on the second of December next." As Col. Gray will be entrusted with the management of the Performance in the Lower House, and knowing what an accomplished artiste he is, we confidently bespeak for the Exhibition the attention of a discerning public; and we need scarcely add, that that discerning public will, we trust, include our humble selves.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

About 5 o'clock yesterday morning, (Sunday) such of our fellow citizens as were within ear shot of the bells, were alarmed by their doleful pealing, announcing the presence of fire in our midst. The splendid pile of Brick Building, owned and occupied by the Hon. D. Brenan, was soon ascertained to be the victim of the destructive element. The fire broke out—but it is not ascertained how it originated—in a cellar under the front part of the dwelling house facing Queen Street. It was divided into places for coal and vegetables; but it is not clearly known the division in which the fire commenced. All the wood work about the cellar was destroyed — a parlour immediately above, on the first floor, was also thoroughly consumed, at least so far as the wood work extended, together with its valuable furniture. Another Parlour above that, on the second storey, was also greatly damaged, together with its rich furniture. The Hall was likewise much injured, and other parts of the house suffered considerably. The Store and the Cellar beneath it, both containing large stocks of valuable merchandize, fortunately escaped the ravages of the fire. The Engines were promptly on the spot, and were worked with great efficiency, especially the new Engine, the water being supplied from the Tank near the Police Station.

Mr. Brenan's family, consisting of himself, Mrs. Brenan and their Niece, Miss Mary McDonald, besides the domestic servants, escaped with great difficulty. Indeed, the most melancholy part of the casualty is, that Mrs. Brenan, in her anxiety to save her Niece, was burned in the face and hands to such a degree as to occasion for a time, the most painful uneasiness to her friends for the safety of her life. The solicitude felt throughout the whole community, as soon as it was ascertained how severely she had been injured—was visible in every countenance, and brought sympathetic words from every tongue, because her kind and unobtrusive manners, her unbounded charity, and her pure Christian deportment throughout a long and useful life, have endeared her to every one who knows her. We are happy to learn that her injuries, though causing much present suffering, are not dangerous, and that, in a little time, with the help of a kind Providence, she will be restored to her usual health.—One of the servant girls was also injured, from falling out of a window on the second storey, immediately over the hall-door, and to which she had taken refuge from the flames; but her bruises, we understand, are not regarded as dangerous.

Besides the damage to the interior of those parts of the dwelling house ravaged by the fire, the loss of furniture is considerable; and we have heard it stated that several hundred pounds will be required to make good the loss. It is, however, consoling, that only a comparatively small portion of so valuable a property was destroyed—that the large stores of merchandize on the premises were untouched by the flames; and, above all, that a valuable life, placed in imminent danger, is still reserved for the quiet circle that has hitherto had so large an experience of its usefulness.

SUPREME COURT.

THE Michaelmas Term of this Court commenced on Tuesday last. We have not been informed that any case of general importance to the public mind was tried during the week. The "Man with the unclean hands" is trying to get up another Libel case against the Editor of the EXAMINER, by means of an Information filed by the Court, which, if granted, would preclude the Editor of the EXAMINER from producing any evidence to prove his case. The ground of complaint is the story of the "£700 Skedaddle," as it has been called. Mr. Pope does not want the truth to be told concerning this matter, and therefore he tries to bring his case in such a way as to prevent the truth from being disclosed in the witness box. The Court have set apart to-day for hearing Mr. Whelan to shew cause why Mr. Pope's application should not be granted; and the result of the discussion which will take place will be communicated to our readers in our next No.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—The October No. of this popular periodical has just come to hand from the American publishers. The contents, of which we have not yet been able to read much, comprise the following articles:—Ten Days in Richmond; Caxtoniana—part IX; Germany and her Prospects; Chronicles of Carlingford, (continued); Iphigenia in Tauris; Gaster, the First M. A.; Tickler II. again; Italy and France.

THE WEEKLY DESPATH is the title of a new Family Journal of News and Literature, lately issued from the press of St. John, N. B. It is very well got up, and filled with a great variety of news and literary reading.

