Ticket Sales Are Brisk

We understand ticket sales for the "Diane Mann benefit" game between Junior Legionaires and Moncton Junior Canucks has been brisk, but there is still time to make your contributions to the cause, and to watch two of the best Junior teams in the Maritimes. By the way, there's a paperweight contest between the first and second periods. You can watch the small fry, and still have time for a canteen break before the second period of the main game starts. Remember: it's the day after Christmas, and all through the rink, the speed of those juniors will make your eyes blink. Y'all come. Y'hear?

The line of Coke Grady, Greg Deighan, and Ronnie Gallant looked Wednesday night as if they were ready for the N.H.L. Now these boys have a lot of hockey ability, but they're not ready for the N.H.L. and should not look that way. The O'Leary defence are husky boys, but they haven't been coached enough in the not exactly gentle art of using their bodies effectively. No forward line in Island circles could look so smooth and dashing if they were pitted against blueline busters like Eustace Reeves, Kip Ready, Farmer Josey, and Junior MacLeod. It isn't that these outport players lack courage. In a rural open air rink some years ago two teams were battling for the puck in the corner, and it was almost five minutes before someone noticed that the puck was missing. It had gone through a big knot hole in the fence. But the correct use of the chassis to discourage incoming forwards is an art in itself. Pure brawn and guts and "up-and-at-'em" gusto is not enough. Ron MacArthur (s) is a graduate of the "rock 'em, sock 'em, sock 'em" school, but he was absent Wednesday night.

PC League Well Organized

The Prince County League is well organized and has a competent executive body at its head. It came through the counter-attractions of the Christmas season in surprisingly good shape. But the spectre of lack of balance rears its ugly head occasionally. If the league is to endure, and a lot of people seem to think it is the ideal setup for Prince County, regulations should be laid down to at least encourage balance among the teams. Two suggestions: that Summerside must always have two teams. That the outport centres could sign players from Summerside? But not vice versa. No doubt other suggestions will occur to our local promoters.

The two cinderella teams of the N.H.L. seem shaping up to be the Montreal Canadiens and the Boston Bruins. The surprising Habs are shooting for first place, and the Bruins for the fourth play-off spot, and don't risk your bottom dollar they won't make it. The donnybrook fines may have taken the teeth out of the Chicago attack, or is it possible that Reay's system of giving Hull and Mikita so much ice time has played the boys out? Boston will have to beat Detroit, and if Howe's line don't soon look a little more like last year's sparkling trio Bruins will probably do it.

LAST WEEK'S BOUQUET

Now Wanda, Shirley, Doug and I showed mixed teams how to play.

When Dougie skipped, the team we whipped looked pretty darn passe;

But there isn't any doubt as How he does quite well without us.

A team that beats the Richardsons deserves a big bouquet.

South Comes From Behind To Capture Bowl Classic

George Mira—42 attempts, 27 completions, 366 yards.

Jack Concannon—25 attempts, 12 completions, 246 yards.

Results: South 23, North 14.

That's the way it added up Saturday as the major colleges began their run of post-season football games with the North-South classic stealing the spotlight because of the duel between the two pro-bound quarterbacks.

Mira, the Miami, Fla., standout signed by San Francisco 49ers, set three Shrine records —attempts, completions, yards —and passed for two touchdowns as the South came from behind to whip the North and Concannon, the Boston College star signed by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Meanwhile at Houston, another highly publicized pro prospect, Don Trull, said he isn't ready to sign yet after passing for two last-quarter touchdowns that brought Baylor a 14-7 triumph over Louisiana State in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

In the other major bowl game played, Mississippi State built a 16-0 lead and then held on for a 16-12 victory over North Carolina State at Philadelphia in what may have been the last Liberty Bowl game. Only 8,509 fans were on hand.

Concannon got the North off to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, running nine yards for the first touchdown and passing 26 yards to Cloyd Webb of Iowa for another score. Then Mira began to hit his receivers.

Trull, drafted by Baltimore of the NFL and Houston of the AFL, got the Bears rolling in the final period. LSU had scored in the first period on Buddy Soefker's eight - yard run and turned back Baylor bids at the 19, 26, 7 and 10 yard lines.

COMPLETES 26

Trull passed seven yards to James Ingram to climax a 68-yard drive, then came right back and finished off a 70-yard march that won it with a 13 - yard TD toss to Ingram. Trull wound up with 26 completions in 37 attempts for 255 yards.

