whole being valued at $9,000.

THINK OF IT!

There's not a house in all the Town Where nothing needs repairing; Broken by having tumbled down, Or from continual wearing.

Why lay such things aside, or worse Use them with constant trouble? To do the like is but to nurse Your cares, or make them double.

Get them repaired, you'll find it pays, No matter what the line; And as the ancient proverb says, A stitch will save you nine.

Bring in your jobbing, great or small, (You'll surely never rue it), And if it can be fixed at all 'Tis WALTER DOULL can do it.
