

BATTLE OF INSHORE FISHERMEN AND TRAWLERS IS RAISED IN COMMONS

OTTAWA (CP)—The long-standing Maritime feud between inshore fishermen and deep-sea trawlers was brought onto the Commons floor Thursday.

George Nowlan (PC-Digby-Annapolis-Kings) demanded more protection for inshore fishermen against deprivations of the big trawlers which were coming too close to shore and destroying nets and lobster pots.

Mr. Nowlan, whose Nova Scotia constituency borders the Bay of Fundy, said there are reports that inshore fishermen are talking of using rifles to protect their fishing grounds.

He urged immediate action to set Canada's territorial water limits 12 miles offshore, instead of the present three miles, to keep United States trawlers away.

Edward Island, $3,500, averaging $7, and Quebec, $19,000, averaging $18.

LOWEST-INCOME GROUP

He said east-coast salt fishermen are the lowest-income group of all fishermen. The salt subsidy was the best way of helping the industry because many fishermen were being forced out of business because of salt prices.

He also reported total fish landings in Canada rose last year to 2,091,000,000 pounds from 1,848,000,000 in 1953. The landed value rose to $96,000,000 from $90,000,000 and the market value to $132,500,000 from $174,000,000.

Referring to west-coast fisheries, Mr. Sinclair said the government hopes the U.S. will agree to a treaty for sharing the catch of pink salmon.

Liner Queen Elizabeth Sails

By RANALD MACLURKIN

LONDON (Reuters)—The Cunard liner Queen Elizabeth sailed Thursday for New York, her strenuous defiance at striking seamen who had attempted to stop her.

The 83,000-ton liner's full crew of 1,250 men and women had remained loyal despite the efforts of the strikers to win them over. The wildcat walkout has seriously disrupted other transatlantic ocean traffic.

As the big ship moved out of Southampton, tug-boats straining at her bows, seamen on strike watched from the waterfront, shouting "seab" at the Elizabeth's crew.

The ship's departure was behind schedule but only because boat trains bringing her 1,315 passengers were late.

Suggest Severe Penalties For Drug Traffic Agents

OTTAWA (CP)—Severe penalties up to possibly life imprisonment for those guilty of trafficking narcotics were recommended Thursday by the Senate's drug committee as a main weapon in dealing with the problem of Canada's 3,300 known addicts.

The committee, under the chairmanship of Senator Thomas (J.-British Columbia), made a lengthy investigation of the country's illegal drug traffic with headquarters in Ottawa, Vancouver, Toronto and Montreal. It couched its main recommendation in these words:

"The committee considers that the penalties for trafficking, regardless of purpose, motive or amount, irrespective of whether the trafficker is or is not an addict, should be made more severe, with a compulsory lengthy minimum sentence and an increased minimum for a second or subsequent offence and possibly a maximum of life imprisonment."

HITS "HIGHER-UPS" Such action, the committee felt, would deter addicts who act as peddlers for "higher-ups". This would make it tough for the "higher-up" to get rid of his drugs. At the same time there should be intensified enforcement of the law against peddlers and top men in the traffic.

(At present, the law provides penalties for being in illegal possession of narcotics and for being in possession of narcotics for the purpose of trafficking. Addiction is not an offence.)

Penalties for the former range between a six-month minimum and a seven-year maximum. Possession of narcotics is a criminal offence.

Penalties for the latter range between a six-month minimum and a seven-year maximum. Possession of narcotics is a criminal offence.

Dosco Denies 4-Day Week Is Scheduled

GLACE BAY, N.S. (CP)—The Dominion Coal Company denied rumors Thursday that it would go on a four-day week to avoid a plant closure later on.

Harold Gordon, general manager of coal operations for Dosco, said the rumors were without foundation.

The company previously announced that its pits would be idle for 11 days because of lack of orders.

Peron Emerges Argentine's Boss Following Rebellion

By FRED L. STROZIER

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Juan D. Peron emerged Thursday as Argentina's boss despite last week's revolt and rumors his grip had been weakened.

The President is performing all his usual official duties in a completely normal routine. He arranged a radio address to the nation Thursday night (8:30 p.m. ADT), his fourth broadcast since the brief and bloody revolt of navy fliers and marine corps men was quelled by the army a week ago.

The General Confederation of Labor and the men's and women's Peronista parties—whose membership totals in the millions—have reaffirmed their support of Peron.

