ROBBIE AND DOG BITE DUST

In the shoot-out at the OK Robertson Corral the Lone Professor sat tall in the saddle when the smoke cleared. Robbie and the dog had him surrounded from the beginning, but faced with pawns on one side and fangs on the other, the Lone Professor neither blanched, flinched, nor wilted.

Robbie and the Lone Professor want to turn their Knights and Bishops loose on some other hot-shots on Friday, November 14, same time, 1 p.m., same place, Robertson Corral, I mean Lounge. Chess sets available and beginners welcome.

Recently, the studio has been transformed into an intimate performance space called STUDIO THEATRE. It will be used by the Montage Dance Theatre as well as other artists within and outside the community.

On November 14 & 15th, STUDIO THEATRE proudly presents Toronto's "Dancemakers".

FROM: M. P. Madan,
Physics Dept.

I have been asked by the President to examine and report on matters concerning the university appointments which do not normally follow the regular pattern of faculty recruitment. For example:

- Professor Emeritus
- Honorary Professor
- University Professor
- Adjunct Professors, Associate Professors and Assistant Professors
- Award of an appropriate rank to an individual from within the community who has not pursued normal academic career, but is well qualified by virtue of his experience, etc.

- Visiting professor and possibly some other categories.

I am taking the liberty of requesting you to let me know your suggestions and comments so that adequate criteria and procedures can be developed and presented to the Senate.
