WI Members Voice Opinion On Use Of Trading Stamps

Disapproval of the use of Trading Stamps was voiced by the members of the Eglington-Howe Bay Women's Institute at their December meeting held at the home of Mrs. Fred and Mrs. Claude MacKenzie.

Fifteen members answered roll call by donating a Christmas gift for the Sanatorium. Collection amounted to $1.10 and proceeds from a mystery gift, donated by Mrs. Lorne Dingwell and won by Mrs. Claude MacKenzie, were $1.50.

Donating of $5.00 to the Christmas Seal Campaign, $15.00 to the Eglington School and $8.00 to the Howe Bay School for Christmas treats were voted. School committees named were for Eglington - Mrs. Lorne Dingwell and Mrs. Fred MacKenzie, for Howe Bay - Mrs. Raymond MacDonald. A baby gift was sent to Mrs. Leslie Underhay and a thank you note from Mrs. Bruce Stead was read for a similar gift.

The program planning committee will meet at the home of Mrs. John MacKie on Dec. 11. Next month, Mrs. John James MacDonald will be hostess to the Institute when roll call will be answered by "Name the WI Executive". Members are asked to donate an article, not less than 50 cents, for an auction sale. Contests conducted by Mrs. Claude MacKenzie and Mrs. John MacKie were won by Mrs. John J. MacDonald and Mrs. C. MacKenzie.

A social hour followed adjournment of the meeting.

Shower Given Baltic Couple

On Friday evening a pre-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cousins, Baltic, for their son Fulton and his bride, the former Mary Campbell.

Mr. Frank MacNutt called the gathering to order with a few appropriate remarks, and the newlyweds were presented with a variety of lovely gifts. The parcels were carried in by Shirley and Edward Hickey and Edith Cousins. The ribbons were cut by Mrs. Clair Campbell and Miss Patricia Harrington while Mrs. James Cousins read the accompanying names and good wishes. Mrs. Arthur Cousins and Mrs. Maurice Cousins arranged the gifts on the table. The baskets were refilled by Mrs. Junior Hickey.

Foods That Are Different For Home Dinner Parties

The tremendous increase in home entertaining is back of the great increase in the opening of specialty food stores, gourmet sections in department stores, groceries and supermarkets all over the nation.

Holiday brunches, hors d'oeuvre luncheons and suppers, cocktail parties and home dinner parties have sparked progressive hostesses to search for prestige foods that are different as well as delicious and that flatter the guests, who feel like connoisseurs of fine eating.

"For dessert at luncheon or dinner, or for an evening snack when guests drop in," observed the Chef, "I suggest specialty glace or dried fruits with fine coffee or choice tea."

Smart fruits include green figs from Italy, preserved ginger from Hong Kong, branded fruits from France and fruit candies from England. Glace kumquats, big stuffed prunes, stuffed apricots, crystallized grapefruit peel, tropical fruit candies from Florida and apple candies from Washington State are unusual and delicious.

A unique fruit and cheese desert tray we enjoyed in California was served with small cups of black coffee. A sumptuous dessert and no work.

To prepare: Center tray with small Edam or Gouda cheese, hollowed out, cheese softened with in cans or jars. The sauerbraten

THE CHEF REPORTS ON WHEAT PILAFF

Wheat pilaff is as old as the Bible, but only now has it become high-style food fashion in the United States. It can be made from Bulgur, a semi-prepared wheat used for pilaff-making in the Middle East. Or use the new plain or spiced instant wheat pilaff and prepare according to pkg. directions. Add suitable herbs or instant onion or curry powder, with butter to season.