BY SATURDAY'S MAILS.

THE Steamer Westmorland, which, owing to stormy weather, was prevented from making one of her regular trips to Shediac last week, arrived at an early hour on Saturday evening from that place, bringing the usual Saturday night's Mails, together with those in arrear. We do not perceive that anything important has taken place at the seat of the war in the States. There is, of course, a record of the movement of large bodies of troops, incident to a state of war, but no battles appear to have been fought since those already made known to our readers.

LATEST FROM THE SEAT OF WAR BY TELEGRAPH.

BANGOR, Oct. 29.

An arrival from Port Royal brings particulars of an attack by Gen Mitchell's forces on the Charleston and Savannah railroad.—The expedition consisted of commands of Gens. Brannan and Ferry. The main body landed under cover of the gunboats at Mackey's Point, 15 miles from the Railroad, marching seven miles inland, where they met the enemy in force, driving them from their position, and from the second position.

Two miles beyond the Confederates made third stand, preventing pursuit by destroying the bridge over Pocatigo river.

Federal loss 45 killed and 184 wounded.

Col. Barton penetrated to the Railroad at Coosawatchi, tearing up a few rails, cutting the telegraph, and capturing a stand of regimental colors.

Flour, Superfine $5 90 a $6; Extra $6 25 a $6 50.

BANGOR, Oct. 30th.

Confederate Gens. Hill, Jackson and Hamilton encamped between Martinsburg and Bunker Hill, greater part being near latter place. Confederate army has not retreated up Shenandoah Valley. Their sick and wounded have been sent to Staunton, evidently anticipating early movement of the army of Potomac.

Buell's army reported making forced marches to Nashville to anticipate expected combined attack of Bragg and all forces in Tennessee and Mississippi, amounting to one hundred and fifty thousand.

This report explains Federal evacuation of Corinth and Bolivar, probably to march to defence of Nashville.

Hinted that Gen. Banks will soon lead expedition into Texas.

Gen. McClellan supposed to have same destination.

Destruction of Confederate Salt Works at St. Joseph's Bay considered most severe blow.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

CAPE RACE, Oct. 20.—Steamship Bavaria from Southampton 8th, for New York, passed this point at 4 30 P. M. yesterday (Sunday), and was intercepted by the news yacht.

The Bavaria experienced heavy weather gales during the entire passage.

The steamship Bohemian, from Quebec, arrived out on the 8th.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The steamer Iona for Mobile, heavily laden with stores for the Confederates, was run into and sunk in the Clyde.

Gen. Changarnier denies that Mr. Lincoln has offered him the command of the Federal forces.

The Times says that emancipation proclamation is a political concession to the Republican party. When the Union existed the Constitution gave no right either to the President alone or to the President and Congress combined, to abolish slavery. Emancipation was a thunderbolt placed in Mr. Lincoln's hands to destroy the whole organization of the South at a blow, which he has assumed the right to launch: but he is without power to enforce the decree. The North must conquer every square mile of the South before it can make the proclamation more than waste paper.

The Times also says commercial advices from New York show a strong impression among the leading merchants that the termination of the war will ultimately occur from the crisis of confusion in the North.

FRANCE.—Vera Cruz letters give a different account of the state of affairs in Mexico from what the French papers have published. Juarez is far from giving up the contest, and is preparing a desperate resistance to the French. The city of Mexico is strongly fortified and the road from Orizaba will be defended by inches.

The Paris Bourse was excited, and rentes had declined ½ per cent, being quoted at 75f.

ITALY.—The King has signed a decree granting an amnesty to all persons concerned in the acts and attempts which lately took place in the Southern provinces, with the exception of deserters from the army.

The Sicilians had been disarmed, in consequence of numerous assassinations.

PORTUGAL.—The Queen has arrived at Lisbon.

LIVERPOOL BREADSTUFFS MARKET.—Flour quiet but steady. Wheat steady. Corn quiet and steady.

