Hundred Mile Canoe Race In Quebec Province

Natural Sporting Event Attracts Contestants from all Parts of America

The Annual Canoe Race on the St. Maurice River, between La Tuque and Trois Rivières, is to be held this year August 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

This event, which was inaugurated in 1934, commemorates the heroism of the early missionaries, voyageurs and coureurs de bois who used the St. Maurice River as a waterway in their explorations and perilous journeys on the part of civilization. The very nature of the race has a strong appeal to sporting instincts and public imagination and attracts many thousands of visitors each year. Though there have grown up towns and cities along the banks of the St. Maurice, the river itself has changed but little and this hazardous event that pits man's courage, resourcefulness and skill against nature, attracts hardy rivermen and venturesome spirits from all over America. No longer is the race confined to native Canadians of the Province of Quebec, and, this year, the United States will be represented by several entries in the river class.

The race is planned to extend over three days and the course is divided into three laps—the first from La Tuque to Grand-Mère; the second from Grand-Mère to Shawinigan Falls—this lap to be lengthened by the crews being called upon to paddle five times around the small islands in front of the Boulevard; and the final lap from Shawinigan Falls to Trois Rivières. In all of the four towns in the St. Maurice Valley where the competitors will stop celebrations have been planned and varied programmes of amusement will contribute to visitors' enjoyment of the event.

December and Tomato Jelly Salad

Make some lemon jelly, using one ounce of powdered gelatine to one pint of water, and the strained juice of three lemons. Heat all together, making sure the gelatine is quite dissolved, then stand this aside to cool. Pare and slice some cucumber and peel and slice some tomatoes. Rinse out some small moulds with cold water. Pour into each mould a little jelly. Let this almost set, then decorate with a few pieces of sliced cucumber and tomato. Fill up the moulds with jelly, and set in a cool place to firm up. When ready for use, turn out each jelly carefully and arrange in a bed of watercress and lettuce. This is an extremely attractive and appetizing dish for warm days.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. C. Martin

There passed away in Charlottetown on June 27th, after several months of illness, Mrs. Norma Martin relict of the late Rev. J. C. Martin in her seventy-ninth year.

She will be kindly remembered by many of the Congregations ministered to by her husband Cardigan, Mt. Stewart, Wood Islands, Richmond Bay East.

The funeral was held on June 30th from Trinity United Church to Orwell Head where interment was made, beside her husband, who predeceased her about six years ago.

The service in the Church and at the grave, were conducted by her Pastor, Rev. Hugh Miller, assisted by the Rev. J. M. McLeod.

The L. O. A. of which Mrs. Martin was a member, conducted a beautiful and impressive service, under the direction of Mrs. Bell who was also a member of the O. E. F. represented at the funeral.

She is survived by her daughter Mrs. Bennett of New York who was present at the funeral, and two sisters in New York.

The pall-bearers were: Major MacKenzie; Dr. Ayers; G. H. Holbrook; A. J. Houle; Lester Douglas; J. F. McLean.

The sympathy of the Community goes out to the bereaved.

In Memoriam

MR. JAMES BISMARK CRASWELL

In the passing of Mr. James Bismark Craswell whose death occurred very suddenly at noon on Monday, May 25, 1936, at his home in Rusdoon, we have lost one of our most esteemed citizens. Mr. Craswell was the only son of the late James Craswell who died many years ago. From an early age he was the only support of a widowed mother, and by hard work and courage, coupled with good management he succeeded in acquiring a comfortable home where he and his wife might enjoy their declining years, but the stern Reaper speaks in a voice that is still "Not my will but Thine be done."

He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, being one of those wonderful men who always seemed equal to every occasion and willing to serve other in time of need. His cheerful disposition and bright smile that never faded in life, brought sunshine to the hearts of many, and become of that and his many good deeds, his memory will shine as a beacon light to illuminate the pathway of those he left behind.

No Action Will Be Taken By Canada Re Zeppelin Flights

OTTAWA, July 6.—(C.P.)—No official action is likely to be taken regarding unannounced flights over Canadian territory of the German Zeppelin, it was learned today.

Officers of the dirigible omitted recently when they flew over the Maritime Provinces to advise the Canadian Government of their intention, although they did so on the last trip when they flew up the St. Lawrence river as far east as Montreal.

Canadian air regulations provide that aircraft of nations subscribing to the international air convention may fly over this country without permission. Germany, however, does not subscribe to the convention.

Advices from the Hindenburg that her officers intended to pursue a course last week up the St. Lawrence, it was learned, was received too late or any effective protest even if one had been planned.

However, Canadian officials were believed to feel such flights could do no harm as this nation has no modern fortifications or topographical secrets.

In the event a protest was planned later, it was said, it would probably take the form of a reminder from the Department of External Affairs to the German Government that the formality of official notification was being omitted.

