GRAIN COMBINES

See the new Number 7 Allis-Chalmers all crop grain combine. Note the wide cylinder and concaves permitting a wide even flow of grain for clean threshing. Note the position of the long shaker in relation to the cylinder which prevents flying grain from going over in the straw. See the air blast separation. Note the 25 bushel grain bin, which empties in ninety seconds either travelling or stationery. These and many other features are all worthy of note.

See these machines now on display and let us talk it over with you or see the dealer nearest you.