LATEST FROM NEWFOUNDLAND.

The R. M. S. Ospray, Capt. Gulliford, arrived at Halifax on Tuesday last at 8 o'clock, a. m. The passage both ways was exceedingly boisterous, and the weather was particularly severe on the coast of Newfoundland. She was detained twelve hours at St. John's by the prevalence of a gale of wind, and finally left while it was still blowing hard. This very efficient little steamer was off the Devil's Island on Monday at 2 p. m., but the Captain not being quite certain of the land, and the weather being very thick, he very prudently headed off shore. And as it came on to blow very heavily during the night, the whole heft of the gale was experienced, but the vessel rode it out bravely.

The Legislature of Newfoundland is further prorogued until December 12. The freight-boat St. Patrick, plying between St. John's and Harbor Grace, has been cast away during a dense fog. The Annual Exhibition of the St. John's Agricultural Society was held on the 15th inst., in front of the Colonial Building, and the proceedings are reported to have been quite satisfactory. The display of live stock is said to have been very creditable.

The following facts with reference to the failure of the Labrador fishery, were placed in the possession of one of the St. John's papers by a respectable planter who carried on the fishery at Emily's River:—[Halifax Express.]

"On my arrival at Labrador about the beginning of July, my attention was immediately directed to the large quantity of codfish drifting about in all directions, dead and dying. At the lowest estimation there must have been thousands of quintals. I saw one string of dead and dying fish, which at the lowest estimation could not have been less than 5 miles long by 1 broad, drifting past. How the fish were killed is not known, as every season I have seen some dead fish floating about, supposed to have been killed by the ice, but never before have I seen such large quantities as I have seen this season. The whole of the Northern harbors at the Labrador were alike, nothing but dead and dying codfish could be seen on the shoal ground and ledges, and the shortness of the voyage was to all intents and purposes caused by the quantity thus destroyed."

The Fall Term of the Central Circuit Court was opened at St. John's on the 10th ult., by His Lordship Chief Justice Sir Francis Brady.

The Grand Jury having chosen their Foreman (George Rendell, Esq.,) came into Court, and after they were sworn, His Lordship addressed them as follows:—Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury:—You will learn with all the gratification I have in making the statement, that there is not a case of a criminal nature to be submitted for your consideration. This is a remarkable change from our condition at this period last year, when the whole of the time of this Court, and of the Supreme Court which succeeded it, was occupied with the trial of criminal cases of a most serious character arising out of our contested elections. Gentlemen, this condition of our community affords me another opportunity of doing what I am always too glad to have the happiness of doing, bearing testimony from this Bench, with all the responsibility which that position demands, to the almost total absence of serious crime in this community, save that which is the result of our election conflicts. I did not exaggerate when I said last year that the state of some of our localities was more that of civil war than of a civilized community; but I then predicted that a calm, honest, impartial, and firm administration of justice, aided, as we must ever be by the Executive, would check licentiousness, and command respect for the right due to person and property throughout Newfoundland. Since this day twelvemonth we have not had in this colony a serious crime, with only one exception, and that enables me to repeat what I have so often stated, that there is not in Her Majesty's dominions a country so free from offences of a grave character, with the exception of those which arise out of our contested elections; and when that is the case can any one feel surprised that thoughtful men reflect whether the benefits conferred by Responsible Government are commensurate with the sectarian rancour, the social estrangements, and the positive evils which it has produced in this country."

The cotton crop of Egypt, for 1862, at present prices will be worth $250,000,000.

Last week we had the pleasure of a visit to our sanctum, and a hearty grasp of the fist from Mr. J. C. Crosskill, one of the proprietors and editors of the Halifax Reporter. Mr. C. we found to be a perfect gentleman, to whom is due all the amenities and courtesies of editorial and typographical life. Outsiders must not suppose that because we people connected with the "art preservative of all arts," sometimes in delicate language refer to each other in our papers, must necessarily meet otherwise than with a broad grin or a smile of welcome, and a hearty "how do you do?" No, no; our sometimes pointed language is used in a Pickwickian sense, and received as such. The bitterness and acerbities which prevail among the uninitiated, we are happy to say, does not obtain among us, as a general rule. But like all other general rules, there are some exceptions.

