Golden Wedding In Montreal

MR. AND MRS. PETER A. McMAHON

A very happy event was observed in Montreal on Jan. 28th, when Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. McMahon, formerly of Emerald Junction, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

In the morning at Loyola College, holy Mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph P. Monaghan, S.J., brother of Mrs. McMahon, and a special blessing was imparted to the happy couple. During the Mass, appropriate hymns were sung by their daughter Ann and their son Pope, with Mrs. Reginald Murphy at the organ.

The family then returned to the home of their son, John, which was gaily decorated for the occasion with daffodils, tulips and snapdragons. The table was decorated quite simply with silver, and was centered with a wedding cake.

Following the dinner, Fr. Monaghan recalled the happy events of that day fifty years ago and then proposed a toast to the happy couple, which was responded to in a few well chosen words by Mr. McMahon.

An address was then read to them by their son, Pope, and a gold-colored puff and well-filled purse were presented to them by their daughter Mary (Mrs. W. Connick) on behalf of the family.

That evening, many friends gathered to congratulate them and wish them future happiness, and to present them with many valuable gifts. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing and dancing and was brought to a close with the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows".

Mrs. Walter Connick and Mr. Pope McMahon, Kinkora, were in Montreal for the celebration of their parents' fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The Address

1902 — 1952

Rejoice! Rejoice!
It is a Jubilee!

Thus heralds proclaimed great occasions of joy among the early Christians. These same words echo the sentiments of us who have gathered to join with you, Mom and Dad, sharing the joy of your golden chain of wedded years.

Most of us are inclined on anniversaries to look back and scan the road travelled thus far. Fifty years ago, you were the blushing bride and proud groom setting out together on the way of love and sacrifice with the solemn words of the marriage ceremony reminding you that it was, for better or for worse, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health, until death does us part.

As the way wound on, you can look back upon many joys and happy memories that are particularly your own. Even in the clouds of the trials and difficulties that you met along the way—for no lives are without some—you must have found the silver lining as you rode through them together.

Today as you reach the milestone of fifty years your happiness must be even greater than it was on that blissful day, for you share it with your very own, your sons, your daughters, your grandchildren.

Instead of attempting to peer into that vast unknown we call the future, may we offer you our very best wishes and strength for many more years. May God shower upon you, with even greater abundance, His choicest blessings and graces. Then as the shadows lengthen and the end of the road appears, may your happy days be crowned with the rich reward you deserve.

May we ask you to accept these gifts as a symbol of our desire to rejoice with you on your jubilee. Through it, we wish to say more sincerely than words can tell, how proud and happy we are to be with you on this joyous occasion, and to proclaim with gladness,

"Truly this is a Jubilee".

Albany and Vicinity

Mrs. Elmer Gamble of North Tryon is at present visiting with relatives and friends in Saint John, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Dawson were visitors to New Annan on Feb. 4th, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Schurman.

The many friends of Mrs. Harry Webster of Augustine Cove are sorry to hear of her continued illness. Mrs. Webster has been confined to her home for some time.

Mr. Reece Quigley and Mr. Harry Quigley, of Mount Tryon, were recent visitors to Cape Traverse. While there they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Quigley of Cape Traverse.

Mr. Keir Bassett, one of Albany's leading farmers, has returned from a motor trip to West Aston, and Malden, Mass., where he visited with his brother whom he had not seen for a number of years.

Mr. Fred Leard of Augustine Cove has been laid up at his home with an attack of 'flu. It is the wish of this community that Fred will soon be up and around again, as he is missed by his friends during his illness.

At Victoria Rink on Feb. 6th the Cape Traverse School played a tie game with the Tryon School hockey team in the boys' school league. The Victoria Sea Gulls defeated the Cape Traverse Rovers Sisters in a fast game of hockey, with a score of 3-2.

A local man who lost a cheque recently is very pleased to have it returned to him by an enterprising business man who discovered it in its original envelope, in a bunch of papers that were about to be burned in his furnace.

Ice cutting and ice hauling is the busy activity in this section at the present time. A number of trucks are hauling daily from Ives' mill pond in North Tryon and Mr. Blair Dawson is the man in charge of ice sawing. Ice is being hauled to Albany and surrounding sections.

Mr. Walter Bell Sr., of Tryon, was in Albany on business in regard to the shipping of the 1952 early turnip crop. Mr. Bell specializes in growing Rutabagas for the early United States markets, and shipped turnips in early August of last year.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. Lloyd Rogerson on being named a commissioner to the newly incorporated Town of Crapaud. Mr. Rogerson is manager of the Crapaud Creamery and Cold Storage Co. and was formerly connected with the Tryon Dairying Co. He also operates the Crapaud Theatre.

—Mr. Max Thompson who formerly resided in North Tryon, and later moved to the Keith Myers farm in Victoria, is being congratulated on bringing in such a wonderful Holstein bull to this Province. Mr. Thompson is one of the district's live-wire up to the minute stock men. He takes a special interest in the Francis black and white pure bred Holsteins.

Friends here of Mr. Joseph Callbeck of Summerside are very sorry to learn of his illness. Mr. Callbeck was at one time one of Albany's leading stock raisers and made a wonderful success of raising hogs and Clydesdale horses. Some of his stock was the best produced and won many prizes in the Fall Fairs both on the Island and mainland. It is honed that Mr. Joseph Callbeck will soon be up and around again enjoying good health.

PROCLAMATION

In tribute to the memory of our late Monarch, King George VI and in order to observe the day of mourning, I hereby proclaim Friday, February 15th, 1952, a public holiday in the Town of Kensington, and I request that all places of business and schools be closed on that day.

W. H. DARRACH,
Mayor.
