A FACT which even political economists are apt to forget, is that a manufacturer's rate of profit is not the only essential element to success; it is far greater importance, and this, in most cases, is greater out of a low rate of profit, than out of a high rate, because of the increased business, which the lower price gives rise to. It was on this principle that Messrs Tuckett & Son acted in introducing their now famous "Myrtle Navy" tobacco, and to this principle they have ever since adhered. This is one of the reasons why the people of Canada are smoking the best tobacco which can be produced, at a cheaper price than other people can buy a similar article.

THE announcement that Staff Capt. M. L. Herbert was to lead the meeting in the Gospel Army Hall last night, drew a large and appreciative audience, and for the first time the meeting was conducted according to the method peculiar to the Gospel Army, and reminded one of the work of Moody & Sankey. Capt. Herbert's address from the words, "Where art thou?" made a deep impression on her hearers. She speaks with fluency, using plain but forcible language, and her delivery proved her eloquent powers. In addition to her ability as a speaker, Miss Herbert is also gifted with sweetness and modesty. She is ably assisted by Capt. Barlett and Cadet Lizzie Moore in conducting the meeting. The special address to-night is for young men, and to-morrow evening for business men.

Presentation of Prizes.

AFTER the ceremonies consequent upon the prorogation of the Legislature had been concluded last evening, the volunteers returned to the Drill Shed where the prizes won by the Garrison Artillery last year were presented by Brigade Major Irving. Detachments of the Engineers and No. 3 Company, 82nd Battalion were also present. Before the presentation, he briefly addressed the men, complimenting them highly. He remarked that in artillery matters, the Island has always been the premier province, and this year their noble efforts had been well seconded by the Engineers. He regretted that there was not some competitive examination in which the infantry might take part. He then presented the prizes as follows:—

- Capt. Passmore, on behalf of No. 1 Co. Artillery, was presented with a handsome oak cup, mounted with silver, as 1st prize for shifting ordnance. [Capt. Moore's Co., No. 2, won second prize for shifting ordnance ($20) but the money has not yet arrived.] Capt. Moore, on behalf of No. 2 Co. Garrison Artillery, was then presented with a handsome oak cup mounted with silver as first prize for general efficiency. Prizes were then awarded for gun practice as follows: Corp. Offer, No. 1, Silver Badge and $5. Gunner McLeod, No. 2, Silver Badge and $5. Corp. Music, No. 2, $4. Sergt. Down, No. 2, $4. Corp. Moore, No. 2, $2.

Government Table Linen.

The Moncton Times says: It appears from questions put by Mr. Davies to Mr. Pottinger in the Inch Arran enquiry that Mr. Davies feared that Mr. Sangster's table linen had been stolen by the Government for use at Inch Arran. It is satisfactory to know that Mr. Davies' fears were unfounded. If it had appeared that the Government was given to larceny of table linen it would not have been safe to leave a washing out over night. We therefore heartily congratulate the country on the most important result of the Inch Arran investigation so far, namely, the demonstration of the fact that the Government is not in the habit of robbing clothes lines, but practices some more honest method of obtaining a change of linen. Cormier deserves well of his countrymen for being the means of inducing Davies to quiet public alarm by bringing this great and important fact to the knowledge of all the people.

BEYOND COMPARISON.

The following examples of current payments in 1885 on policies issued by this Company are beyond comparison; therefore they must stand alone unchallenged, as showing the best results attained by any company:

Table with 4 columns: Name and Address, Amount of Policy, Additions, Policy and Additions.

The face of the policies amounted to $68,000; the policy-holders received in addition as a profit upon their investment $60,840, or a total of $128,840.

The above are not isolated or remarkable payments selected during many years of business, but taken from a long list of such claims paid in 1885.

Such splendid results have never been reached, nor nearly approached, by any other company.
