40 Games To Go

PENNANT FEVER has hit Philidalphia. The Phillies, attempting to repeat their Whizz Kid successes of 1950 by coming from nowhere to win the National League title, are leading the NL pack by seven games with 40 contests remaining in their schedule.

Gene Mauch's Phillies, paced by a new group of Whiz Kids, including Herrnstein, Allen, Mota, Rojas and Callison, don't appear to be weakening in the rugged pennant drive. In fact, they've increased their lead over the past few weeks and have lost two games in a row only twice since July 27.

Richie Allen, a 22-year-old fleet-footed infielder, is the Phillies leader. Last season with Little Rock of the International League Allen blasted 33 homers, 97 runs batted-in, and had an average of .289. At the end of the '63 season he moved up to the Phillies for 10 games. The change didn't bother him a bit. He didn't hit any homers but drove in two runs and had a .292 batting average.

This season Allen constantly has been around the .305 mark. He leads the league in runs with 95 and has hit 21 homers and drove in 62 runs. Allen looks like a permanent fixture in Philadelphia, and if the Phillies keep their pace to win the pennant, he'll be Rookie-of-the-year.

Phillies open a three game series in Pittsburgh against the hot-and-cold Pirates tonight. They get a days rest July 31, but open a seven game home stand in seven days beginning September 1. The Colts will be in for three, the ever contending Giants have three with the Phils and the Dodgers one. After that, it's the west coast.

A club can win a pennant two ways.—Provided it has some ball players to start with in the beginning .The have to win one-run ball games and hit the poorer teams when they're losing. The Phillies will have to do both.

Off The Cuff

JIMMY PIERSALL of the Los Angeles Angels gave Kansas City a preview of the Beatles Wendesday night. CHARLES FINLEY, owner of the brown Athletics has hired THE BEATLES for a performance next month, and Piersall took the opportunity in the seventh inning to go into one of his rountines. As he strolled to the plate to bat, Piersall was wearing a Beatle wig. Plate umpire FRANK UMONT then held a small conference with the Los Angeles outfielder, and Piersall batted without the hair-piece . . . Prince Edward Island's best middle distance runner for his era since DAVE BOWELL, Andy Arsenault, goes in the half-mile at Winnipeg's Canadian Age Class track and field championships this afternoon. Andy deserves a lot of respect for the determination he has shown this summer in training alone day after day. There is a good possibility he will be offered a sport scholarship to attend an American university next year . . . TACHIKAWA CITY Japan, having its first crack at the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pa., advanced to semi-final play Wednesday with al-0 win over Valleyfield, Que. They were scheduled to play their second game last night . . . SANDY STEPHENS, dropped for the second time in as many years by Canadian football clubs, is reported to be trying out with Cleveland Browns of the National Football League . . . DOUG POWELL may be back playing left field for Baltimore Orioles within a week. That's the word from LEE MACPHAIL, Oriole president after surgeons had another look at the slugger's injured left wrist. When the 23-year-old Powell hurt it in a leap against the left wall in Boston's Fenway Park last Thursday, it was thought he would be out of action for a month. MacPhail rated the injury "more of a bad sprain with possibly a small bone chip."

PLAYING OVER HIS HEAD

Jim Hall of Minnesota Twins is safe at first base as Tom McCraw of Chicago White Sox leaps in unsuccessful try for high throw from Ron Hansen who fielded the grounder and was charged with an error. Hall went on to second, and eventually scored.

Twins Topple White Sox; Detroit Shades Red Sox

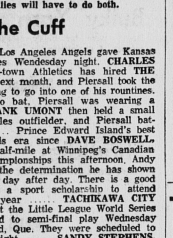
By THE CANADIAN PRESS

A ninth - inning double - steal and catcher J. C. Martin's throwing error brought across the winning run as Minnesota took a 5-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox Thursday.

The loss dropped the Sox half a game behind idle Baltimore Orioles in the American League.

The Detroit Tigers completed a three-game series sweep over Boston by rallying for three runs in the eighth and defeating the Red Sox 5-4.

After Jimmy Hall's single in Chicago and a walk by ace reliefer Hoyt Wilhelm to Bob Allison with one out in the ninth, Hall and Allison set sail on a double steal try.



J.C. MARTIN

BROKE 2-2 TIE

Martin's throw to third base bounded into left field, scoring Hall and sending Allison to third. That broke a 2-2 tie which had lasted from the fifth inning.

Two more runs counted in the ninth as Bernie Allen singled across Allison from third and the third Sox pitcher, Ed Fisher wild-pitched across a run.