Mississippi State bolted in front in the first quarter of the Liberty Bowl on Tommy Inman's 11-yard run for a touchdown with a blocked kick and a three - yard touchdown run by Sonny Fisher. Justin Sanale added a 43-yard field goal in the second period.

North Carolina State then took over scoring on a one-yard lunge by Jim Rossal before the half and a five-yard pass from Rossi to Ray Barlow late in the fourth quarter. The Wolfpack got possession again with less than one minute left, but the Bulldogs stiffened and that was it.

SHIPS IN LOCKS

The maximum length of a ship that can be accommodated by the St Lawrence Seaway locks is 730 feet.

Czechs Nip Olympics

VANCOUVER (CP)—Czechoslovakia's national hockey team defeated a ragged Canadian Olympic club 3-1 Sunday afternoon in a high-tempered exhibition game watched by 5,000 fans.

The victory followed a 3-2 loss to the Olympics Wednesday and set up their Jan. 3 meeting at Sudbury, Ont., as the ruber match in their exhibition series preceding the 1964 Olympics in Austria.

The Czechs received superb goaltending from Vladimir Dzurilla and took the win on the strength of two unassisted second-period goals scored after defensive errors by the Canadians.

The Czechs scored the only goal of the first period and the Canadians got their goal in the third.

Czech marksmen were veterans Jaroslav Cerny, Kiri Dolana and Jaroslav Valtr. Al MacLean got the Olympics goal.

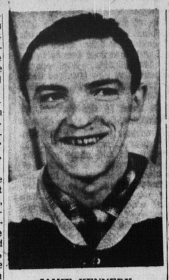
Kennedy Leads Citizens Win Over Councillors

The Jim Dowling-coached Citizens defeated Dr. Theriault's Councillors 6-3, in minor hockey's "Game of the Week", played Saturday evening at the Charlottetown Forum. The game featured some pretty goals and some great saves by goalies Mike Brown and Shane Henessey. Referee-in-chief Brian Lewis and linesmen Alan Andrews and Les Barnes had a relatively easy time, as ten minor penalties were called in the fast, free-wheeling game.

Jack McEachern opened the scoring for the Councillors, at the 8.25 mark of the first period, when he picked up Bobby Doherty's rebound and fired a five-footer over the sprawling Mike Brown. Jamie Kennedy fired two goals, within two minutes apart in the first period, to give the Citizens a 2-1 lead. Both goals came with assistance from Billy Weatherbie. Brian McIntyre scored on a 30-foot-backhander, after taking a pass from Herman McQuaid, to give the Citizens a 3-1 first-period lead.

Billy Weatherbie made the score read 4-1, on a pretty solo-effort, as he fired a close-in-drive to beat Shane Henessey in the Councillor's cage. Jamie Kennedy picked up the "hat trick", at the 12.05 mark of second period, to give the Citizens a big 5-1 lead. Jamie took passes from McQuaid and Weatherbie inside the Councillers blueline, skated in alone on goalie Shane Henessey and rifled a shot to pick the lower right-hand corner.

Hard-working Bobby Whitlock picked up Billy MacKinnon's rebound and fired a close-in-drive over Hennessey's left shoulder to give the Citizens a 6-1 lead by the end of the second period.



JAMIE KENNEDY

Jackie McEachern fed Lloyd Blanchard with a breakaway pass early in the third period, and Lloyd skated in alone on Mike Brown and fired a blistering "twenty-footer" to the left-hand corner, making the score read 6-2. Bobby Doherty, Alan Flood, and Jack McEachern, combined on the prettiest play of the night, to pull the Councillers within three goals as Jackie scored at the 8.05 mark.

Kevin Smith played a stand-out game on defence for the Councillers. Henessey received poor support in the Councillers nets, as his defencemen had trouble clearing the puck from their own end. Mike Brown played steady, and came up with some great saves as he was aided by a steady defence in front of him. Both goalies came up with twenty saves apiece in this well played game.

Another "Game of the Week" will be presented to the public, when the Liberals meet the Conservatives next Saturday evening at 8.30. Don't miss the crowd-pleasing, free-wheeling hockey dished out by these minor hockeyists.

The turkey was won by Urban Murnaghan as the ticket was picked by Pee Wee Fred Godkin.

Mt. Albion Takes Game

Mt. Albion Legion defeated Fort Augustus 7-4 in an exhibition hockey match played at St. Dunstans rink last night.

Gerald Cruwys scored twice to lead the winners attack while Eddie Myers, Parnell Trainor, Arnold Boswell, Robert Trowsdale and Blair Shea scored single goals.

G. Smith and MacDougall each scored twice for the losers.
