S'side Aces Take Close 5-4 Game From SDU In League Game At S'side

—The Summerside Aces took a close, thrilling game from St. Dunstan's University at the Raceway Stadium in Summerside Saturday night, edging the McAdam-coached team by the score of 5-4 when with 30 seconds to go Peter Pope scored the tie-breaking tally. For over half the City League game the home forces were fighting an uphill battle. The Saints got the only goal in the first period when Lloyd Gaudet banged one past Lefurage half way through-out the frame. Stan Gallant snapped the disk into the twines early in the middle session, Woodside putting the puck on "Mooney's" stick with half the net yawning open in front of him. McInnis sent the red-clad visitors surging in front again four minutes later, getting the first of his brace of goals when his long shot trickled through Lefurage's skates over the goal line. Shortly after this the Aces found themselves going on a 3-goal scoring spurge. Paul Schurman, Maurice Cannon and Edgar Taylor did the sniping and Garth Gay, the blue-line beller of the Baglole-Schurman aggregation, setting up two of the three counters with accurate and well-timed passes. This put the Aces in front 4-2, but Roy of SDU, halved the lead, by the dying seconds of the period after Lloyd Gaudet had cleared the puck from the red-white end with a brilliant, sink-length rush up the right boards. The final frame was a thriller throughout, both goalers coming through with spectacular stops. McInnis finally tied it up with his second goal of the evening, and just when it looked as if the game might end a 4-4 stalemate with 30 seconds of play remaining Peter Pope took Mooney Gallant's flip from close in and sent the home fans into a delirium of applause with the pay-off tally. The ice was hard and fast and the game was clean, and a crowd-pleaser, particularly in the last two periods.

Tribute To Former Grand River Man

The following tribute to the late Mr. Cyrus MacLellan, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel MacLellan, of Grand River, P. E. I., appeared recently in the Maritime Co-operator:
 "While the remains of the late Cyrus MacLellan lay at his home at William's Point, Antigonish County, friends who came from far and near to see him for the last time read above his coffin this poem, penned in his own handwriting:
 "Thoughts
 "Come atheists and scoffers and solve, if you can,
 The riddle of the cosmos, the destiny of man.
 The merest cosmic essence does just as plainly mock
 Your efforts to explain it as does the solid rock.
 Go mix and change the species,
 And make of man an ape—
 But why stop there to reason,
 Where things have form and shape?
 Go out beyond the cosmos, let fancy take its flight
 Beyond time's small dimension into eternal night;
 And then explain creation: imagine if you can
 Dead nothing spring to something, when light and time began.
 It's then good will and reason should make us humbly pause;
 In faith and revelation rest they who know the cause:
 The mammoth and the serpent, the acorn and the pod,
 The atom and the proton, alike lead up to God;
 And being without beginning, mysterious and supreme,
 Of whose great power our reason is given but a gleam;
 Supreme in power forever, with all things in his clasp,
 Eternities forever is more than mind can grasp."
 —Cyrus MacLellan 1936

"These lines were the product of a vigorous mind that worked a lifetime in the cause of social justice. They also reveal the deeply Christian side of his character, not so well known except to a smaller circle of close friends.
 "Cyrus MacLellan was born in 1892 at Grand River, P. E. I., and served overseas in World War I. After 1918 he worked at his trade of carpenter and builder in many places throughout Canada and U.S.A., and finally returned to his native Maritimes in 1932, making his home at William's Point.
 "In the fourteen years between 1918 and 1932 he passed down the valley of disillusionment with tens of thousands of others who had fought the war which was to make "the world safe for democracy." He found the working man returning from the battlefields of France obliged to fight another battle at home for such elementary rights as his labour union. He saw the inflated war economy gradually sag through the twenties and finally collapse in 1929. Then came unemployment and depression. These years decided the course of his life; he would devote himself to the cause of the working man and a program of social justice.
 "While others were idle, he read and studied; where others were silent, he spoke; and when others just suffered, he rebelled. In the middle of the depression years he published a pamphlet on his

Heavy Drifts On Summerside, Ch'town Road

—Highway officials at Summerside last evening reported that snow plows were encountering heavy snow banks in many sections in their work of opening the highways.
 The road from Summerside to Charlottetown via Borden and Crapaud was open for traffic. However, the route between Summerside and Charlottetown via Hunter River was closed for through traffic with plows working steadily to open the remaining section between Summerside and Hunter River. This section was expected to be completed today.
 West of Summerside the highway was reported open all the way to Tignish, Plover in a few sections had completed their work of opening main highways and had begun work on secondary roads. —S.