The victory went to Al Worthington, who spelled starter Jim (Mudcat) Grant in the eighth. The loser was Wilhelm, who replaced starter Ray Herbert in the seventh.

Grant retired 12 successive batters before Pete Ward led off the fifth with his 18th homer.

Herbert had pitched one - hit ball until a two-run Minnesota fifth.

Trailing 4-3 going into the eighth, the Tigers got one run off Boston starter Jack Lamabe on Don Wert's single and Jerry Lumpe's triple. Lamabe was replaced by Dick Radatz, who walked Al Kaline and then was tagged for a decisive two-run double by Don Demeter.

In the bottom of the eighth, Boston filled the bases against reliever Julio Navarro. But Fred Gladding came in and retired Dick Stuart, ending the threat.

300TH HOME RUN

In Kansas City, Joe Adcock's 300th career home run—a two-run shot to left-centre — highlighted a four-run second inning for Los Angeles and pointed the Angels to their third straight victory over Kansas City, 7-1.

The veteran Adcock, a 36-year-old, right - handed hitting first baseman in his 15th year in the majors, was only the 23rd player in major league history to hit the 300 plateau, and only the eighth active player with that figure.

The 6-foot-4, 220 - pounder, tagged loser Diego Segui for the long drive following a double by Willie Smith, who also hit a homer in the third. Lou Clinton doubled in another run in the second, went to third on a single and scored on a foul fly.

Lennie Green also hit a homer for the Angeles in the eighth. In all, Los Angeles collected 13 hits.

Police Nip Bankers 3-2

Police took a one-game lead in their Commercial Softball League final playoff series against the Bankers last night by downing the Bankers 3-2 in an action packed contest.

Bernie MacKinnon was the winning pitcher and Gordon Arsenault the loser.

The policemen's big run came in the bottom of the seventh as Charlie Ready blasted a run-scoring double to break a 2-2 tie.

Three Double Winners In Annual Colt Stakes

There were three double dash winners in last night's running of Prince Edward Island annual Colt Stakes at the Charlottetown Driving Park. Genesse Pal, Miss Restigouche and Kenna K., stood out among the Island's best young horse flesh as they led the field to the wire in both heats of their respective classes.

Jack Annear, president of the Island Horseman's Club presented coolers on behalf of the Club to the horse with the best summary in each of the five classifications.

Chevy Acorn presented the E.F. Acorn Memorial trophy to Horace Willis. Mr. Willis was up behind Gennesse Pal as he teamed the gelding to a double win in the $500.00 three year old trot.

In dashes two and six — the two year old pace — it was Miss Restigouche who showed a clean pair of heels to the rest of the field and captured both heats in convincing fashion. Mrs. Doug Hill presented the Rendezvous trophy to Mr. Poley who was holding the ribbons on the Bevan Poley, Tide Head, N.B., owned gelding.

Askel, owned by Jack Annear and reined by Alfred Lowery took top honors in the third dash. The second time out Dan MacNeil teamed Runway owned by Omer Kinch, West Roxbury, N.Y. to the wire a nose ahead of the Annear-owned colt. Both entries had a one and two summary but Asket had the best time, thus received the J.R. Williams second trophy. Jack Williams made the presentation to Mr. Lowery.

Triflite owned by J. E. L. Burke, Mt. Edward Road captured the four year old trot as Joe Hennessey reined the mare to a three and one summary. Evangeld was his closest rival with a one and four summary. George Calbeck presented the Colonel D.A. MacKinnon trophy, on behalf of Mr. MacKinnon to Joe Heanessey.

Mrs. Don Seaman presented the Horse and Sulky Club trophy to Leo Collins. Mr. Collins was in the sulky of the John Nicholson owned Kenna K. The mare led the pack to the wire in dashes four and nine to capture the two year old trot.

Racing action resumes at the Charlottetown Driving Park tonight with an eight dash card set to leave the wire at 9.00 p.m.

Movers Eliminate Plumbers

SUMMERSIDE — Coastal Movers knocked off Inman Plumbing 7-3 here last night to win the Prince County Softball championship and the CBFW trophy, emblematic of team supremacy. Coastal Movers won the best of five finals from Inman Plumbing by scores of 7-8, 10-1, 18-1, 4-6 and lastly 7-3.

George Kinch hurled the win and in doing so, won all Coastal Mover play off games. Kinch, however had trouble from the surprising and plucky Plumbers in the first two innings. Inman Plumbing scored a single run in the opening inning when lead off batter John Pleson singled sharply up the middle and later scored on a stolen base and an error.

