DEATH NOTICE

EMMETT HUGHES

On April 23rd, 1959, Emmett Hughes, of Shamrock was called to his eternal reward only three months after his beloved wife died. The late Mr. Hughes was born in Kinkora eighty one years ago, on of James Hughes and Mary E. Berrigan, and when a young man married Mary Ann McKenna of Newton. Together they settled in Shamrock and there they established a fine home and reared their family. Emmett Hughes was known far and wide to be an industrious man. A good neighbour and a faithful friend in need. He was a faithful member of the Catholic Church and was frequently visited by his pastor, Rev. Harold Croken. Two sons, Joseph, of Shamrock and Mervin of Windsor, Ont. Also two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Hagan of Emerald and Mrs. Gerard McGuigan of Toronto are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father. One son James died for his country in 1942. One sister, Mrs. Regina Greenan also survives and eleven grand children. On April 27th his large funeral was held at Kinkora. A church Requiem High Mass was offered by the Pastor Rev. Harold Croken who also performed services at the grave. Pallbearers were Sam Gillis, John Matheson, Joseph Mulligan, Joseph Trainor, Borden Greenan and George Hughes, Mr. P.A. Monaghan was funeral director.

May his soul rest in peace.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Emmett Hughes wish to offer sincere thanks to the clergy, doctors, and nurses who attended their father during his short illness. Also neighbours and friends who gave masses enrollments and cards of sympathy, telegrams, and spiritual bouquets or assisted in any way during their recent sad bereavement.

DROUGHT PROBLEM

PEIPING (Reuters) - Chinese peasants are battling drought in two northeastern provinces while floods threaten farmlands and homes in the far south. Rainfall since the winter has been short for crops in Kirin province bordering Korea and the Soviet Union, the Communist party newspaper Peoples Daily reported Saturday.
