Paine's Celery Compound certainly does all that is claimed for it. I have recommended it to my friends, and they all speak highly of the results received from it. I wish Paine's Celery Compound the success it so richly deserves."

JUBILATE DEO.

A thanksgiving anthem at the close of the South African war and the return of our Canadian Contingent.

Praise ye the Lord! Unto our God lift up the voice! Sing! For his word Laden with victory hath been spoken; Sound ye His praise, Letting the heart and tongue rejoice! Every tone of song Doth holy praise prolong. Extol his grace! He hath been merciful and kind; Tell of his love: We have been ever in His mind; His gifts excel; Evil and wrong He doth repel. Lovingly sing: God is the King; He doeth all things well.

REFRAIN.

Loyally then do we adore Him, He hath impeared our days; Ours are the strivings, done; His are the victories won; Greater Britain bends low before Him, Worshipping at the ways; So we bring our wreaths and garlands, Songs and praise: Great is the Lord! Marvellous truths by Him are taught Exalt His name!

Nervous and Debilitated.

Almost a Victim of Nervous Prostration—Was Restored to Health and Strength by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. D. W. Cronsberry, 168 Richmond street west, Toronto, Ont., states:—"My daughter, who sews in a white goods manufactory, got completely run down by the steady confinement and close attention required at her work. Her nerves were so exhausted, and she was so weak and debilitated, that she had to give up work entirely, and was almost a victim of nervous prostration. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, she began to use it, and was benefited from the very first. It proved an excellent remedy in restoring her to health and strength. After having used four boxes she is now at work again, healthy and happy, and attributes her recovery to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food." As a blood builder and nerve restorative, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of inestimable value. It makes the blood red, the nerves strong, and the whole system healthy and vigorous. 50c a box—at all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

He hath delight in our devotions; His plans are wise! National good His hand hath wrought; Sunder'd far apart, He maketh one in heart. Sing unto God! He hath made known His righteous will; Our God is strong! He hath been wisdom, might and skill; Blood is the seal—Ours hath been pour'd for the weal. Trustingly sing—God is the King, He doth all woundings heal.

Sing evermore! Sing over valley, hill and plain? Proclaim the joy! Herald the glory, everlasting! Wide as the world Ruler of men doth Britain reign; Nations welded on 'neath Africa's torrid sun. Give thanks to Goy! Circle the lands with grateful song! Let justice rule Wherever Freedom's yeomen throng. Keep jubilee Over each sun-crown'd shore and sea; Joyfully sing; God is the King Whereso' the flag floats free. —Llewellyn A. Morrison. Toronto, Canada.

RACE APPEALS.

(Montreal Gazette).

La Patrie denies that appeals were made by the Liberal party to the French-Canadians to vote for Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a French-Canadian premier. The experience of the campaign just closed has proved that the average political organ is ready to deny or affirm anything that the exigencies of the moment seem to call for. Just now it would suit the purpose of the Liberals to minimise the effect of the "solid Quebec" they boasted they would obtain, and did practically obtain. As a matter of fact, a main cry of the Liberals in this province during the late campaign, as during that of 1896, was to vote for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, a French-Canadian. In some places it was implied in the argument; in some it was openly said out, and these were where the speaker or writer deserves most credit. Whoever attended many public gatherings heard it. The cry, though based on a narrow conception of national duty, was not in itself so mischievous as some of its developments. One of these developments was the representation of Sir Charles Tupper and the Conservative party as the enemies of the French-Canadian people, who could only be sure of their position in the federation by maintaining the present French-Canadian premier in his place. And one of the most open sinners in promulgating this slander was La Patrie itself. In its issue of Monday, it printed this:

"Patriots, vote on Wednesday against the insulters of our nationality, against the enemies of our province?" That was the spirit in which much of La Patrie's campaign writing was produced, and the lesser journals on its side too often followed its lead. That other chief organ of Liberalism as we have it today, the Soleil, of Quebec, went so far in inciting anti-English feeling among its readers as to attack French-speaking public men who allowed their children to attend English colleges. On the eve of polling it printed this direct incitement to racial divisions:

"Electors of Montmorency, are you like Mr. Cargrain, only French in name? Are you going by your votes to make yourself like him, slaves of the Tory Orangemen, those fomenters of discord, who only seek party triumphs by racial and religious wars? Are you going to thank them for their insults by voting for the man who is their slave and tool? Mr. Casgrain is a professor at Laval University, and if he had in his position a heart and sense of gratitude worth five cents, he would have his children educated at that institution, which is the national university of the French-Canadians. Now he has such contempt for his compatriots that he sends his son to McGill University, a very respectable institution, but English and Protestant."

The men who make these mischief-breeding appeals are not themselves, as a rule, bigots or intolerant. Mr. Tarte, whose name is associated with the control of La Patrie, has probably a few prejudices as any man in public life. Mr. Pacaud, who directs Le Soleil, is, as an individual, as broadminded as his colleague in sin. Their newspapers send forth their incendiary appeals as a means to an end. In the present instance, even more markedly than in 1896, they have secured their end. The worst evil of it is not that they have to a large extent sent Quebec against the other provinces, but that they have given an excuse to other fire-brands to work at setting the other provinces against Quebec. There is a more marked division today between the English and French-speaking peoples than there was in 1885, when the just execution of Louis Riel gave the men who are triumphant now their first great opportunity to exploit their scheme for getting where they are.

TWENTY YEARS STANDING.

Trouble of a Norwich Farmer who was Relieved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NORWICH, Nov. 12.—For twenty years Mr. Wilbert Woodward, of Willow Dell, has suffered with backache. He grew so bad that he was confined to his bed two days out of a week. His farm suffered for the lack of the eye of its master, and Mr. Woodward made every effort to find a cure for his trouble.

He says, "I tried every thing I ever heard of, but no cure. Last fall I heard about Dodd's Kidney Pills and I bought three boxes of them from Mr. Bannon, of Norwich, and I am happy to say they have done me more good than all the other medicines put together, that I got from the doctor. My wife takes Dodd's Kidney Pills also, for lame back and rheumatism, and finds them grand. I hope any person suffering as we did will try these remedies. I would willingly pay two dollars a box rather than be without Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house."

Five new cardinals will be appointed at the next consistory at Rome.

FENNELL & CHANDLER

VICTORINE

WASHING COMPOUND

We have secured the agency for the Island of the above named Washing Compound, which has been pronounced by the ladies of Canada to be the GREATEST LABOR-SAVER OF MODERN TIMES, and a real treasure on wash day.

It washes clothes and guaranteed not to injure the most delicate fabric. The properties possessed by this compound are those of loosening and separating the dirt without injury to the fabric, instead of eating up the dirt and rotting the cloth as is the case with many articles now on the market which claim to wash everything. By the use of this compound no rubbing is required, thus saving the wear and tear on clothes, to say nothing of the labor; simply boil and rinse, for flannels it has no equal, and ladies will find it particularly good for washing lace curtains, as there is POSITIVELY NO RUBBING REQUIRED. One cake will wash two large boilers of clothes and the cost is a mere trifle. Two cakes 5c; 25c per dozen, at all grocers. Wholesale by