Coastal Movers came back with three in the bottom half on two doubles, a single, two walks, two errors, a passed ball and an infield ground out.

Shutout for the next five innings by Kinch, Inman Plumbing scored their final two runs in the second inning to tie the score at 3-3. Two singles, two errors, and a fielders choice accounted for the scores. Coastal Movers went ahead to stay in the fourth inning. Two walks, a walk, a fielders choice, a passed ball, a sacrifice, an error and an infield out gave the Movers two go ahead runs to make the score 5-3.

Coastal Movers stretched the lead with another run in the fifth on Doug Allen's lead off homer and completed the scoring in the sixth as 'Marty' Martin doubled home Jerry Bernard.

Kinch fanned four and walked a single batter. His losing mound foe was once again Jack Grabowski. Grabowski, fanned one batter and issued three free passes.

Gord Gass and Gus Harris had two singles apiece to help Kinch and the Movers. Frank Wigglesworth who had worked right up until game time, whacked two singles in three trips for Inman Plumbing.

Top Pacers Entered For Memorial Event

SACKVILLE DOWNS, N.S. (CP) — Three of the top pacers in the Maritimes will be among the eight starters in Saturday night's $4,000 B.C Cruickshank memorial race at Sackville Downs.

Willie's Adios, Edgewood Scott and June Byrd were named earlier in the week. Completing the field will be Tammany Hall, Port Wallis Boy, Huckster, Dudley and Crash Dive.

Bob Brook, the horse which holds the track record at the Downs with a mile in 2:02 4-5, is racing in Ontario and is not entered.

Willie's Adios, owned by Eric and Harry Whebby of Dartmouth, N.S., is the pre-race favorite with a personal mark of 2:03 4-5 set in this year's Moncton race.

June Byrd, owned by the Greenbrier Farms in Chatham, raced to a 2:06 flat in this year's Gold Cup and Saucer event at Charlottetown. The track at the time was said to be three to four seconds off normal.

Edgewood Scott, the Prince Edward Island horse owned by Stanley Mayhew, L. Ramsay and S. Howatt, established a new personal mark of 2:04 4-5 in the Evening Patriot inaugural free-for-all at Charlottetown recently.

Track officials said Thursday that records like these, combined with track conditions to be the best since the Downs opened, indicate a fast race.

The big purse is second to the Maritimes only to the $5,000 Nova Scotia invitational pace.

Tamany Hall already has raced to a 2:06 1-5 mile this season and Dudley H. had a mile of 2:06 4-5.

Abbies Wallop S'side 15-0

The Charlottetown Intermediate Abbies walloped the Summerside Intermediate club 15-0 in a one sided, under the lights, tilt at Memorial Field, last night.

The victory gives the Charlottetown team a 1-0 lead in the best of seven series for the provincial Intermediate championship. The second game is scheduled for this Saturday at 2.00 p.m. in Summerside.

The Charlottetown team scored in every inning and the final outcome of the contest was never in doubt.

Donnie 'Funnel' MacLean was toeing the slab for the winners and the veteran hurler was tagged for eight hits over the nine inning distance.

Don Schurman absorbed the loss. Poirier and Hume also saw mound duty for the Summerside club. They gave up fifteen hits.

John Kane was the big man at the plate for the winning squad. John lashed out with three singles and a home run in five official trips to the plate. Team mate Bob Rice aided the winning cause with two single and a triple.

George Dalton and Darrell Newson each garnered two hits in four appearances in the batter's box for the losing forces.

Charlie Ryan was behind the plate for last night's game and was assisted, on the bases, by Jim Allen and Ed Savidant.

Park Downs Mariners 4-1

The National Park All-Stars battled back from the brink of elimination in the Charlottetown city league softball finals at the new diamond, last night. The Park crew downed the Main Brace Mariners 4-1. The Mariners still lead the best of five series two games to one.

John Hughes was on the mound for the National Park. John gave up five hits, walked two and sent ten batters down via the strike out route over the seven inning route.

Lloyd 'Teet' Gregory making his third start in as many games, was the losing mound man 'Teet' gave up six base knocks, struck out three and issued no free passes. Errors played a big part in the outcome of the game.

Vince Bradley led the All-Stars aggregation at the plate. Vince garnered a single and connected for the longest hit of the game, a triple, in the third inning.

The Park scored two runs in the opening frame and were never headed after this. The Mariners drew to within one run in the bottom of the third. The score read 2-1; but the Park crew promptly added two more runs to their total in the top half of the frame.

The series resumes at the new diamond on Saturday afternoon with game time set for 2 p.m.
