The Clergy Admonished.

As the various church organizations are now holding their annual sessions and counting up the results of their labors during the past year, the Halifax Herald takes advantage of the occasion to give the clergy some admonition and reproof and to point out wherein, in the Herald's opinion, they have fallen short in their christian ministry.

studies the life, character and habits of his patients, so the clergyman must look more closely into those of his people, and intelligently apply the truth according to their needs.

A Golden Opportunity.

We are glad to see that the suggestion made in yesterday's GUARDIAN to extend an invitation from Charlottetown to the American journalists about to visit Halifax, has been favorably received.

METHODIST DIVINES.

Rev. C. Stewart D. D.

No one can possibly understand Dr. Stewart if he forgets that he is a Scotchman. He is not a Scotchman, however, in the sense of wanting to import customs or methods from the land of oatmeal and brains; nor because of his continually speaking of the land of his nativity.

Religious worship is degenerating into a cold formalism from which the life and spirit is departing. The churches are partially filled because social custom has made it respectable to go to church.

The Herald, however, has a remedy to offer for the condition of affairs it alleges, which may well be impressed on those who need admonition. It says that "if instead of living apart from the people they would mingle with them, study their needs, enter more fully into their joys and sorrows, their trials and temptations, become more democratic in their sympathies, their teachings would contain more of real human interest, and would be heard with more of gladness."

Many visitors from the Island can testify that the strawberries which owe their existence to the sweat of his brow are very luscious. His vacations are few and far between.

For nearly twenty years he has been connected with Sackville institutions. He appears to carry the whole burden upon himself. There is nothing about him that he does not think about and pray about.

Died Abroad.

Mrs. Robert Larkin, eldest daughter of the late James Reed, of Mimmingsh, Prince Edward Island, died after a brief illness of eight weeks duration, as the result of an attack of spinal meningitis.

Her loss is a heavy one to the bereaved ones. The flowers were contributed by Mrs. Wynnan and Mrs. Morrison—Grand Forks, North Dakota, Herald.

Comrade G. W. Hammond

of Root Post, G. A. R. of Syracuse, N. Y.

Wounded at Gettysburg

"I was in the Army of the Potomac and in the great battle of Gettysburg was struck in the ankle by a minnie ball, which smashed the bone. My leg was amputated in the field hospital, and after a long time it healed. I was discharged and went home. After 8 years

My Wound Broke Open afresh. Dr. Pease amputated an inch of the bone, and it healed. Four years later it once more opened, and for eight years I have suffered. I do not believe it possible for a human being to suffer worse agony.

Blood Became Poisoned and it broke out all over my face and on some parts of my body so that my face is all covered with scars now. One day I read of what Hood's Sarsaparilla would do. The first dollar I got I sent and bought a bottle and began taking it. A week or two later, my skin was dressing my leg, and it seemed to be improving, and later on Hood's Sarsaparilla a few months, thank God (and I say it reverently), the sores all over my body had healed, and now, four years later, have never shown any sign of reappearing." GEORGE H. HAMMOND, 219 Madison Street, Syracuse, N. Y.

Col. C. A. Weaver

Commander of Root Post, G. A. R., himself an armed veteran, fully confirms Mr. Hammond's statement, and J. L. Belden, the pharmacist, also endorses it.

The Telephone Co'y

P. E. ISLAND.

PERSONS using the Telephone would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following Rules:

1st. Speak with your mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the Telephone so as to cover the Ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the Ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