The 'Reporter' is a live paper, and is one of the best conducted journals in Nova Scotia. There is scarcely one of our exchanges which we open with greater expectations of finding something new and readable in it.—Ross's Weekly.

WE perfectly agree with the opinion above expressed by our contemporary here. We, too, had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Crosskill, and he is in every respect a very worthy disciple of old Faust and Guttenburg.—ED. EX.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. David M. Fraser, carpenter, was severely injured on Saturday afternoon last. He, with his men, was engaged in repairing the house of Mrs. McNeill, on Kent street, when stepping on a frail stageing which had been erected, Mr. Fraser with one or two others, was precipitated to the ground, a distance of some 20 feet, striking on his back upon a plank, and had a narrow escape from death. The young men who fell with him escaped with slight injury.—R. W.

ARRIVALS.—The Brig Uranus, owned by Messrs. Davies, and the Barque Theresa, belonging to Messrs. Welsh & Owen, arrived here on Monday last, the former 38 days out from Liverpool, and the latter 36.—R. W.

THE DREDGING MACHINE, owned by Mr. McBean, which has been at work on this Island since the spring of 1861, left here for Halifax on Sunday last, with four large scows, in tow of the steamer Westmorland. We understand the Westmorland intended to have towed them as far as the Gut of Canso, where they were to have been taken charge of by a steamer from Halifax. In consequence of the boisterous state of the weather the Westmorland was obliged to bear up for Pictou with the Dredge, and while in the act of doing so, two of the scows belonging to her broke adrift. We have since learned that the scows drifted over to this Island, and came ashore somewhere in the vicinity of Canoe Cove, near the entrance to this port.—Isl.

Lots 51 and 59, we are glad to learn, have been offered to the Government, and Commissioners have been appointed to appraise the same, —a proceeding which, we trust, will result in the conversion of all the leaseholders on those populous Townships into freeholders at no distant day.—Mon.

FIRE!—On Thursday, just after mid-day, an alarm of fire was rung out through the City. It was found to proceed from the roof of the first tenement in "Peake's Block," Dorchester Street, occupied by Mrs. McDonnell. The prompt and energetic exertions of the Fire Wardens and their Brigade, arrested the progress of the flames; and, with the exception of a little fright, small damage was done.——Mrs. McDonnell, Mrs. George Cox, and Mrs. Jas. C. Cox, heartily thank their friends for their very kind and prompt assistance upon the emergency.—Com.

TEA PARTY AT THE HEAD OF ST. PETER'S BAY. —On the 16th October the ladies connected with the school at the head of St. Peter's Bay held a Soiree which was attended by about 200 persons. Though so late in the season, the day proved very favorable, and the appearance of the tables when set, reflected the utmost credit on the good taste and generosity of the Ladies who got up the affair. After the good things provided by the ladies were removed, Mr. Angus McWilliams, who has taught for two years in this District with great efficiency, was appointed to the chair, and having made a few remarks he called on the Rev. Henry Crawford to address the Meeting, who complied, and complimented Mr. McWilliams on the success of his labors in this community, and the community on the stimulus that was now being given to the cause of Education. Mr. McWilliams again addressed the meeting, and complimented the ladies on the taste and excellence with which they had discharged their part of the duty. The Company were regaled at intervals by vocal music inside, and instrumental without. About £11 were collected towards the improvement of the Schoolhouse, which is already the most comfortable one in this section of the Island.—Com.

COLONIAL ITEMS.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that a young woman, servant in the family of Hon. J. W. Johnston, residing at Mount Amelia, Dartmouth, was fatally injured last evening while engaged in filling a fluid lamp, the inflammable material exploding in consequence of the same having been brought into too close proximity with the flame. The sufferer died soon after accident occurred.—Halifax Express.

