By ALAN HARVEY
LONDON (CP)—In a series of fleeting visits over a two-year period, ebullient E. P. (Eddie) Taylor of Toronto has fought his frothy way near to the pinnacle of British brewing.

By his latest move, announced here, he is merging his 2,480,000 United Breweries with the two-century-old Charrington firm to form the third largest beer group in Britain.

The new company, to be called Charrington United Breweries, will control 5,250 pubs or off-licence outlets. That puts it next in line behind In-Dee, run by Edward Thompson, with 7,846 outlets, and Watney Mann with 6,440.

To some financial commentators, the remarkable thing

COUNCIL OKAYS BOW, ARROW

OTTAWA (CP)—The Northwest Territories Council has ruled that a bow and arrow is just as lethal as a gun and, used properly, causes an animal no more pain than a bullet.

The council refused a request by the Federated Humane Societies that the hunting of buffalo with a bow and arrow be banned because its use meant unnecessary suffering for the animals.

Councillors agreed, however, that steps should be taken to ensure that persons hunting with such weapons are experts.

trump, depending upon the strength of his hand.

West, anxious to get a club lead in case North became declarer in notrump or a major suit, doubled.

North, taking advantage of the opportunity to deny possession of a four-card major and, at the same time, to show good support for clubs, redoubled.

After East passed, South decided to gamble out two clubs redoubled despite his holding of only the Q-6. He reasoned his side had enough high card strength to make eight tricks even though he knew West was loaded with clubs. He therefore passed.

West had no place to run for shelter and also passed, though by how he was beset with doubts about the whole matter. He led a heart.

Declarer finessed the jack, cashed the queen and ace of hearts, and cashed the king and ace of diamonds, he trumped a spade in dummy, West discarding a heart.

By now, eight tricks had been played and South had won them all. West was left with only clubs. When declarer played a diamond to the jack, West had to ruff, and when he then returned a low trump, South let it come around to his queen.

Dummy still had the A-J left and had to make two tricks with them, and the upshot of the hand was that South made two clubs redoubled with three overtricks.

This came to a tidy 1,910 points for North-South, which goes to show that you have to be sure of what you're doing when you double a low contract for a lead, and that it may be better to just maintain a discreet silence.

North-South were using the Stayman convention and the two club bid, in line with the convention, simply requested North to show a four-card major suit if he had one; otherwise, North was supposed to bid two diamonds or two no-

LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
