A FARCICAL PROCEEDING.—It is pointed out by an Ottawa correspondent that although Hon. Mr. Davies has sent Capt. About thirty-five fishery officers in different parts of the country have already been dismissed.

Anderson, of Malpeque, charged with illegal fishing of oysters at North River on the 26th September last. After hearing evidence Mr. Lord dismissed the information with costs. Mr. Hedley V. Palmer appeared as council on behalf of the Fishery Inspector and Mr. Stewart, Q. C., for the defendant.

To help sweeten the occasion a table supplied with home-made candy will be provided, where spare cash may be exchanged for pure candy. Come everybody.

HIS WIFE MISSING.—The Moncton Times states that when a man named Wilcox, who lived at the head of Robinson street, went home to his dinner last Thursday, he found a note from his wife, saying that she had decided to leave him and that it would be useless for him to look for her. The note also intimated that the woman was not satisfied with the home provided for her by her husband. The husband took the matter very philosophically, and has since broken up house-keeping. The family consisted of the man and his wife.

Keir, of East Boston, at the future residence of the couple, 106 Saratoga Street. After the ceremony a collation was served. Among those present at the wedding were Mrs G. A. Sharp of Charlottetown, Mrs. Jennie McNeill of Kootenay, B. C.; Miss Jessie Byrne, Dr George Muttart, Ben Crafer, Wilfred J. Gaffney, Johnson J. Mahoney, and W. A. Brehaut.

BEECHERAS A SLAVE AUCTIONEER.

Even people of mature years whose memory is clear about mattter before and during the war have practically forgotten that Henry Ward Beecher used his pulpit in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, as an auction block for slaves. The most famous of his "slave sales" was that of the beautiful girl, Sarah, and it was upon this occasion that the most exciting scenes ever witnessed in Plymouth Church, or in any other American Church for that matter, occurred. Mr. Beecher was unusually dramatic: he put a fire into his words as he stood the slave girl on the platform beside him, which fairly burned into the hearts of his auditors. It was not long before the people became almost hysterical with excitement. But Beecher kept on until he was ready to pass the collection basket. Then the auditors gave vent to their feelings, and not only heaps of money was put into the baskets but men and women took off their rings, unfastened their watches and threw them into the baskets and on the platform. It was a remarkable scene, and such a one as probably will never be equaled in this country. Mrs. Beecher recalls the event with wonderful vividness in her article in the Christmas Ladies' Home Journal, when she tells the whole story of "When Mr. Beecher Sold Slaves in Plymouth Pulpit." The scene itself is remarkably well brought to the eye of the reader by a striking illustration made by De Thulstrup from material furnished the artist by Mrs. Beecher.

EDGEHILL, WINDSOR, N. S.—The addition made to the buildings of the Church School for Girls at Windsor are now nearly finished and add greatly to the appearance and convenience of this flourishing institution. The addition consists of a large assembly hall 65 feet by 41, and 20 feet high, eleven teachers and music practice rooms, a large and well lighted art room, together with twelve living rooms, a large trunk room and an additional furnace room. This commodious and imposing annex gives a total east front to the buildings at Edgehill of 122 feet facing King Street. The south front, which overlooks a lovely country from a commanding position, is just 100 feet in length. The music rooms, with the art room, are already fully occupied, there being no less than 81 music pupils and 39 art students at Edgehill. The newly issued report of trustees informs us that the number of boarders is 74. There is yet accomodation for half a dozen more pupils, but when the new living rooms are ready, the buildings will accommodate 90 pupil boarders, besides the numerous teaching staff and domestics.

A London Times despatch from Vienna says that Russia has rejected the French proposals to improve Turkey's finances. The Austrian papers comment upon this as a disagreement between France and Russia.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The Philadelphia Enquirer points out that because England has decided to increase the naval force in Canadian waters it does not follow that she contemplates another war on the United States. In the matter of diverting war by making peace desirable England has long set this country a most commendable example.

—The cold process of making condensed milk is something new in the milk business. The ordinary method of making condensed milk is by heating the milk and evaporating most of the water. It is now proposed to freeze the milk, and thus precipitate the solids, stirring and freezing it until the solids and water of the milk mix like snow, and then separate them by centrifugal force. It is claimed that milk condensed in this manner can, by the addition of water, return to its normal condition, so that no one can tell that it has ever been condensed.

—Brockville Times: When Sir John Macdonald, hoary and frail in years of service to his country, used to travel in comfort in the private car Cumberland, the virtuous Grit press became terribly indignant. But no sooner does the Laurier government attain power than Sir Oliver Mowat promptly falls into the vicious private car habit, and now J. Isreal Tarte is splurging about the Northwest in the identical same Cumberland that was honored as the transient habitation of Sir John Macdonald. If that car had voice to speak how it would sigh for past days and mourn its latest degradation!

"HEAR THE RINGING OF THE BELLS, WEDDING BELLS."

St. Mary's, Indian River, was, on Monday last, the scene of a happy event, when Miss Katie Ready and Mr. Joseph A. Hughes were united in marriage by Rev. A. McDonald, of St. Dunstan's College assisted by Rev. Mgr. Gillis, Indian River. Miss Ready is the daughter of Richard Ready, Esq., of Irishtown, and Mr. Hughes the son of Patrick Hughes, Esq., Hunter River. The bride was tastefully attired in a neat travelling suit of mottled gray and brown, while her sister, Miss Maggie Ready, as bridesmaid, wore blue. Mr. John Hughes, of Charlottetown, supported the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's father, where a pleasant surprise awaited them in the receipt of numerous presents and good wishes from their many friends.

THE COILA'S CREW.—The captain and part of the crew of the wrecked steamship Coila arrived here via Pictou last evening. Captain Nelson and the crew tell weird stories of their experience after the wreck. It seems that the shipwrecked seamen landed on the Cuban coast about sixty miles west of Havana, where they fell into the hands of Spanish soldiers. The Spaniards, believing them to be filibusters from the American coast, imprisoned them and treated them harshly, threatening to shoot all hands. Finally they were conveyed to Havana, where they were taken in charge by the British consul, who sent them to New York. They came from Boston to Halifax on the steamship Halifax, and from Pictou to Charlottetown on the Princess.