On the evening of the 23rd, Mr. Edward Allison, Jr., of St. John N. B., accidently shot himself, and at last accounts was lying in a precarious condition. He was (says the Globe) in his own house, and in the course of the evening, while explaining to his wife the mode of working a revolver, which he had in his possession, being unaware that one particular barrel was charged, he inadvrtantly turned it towards him, and it went off, the ball entering his left breast, taking a downward direction and passing out through his back.

We learn from C Boultenhouse, Esq., that he intends entering into shipbuilding strongly this winter.—Halifax Morning Journal Oct. 29.

A sample of Jenny Lind potatoes has been left at our office by Mr. George Lawrence, of Westcock. Some attained the growth of 18 inches circumference. From two bushels of seed which he sold George N. Blumer, there were dug 100 bushels this fall, the land having grown grain for four successive years was enriched this year by swamp mud, but no barn manure.—Borderer.

One person in St. John, N. B., coutributed $200 towards the Lancashire fund, and another $500. The committee were prepared to send home $5000 by the last English mail.

At a meeting in Halifax to adopt means to raise subscriptions for the Lancashire operatives, the Mayor announced that he had received from an anonymous contributor, the sum of £62 10s. N. S. currency.

There are now building at Quebec 16 ships, 5 barks, and 2 barges, tonnage 24,000, and giving work to 4,200 men. The keels of about 13 ships and barks and 2 barges are soon to be laid.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Effects of cold.—In many periods of the year, almost every current of air is pergnant with sore throats, influenza, and a similar host of disorders. All may be readily subdued by rubbing Holloway's Ointment externally over the affected parts, which quickly penetrates any diseased or disordered part of the body; and whatever, or wherever the seat or nature of the malady may be, searches out its cause, and safely effects the precise remedial action required, without weakening the system, or leaving behind any particle of the disease. Holloway's Pills greatly assist this curative action. The sick of all nations have voluntarily borne testimony to the extraordinary cures performed by these medicaments.

We are apt to be free with our jokes upon Doctors and their Drugs, until sick and in need of their aid, then all alike bow to the necessity of recourse to their hard earned and often ill requited skill.—The prevailing belief that Physicians frown upon whatever deviates from their peculiar system and usages arises from the fact that their better information leads them soonest to detect and discard the medical delusions and impositions that are thrust upon the community. That they are ready and prompt to adopt any really valuable invention is seen by the treatment Doct. J. C. Ayer's Chemical Remidies have ever received at their hands. They appreciate the value of these medicines because they know their composition, and where is the man who ever heard a respectable Physician either disparage them or discourage their use? No profession or pursuit has done more for the human family than the medical profession. None is followed by nobler men or for nobler ends; nor is there one which better deserves the best thanks of mankind.—Canton (N. Y.) Democrat.

A striking illustration of the effect of the recent unprecedented rise in the price of cotton is that, a bundle of Cotton Warp which a year or two ago could be readily purchasnd at 3s. 9d., cannot now be procured under 17s. 6d. Such an advance is altogether without any parallel in so common a commodity of commerce. It tells very sensibly on our country people, who use cotton warp in large quantities, mixing the article with their wool in working up the latter material into clothing, bed clothes, and other domestic purposes.

The Federal steamer Matanzas, from Havana for New York, with a considerable amount of specie, is supposed to have foundered at sea or to have been captured by a Confederate cruiser, being nine days overdue.

DR. LANKESTER, the coroner, estimates the deaths in London from crinoline taking fire, at seventy-five annually, (to say nothing of other accidents traceable to the same cause) and assuming the same proportion throughout the Kingdom, this would give a total of 750 deaths.

The Annual Session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance opened this evening at half-past seven o'clock. The office-bearers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:—G. W. P., Herbert Bell, No. 32, Alberton; G. W. A., Geo. Millner, No. 4, Charlottetown; G. S., John Scott, No. 2, do.; G. T., B. Williams, No. 1, do.; G. Chap., Rev. R. T. Roach, No. 9, Georgetown; G.
