Local Baha'is Cable Iran

"The Charlottetown Baha'is Assembly, together with fellow believers throughout the world, are cabling urgent appeals to the Shah and the Iranian Government for the now persecuted Baha'is in that country," said Mr. Robert Donnelly, vice-chairman for the community.

He stated that national publications had given certain incorrect impressions of the Faith in their coverage of the recent steps to suppress the religion in the oradle of its birth, Iran, once called Persia. Said Mr. Donnelly, "We are not a sect of any faith, Islam or Christian, but separately founded in the middle of the last century, when Muhammad Ali, who called himself the Bab or Gate, prophesied that a Messenger of God for a new age would appear. Baha'is believe that Baha'u'llah was the Manifestation foretold by the Bab, and that He also was the Messenger spoken of by Buddha, Moses, Christ and Muhammad."

According to the speaker the Hazrat-i-Quds mentioned in the reports as a Temple is only the administrative headquarters for the Faith. The only Temple in the world today is located in Wilmette, Illinois, near Chicago.

May Shipments of Potatoes Far Down

The statement on carryover traffic between the Island and mainland issued for the month of May at the office of Superintendent Baker, C.N.R., shows a decline in shipments from the Island of 685 carloads, consisting chiefly of potatoes, which fell from 1207 to 510, a difference of 697 cars.

Other reductions included: 101 to 83 cars of livestock, 60 to 50 cars of timber, 20 to 8 cars of railway material and 8 to 3 cars of canned goods. Cars of roughwood went up from 38 to 51, meals from 26 to 27, eggs from 2 to 15, lumber from 3 to 7, vegetables from 2 to 4, scrap iron from 3 to 5 and machinery from 4 to 4. This shows that the total decrease was due to the decline in the three main exports of potatoes, livestock and turnips; lesser exports on the whole show an increase of from 50 to 61 carloads.

There is however a total increase in imports of 225 cars, including 388 to 419 of fertilizer, 320 to 385 of lime, and 254 to 266 of gas and oils. Also 137 to 156 of flour and feed, 77 to 106 of autos, 20 to 90 of sand, stone and gravel, 40 to 76 of brick and cement. Less than carloads show an increase from 249 to 256. There were slight decreases in fruits, lumber, meats, railway materials and canned goods, corresponding to the increase in exports of these goods.

TOKYO (AP) — Major Japanese newspapers say Russia has demanded that the United States pull its troops out of Japan and Okinawa within 90 days as the price of a Soviet-Japan peace treaty. The Tokyo dailies say Russia made a "drastic proposal" at Tuesday's session of the peace talks with Japan in London, embracing the demands the Soviet Union failed to win at the 1951 San Francisco peace conference.

Claims Western

exist any more in any significant sense. Ownership of the tools of production had become increasingly diffused.

"More and more the owners of industry are pretty average Canadians, including thousands of workers whose direct and indirect savings may include substantial shareholding in Canadian business."

"Actual control of business operations has largely passed into the hands of a group of hired workers — the professional managers. Corporate power and influence is subject to legal restrictions, to pressures of public opinion and to the promptings of what might be called 'corporate conscience.'"

Reviewing economic conditions, Mr. Young says that although new financing in Canada will not likely reach 1954 levels, it will continue heavy and active.

Corporate borrowing was difficult to gauge but unless gas pipe line financing proved feasible the total might be lower this year.

Although there was a plentiful money supply, large prospective demands for investment funds in 1955, together with possible greater use of bank credit by business corporations in the last half of 1955, might suggest that economic pressures were working toward a tightening of credit conditions.

"Official" monetary and credit policies, however, were not likely to allow market forces to have their full effect.

Consequently, unless inflationary pressures became evident in Canada, or interest rates in the United States experienced an unexpected and sustained upward trend, it seemed likely that official policies in Canada would be directed toward maintenance of credit ease, with basic interest rates around present levels.

Armed Revolt

began dislodging rebels from the Plaza de Mayo and the surrounding area. Tanks, escorted by civilians chanting "Peron! Peron!" and waving Argentine flags, reached naval aviation headquarters, already besieged by hundreds of civilians.