ARMY DECLARES LOYALTY

Perhaps more important, the army has made a new declaration of loyalty through Maj. Gen. Franklin Lucero, the army minister who has commanded all armed forces and the police since the revolt.

Changes in the cabinet are expected to be made soon but Peron's position and prestige remain intact. Well-informed circles said today all 136 members of the cabinet have resigned to permit Peron to make changes.

Last Thursday's rebellion was by far the gravest threat to Peron's power since he became president in 1946. It lasted less than six hours, but it was the fiercest uprising in modern Argentine history and perhaps the worst in all the 133 years of the republic.

A complete list of the victims has not yet been published, but Peron himself said hundreds were killed and thousands wounded in the aerial bombing of the centre of Buenos Aires by the rebel army. Informed sources here dis-

Four Children Saved From Fire

A flash fire about 7:30 yesterday evening gutted the inside of the residence (above) of Ernest Duffy, Parkdale and necessitated the hurried removal of four young children from the blazing interior.

The fire started in the kitchen and spread rapidly when the oil bottle fuel tank of the stove exploded due to the heat.

10-year-old Margaret Duffy, and a companion, Helen Waters, succeeded in getting the four youngest members of the Duffy family out of the house unharmed. The younger children were in bed at the time of the outbreak.

Mr. Duffy, who is employed at Fennell and Chandler's, is attending a Reserve Navy course at Victoria, B.C. The Duffys have nine children between the ages of three and 18 years. They are staying at the home of Mrs. Duffy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. MacGregor.

The Parkdale Fire Department under the direction of chief Danny McAskill rushed to the fire and quickly extinguished the blaze in an effective piece of work.

Although the interior was wholly ablaze by the time the firemen reached the scene they succeeded in saving the frame of the house which is situated on Beasley Avenue.

In addition to the extensive damage inside the house the Duffys also lost nearly all their clothes. Barter's Film Lab.

OTTAWA, June 23—(Special) Tenders for construction projects in the Maritimes and other parts of Canada are being called more speedily and actual work has been beginning much earlier since the Public Works portfolio was taken over by Hon. Robert Winters, J. Watson MacNaught, Liberal M.P. for Prince, told The Guardian today.

"Decisions to proceed with needed works projects are now being made promptly," Mr. MacNaught said. "This is an excellent thing because work then gets under way before the best part of the construction season is over."

It also has meant that far more projects listed on the estimates are completed in the fiscal year and need of revotes of funds for these projects is greatly diminished.

MONTREAL (CP)—With a blend of gaiety and solemn tradition Montrealers Thursday night began celebration of their favorite holiday—St. Jean Baptiste day.

The eve of the feast of French-Canada's patron saint included religious services and public merry-making—but the most spectacular event, a 26-band parade, comes today.

Several hundred thousand Montrealers, as well as thousands from surrounding districts will join the festivities, many continuing throughout the weekend.

Following Thursday night's band concert in Lafontaine park, Paul-Emile Cardinal Leger was to celebrate mass at the Immaculate Conception church on Rachel street east, with the sermon preached by Msgr. Norbert Rietchaud, arch-bishop of Moncton, N. B.

Later the cardinal was to bless a huge bonfire, lit by Mayor Jean Drapeau.

HUGE PARADE

At least 300,000 will see the parade as it sweeps along Sherbrooke street, this year—31st consecutive year for the event—featuring 26 floats with the legend of Evangeline and the expulsion of the Acadians as the main theme.

Another main event of the feast will be a banquet at the chateau on St. Helen's island, in the St. Lawrence river, with guest speaker being Claxite Saville, Moncton businessman.

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands (Reuters)—Canadian ambassador Thomas A. Stone said Thursday Canadians are worried over American protectionism hindering Canada's exports to the United States.

He told an American audience at a luncheon meeting: "Our population, less than one-tenth of yours, buys nearly $3,000,000,000 worth of American goods, incidentally, much more than the whole of South America."

"But we are able to sell to your 165,000,000 people only $2,333,000,000 worth of goods."

"When we make an effort to redress the balance by increasing our exports, especially of agricultural and fisheries and other primary products, the clamor for protection against any success that this effort may achieve grows in Washington and we are in trouble."

He said he would be less than frank if he did not say that Canadian's worries and occasional tirades on this score were increasing. Foreign trade is much more important to Canadians per head than to Americans, he said.

Describing United States-Canadian defence co-operation in North America as "a fine example of partnership," Stone said "the boundary line cannot be ignored for defence purposes and recognized as a very real obstacle every time more Canadian exports wish to cross it."
