MUSIAL SPOILS NO-HITTER

Cubs Blank Cards 1-0; Braves Down Redlegs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Louis Cardinals with only one hit Tuesday — a seventh-inning double by Stan Musial—for a 1-0 Chicago victory.

It was the second no-hit bid that Musial had spoiled in four days. His seventh-inning single was the only hit off San Francisco's Jack Sanford last Saturday.

Henry Aaron boosted his batting average to .567 with a single, double and triple during Milwaukee's 7-4 victory over Cincinnati. Warren Spahn won his second of the season. Vada Pinson of the Reds drove in four runs with a single, double and triple.

TIRNOS TERRIFIC
The only day game in the American saw Gus Triandos knock in five runs with a pair of home runs in Baltimore's 5-2 triumph over Boston. Triandos ruined Jerry Casale with a grand slam in the first and another homer in the fifth with nobody on.

St. Louis' Bob Gibson had a perfect game until Musial doubled with two out in the seventh. He had retired 20 men in succession before Musial slashed a bouncer to left field just inside the foul line.

The Cubs scored the lone run in the second on Walt Moryn's single, a walk, an infield out and Sammy Taylor's single.

Rookie Gary Blaylock, making his first start, turned in a fine effort, scattering five Cub hits.

248TH VICTORY
The league-leading Braves won their fifth in six starts although Spahn gave up 11 hits enroute to his 248th major league victory. Bob Purkey, knocked out in the fourth, suffered his first defeat.

Triandos was the whole show at Boston with his two homers. The husky catcher now has a total of 14 runs batted in and has hit four homers. His average is .357.

Hoyt Wilhelm's knucklers baffled the Red Sox who had only eight singles. Wilhelm walked in one run and the second scored on a single, two passed balls by Triandos and an error by the catcher.

Three night games were scheduled in the American League—Cleveland at Detroit, Chicago at Kansas City and New York at Washington.

In National League night action San Francisco was at Los Angeles, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Daily Double Pays $820.20

PORT ERIE, Ont. (CP)—The season's largest daily double of $820.20 was recorded when Our Fashion and Shadow Bound won the first two races at Fort Erie Tuesday afternoon. There were 24 tickets on the winning combination.

Our Fashion, a three-year-old filly owned by Mrs. Roy Dew, of Toronto and ridden by Don Hale, won the first race by a length and paid $68.00 straight, $19.40 to place and $8.60 to show.

Shadow Bound, owned by R. J. Gasperini and ridden by Ernie Warne, paid $27.60, $13.25 and $5.10 in winning the second race.

Charnley Agrees To Meet Towel

LONDON (AP)—Dave Charnley, British lightweight boxing champion, Tuesday agreed to fight Willie Towel, South African holder of the British Empire title, in a championship bout at Wembley Stadium May 12.

Charnley gets his chance to fight for the Empire title because Carlos Ortiz of New York, pulled out of his scheduled fight with Towel because of eye injuries.

Mount Waddington, 170 miles north of Vancouver, at 13,260 feet is the highest peak in the Coast Range.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

There is good news from Truro with the announcement that the 1959 harness racing season will open there on May 18 with an eight-dash card. The raceway will be operated this year by the Nova Scotia Exhibition Association, with Carl MacKenzie as secretary-manager.

The regular program of night racing is expected to start in mid-June, with racing on Wednesday and Saturday nights throughout the season. At present, there are between 40 and 50 horses being trained or stabled at the track.

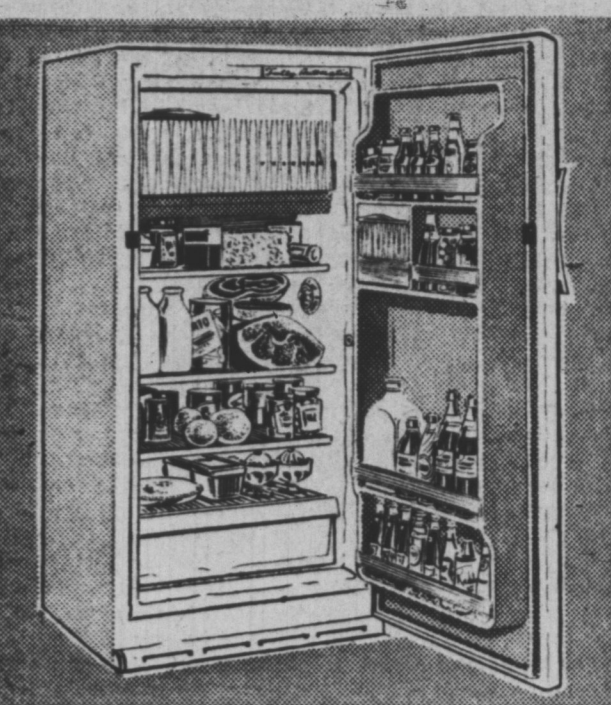

In congratulating the new management, we must also give a word of praise to the two gentlemen who have conducted the racing programs there for the past number of years. They met all their obligations, and even on nights when the elements were against them and the attendance small, they always had a cheerful word for the horsemen.

In Carl MacKenzie, the N.S. Exhibition Association has engaged one of the best-posted men in the Maritimes. Every feature of harness racing is familiar to him, and his previous experience as a race track manager will make it easier for him to handle this quite responsible position.
