Grains

WINNIPEG (CP)—The Canadian Wheat Board announced a reduction of 10 1/2 cents a bushel in the export price of Canadian wheat at the close of Monday's session on the Winnipeg grain exchange which saw price movement narrow and irregular.
 The trade reflected uncertainty while the trade awaited developments following the U.S. action in cutting its wheat price to 10 cents on Friday.
 Then Canadian Wheat Board makes all purchases and controls all sales of wheat and the grain is not traded on the Winnipeg exchange.
 Price reduction on Class Two and IWA wheat affected only the three top grades. Price changes on other grades varied.
