

An evening of theatre

By RICHARD HAINES

The UPEI Theatre Society prepares to tread the boards once more this weekend with their performance of An Evening of Theatre. Just as in every spring semester the Theatre Society does a major production, such as last year's production of William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream directed by Ron Irving (see front cover), in every fall semester the Theatre Society does An Evening of Theatre.

An Evening of Theatre is an evening of one act plays, directed by members of the Theatre Society. Last year three plays were staged: Lucille Fletcher's Sorry Wrong Number, Stephen Bragg's Sex Lives of Superheroes, and Carol Bolt's Maurice: A Rock Musical.

This year the Theatre Society will be proud to present Tyrone Guthrie's The Birthday Message directed by Rebecca Lake, and Oscar Wilde's Salome directed by Richard Haines. Performances shall open this weekend on Friday, Nov. 27 and will continue until Sunday Nov. 29. The performances will be held in the Alumni Gym on the new stage that the University has kindly constructed for the Theatre Society.