Then, suddenly, came the second air attack on Government House. Explosive and incendiary bombs hit the area.

JETS IN ATTACK

Jet planes entered the attack, indicating the air force might have joined naval aviation forces in the revolt. Hundreds were believed casualties, since many soldiers, civilians and vehicles were crowded into the area.

From the smoke-shrouded Plaza de Mayo and nearby areas, crowds streamed in panic while the planes roared overhead. Fighters and light bombers seemed to be swarming over the city.

In wild panic, the crowds smashed against the steel-shuttered shops seeking cover from the raids. Subway station gates clanged shut.

The situation for hours was confused. A lone pair Radio Mitre appeared to be in the hands of the rebels, and it announced the city of Rosario was completely held by revolutionaries. Later the government announced the whole country outside Buenos Aires was calm, with 500,000 population in Argentina's second city.

The government insisted that the revolt was limited to the naval aviation units.

CLIMAX OF EVENTS

In the centre of the city the battle raged near the National Cathedral, centre of last week's disturbances involving supporters of the Roman Catholic Church and those of President Peron, who had been campaigning to curb the church in Argentina.

Highlights in Controversy in Argentina

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Steps are being taken by the government and the Roman Catholic church in Argentina developed:

Nov. 6, 1954—President Juan D. Peron accused some bishops of the church in campaigning against his administration.

Nov. 13—The first of 79 priests was arrested, charged with spreading rumors against Peron.

Nov. 24—Mass meeting of Peron party affirmed support of the president.

Dec. 1—Santiago Luis Cardinal Copello, Primate of Argentina, appealed to Catholics to avoid demonstrations against the government.

Dec. 2—A government order curbed the church's power to appoint teachers.

Dec. 8—The government banned an open-air mass commemorating the end of the Marian Year.

Dec. 14—Congress approved a law legalizing divorce.

Dec. 25—The Vatican protested against restrictions placed on the church in Argentina.

PRIESTS DISMISSED

Feb. 10, 1955—100 priests were dismissed from teaching jobs by government order.

March 23—Five holy days observed as national holidays were struck from the official calendar.

April 4—Pro-Peron newspapers opened an editorial campaign demanding separation of church and Catholics.

The church-state feud broke out last November when Peron accused some of the clergy of attempting to undermine him. The clergy denied the charges, but since then the government has pushed through laws permitting divorce, lifting tax exemption from church property, public religious education in public schools and ending subsidies to church schools.

The government has also pushed through a constitutional convention to end Roman Catholicism's status as the official religion. Peron has been the strong man in Argentina since 1944.

Open Attractive Guest Lodge

This year with the City of Charlottetown expecting an overflow of visitors, citizens have been asked by the Centennial Committee to make available any spare accommodation to meet the demand.

Matheson and Mrs. Matheson, conscious of the possibilities of increased tourist trade, have turned their residence into a guest lodge, a home more appropriately named "Caroma", standing in abbreviated form for Campbell, Rogers and Matheson.

The home is ideally located on lower Historic Street in a quiet and historic section of the City, close by the Harbour and Park yet only a stone's throw from the uptown business section.

The rooms and suites are attractively furnished and there is every evidence of careful planning for the comfort of the visitor and catering to guests.

Open Attractive Guest Lodge

This year with the City of Charlottetown expecting an overflow of visitors, citizens have been asked by the Centennial Committee to make available any spare accommodation to meet the demand.

Two local ladies, Mrs. Dora M. Campbell and Mrs. T. B. Rogers, daughters of the late Chief Justice J. A. Matheson and Mrs. Matheson, conscious of the possibilities of increased tourist trade, have turned their residence into a guest lodge, a home more appropriately named "Caroma", standing in abbreviated form for Campbell, Rogers and Matheson.

The home is ideally located on lower Historic Street in a quiet and historic section of the City, close by the Harbour and Park yet only a stone's throw from the uptown business section.

The rooms and suites are attractively furnished and there is every evidence of careful planning for the comfort of the visitor and catering to guests.