London Exchanges Greetings With Vancouver

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 7.—Six thousand miles of land wire and cable linked Vancouver with London, England, at 1:00 p.m. yesterday when leaders in civic life exchanged greetings with dignitaries in the heart of the British Empire. Through the Canadian National Telegraphs and its cable affiliations direct contact was maintained between the two cities for more than a half hour while Mayor G. G. McGeer, J. Y. McCaer, President Board of Trade; Roy Wilson, Rotary Club President; Walter Lock, chairman of the Exhibition Board; representatives of the Vancouver Press; the lumber industry; and B. T. Chappell, general superintendent, Canadian National Railways, extended felicitations. Dignitaries who saluted Vancouver's golden jubilee in reply included the Lord Mayor of London, Viscount Ellbank, chairman of Federation of Chambers of Commerce of British Empire; Sir Hewitt Skinner, president Canadian Chamber of Commerce for Great Britain; T. R. Russell, managing editor London Mort-

ZURICH ROWING CLUB WIN MAJOR HONORS

(C. P. Cable By Guardian's Special Wire)

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England, July 5.—Most of the honors in the Royal Henley Regatta rested today with the Zurich Rowing Club of Switzerland.

Three of the major awards went to that club in the finals of the regatta held Saturday before a throng of 18,000 people.

E. Ruffli, a club member, retained the Diamond Sculls trophy he won last year without difficulty. He defeated T. H. Tyler of the Thames Rowing Club in the final by a margin of three lengths. Ruffli's time over the Henley course of one mile 550 yards was nine minutes 22 seconds.

The Grand Challenge Trophy for eights was taken by Zurich as they defeated Leander Rowing Club in 7:25. Leanders trailed by 1 1/4 lengths at the finish.

The same clubs reached the finals of the Stewards Cup. In this event the Zurich four sped to a victory by two lengths in 7:50.

A strong entry of United States school boys eights made an impressive showing in the Thames Challenge Trophy event. It was won by Tabor Academy of Marion, Mass. Tabor had attempted to capture the award unsuccessfully in two previous trips across the Atlantic.

The final was an all-American affair. Tabor defeated Kent (Conn.) School, winners three years ago by a margin of four lengths in 7:44. In one semi-final the lone English surviving entry, Kingston Rowing Club, had been eliminated by the strong Tabor eight in 7:42. Kent defeated Browne and Nichols of Cambridge, Mass., in 7:49 in the other.

Oxford failed to win a single event, while Cambridge registered victories in the Ladies Plate and the Visitors Cup. First Trinity took the former, defeating Clare College, also of Cambridge. The latter went to Jesus College, Cambridge, who defeated Oriel College, Oxford.

London Rowing Club won the Wyfold Cup.

Canada's hopes of bringing the diamond sculls back to the Dominion faded quickly in the early stages of the regatta. Johnny Coulson of Toronto Argos broke a swivel in his boat as he started his heat against Tyler and the latter had to race to himself. Noel de Milie of Vancouver was defeated in his first start by H. L. Warren of Cambridge.

Springfield W. I.

The members of Springfield W. I. met for the June meeting at the home of the President, Mrs. Wm. Haslam. The meeting opened by singing the Ode followed by the Creed. Seventeen members responded to the roll call by naming a favorite flower. There were four visitors present. Minutes of previous meeting were read, approved and signed. Two letters of appreciation were read and a bill for fruit was presented and ordered paid. The Red Cross collectors gave very favorable reports. The District Convention committee reported the meeting to be held at Malpeque and that our Institute was expected to furnish an item on the program. Mrs. Ernest Haslam consented to prepare a paper for same entitled "The Modern" versus "The Ancient". Miss Margaret Ford and Mrs. Ernest Haslam were appointed to attend the August meeting. Miss Emily Howard gave an amusing reading entitled "The Good Old Days." A "Grab Bag" put on by the Junior Red Cross members made a pleasant diversion as well as adding to their funds. Mrs. Clarence Haslam invited the members to her home for the July meeting. Refreshment committee, Mrs. Clarence Haslam, Mrs. F. W. E. Haslam and Mrs. Nelson Matheson; Program committee Mrs. Crawford Sinclair and Miss Ford. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by the committee in charge. Meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Roosevelt To Visit Canada End of July

OTTAWA, July 8.—(C.P.)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King will go to Quebec to meet President Roosevelt when the President pays a visit to the Governor General on July 31. The Prime Minister said tonight he had been invited by the Governor General to go to Quebec and had accepted.

The visit would be purely social in its nature, Mr. King said. He thought probably an opportunity would be given the President to make a speech if he wished to do so, but he could say nothing definite as to that. Neither could he say if the Governor General was contemplating a return visit to Washington in the future.

Mr. King, who with Hon. J. E. Michaud, Minister of Fisheries, is going to Balthazard, N.B., tomorrow to attend the funeral of Hon. P. J. Veniot, said he would stop off at Quebec on his way back to Ottawa to talk over some matters with the Governor General.
