

Potato Committee Named For King's

At a meeting in Montague last night the King's County Branch of the Federation of Agriculture named a potato committee to work with similar committees in the other counties. Those named to the committee were Wilfred Macdonald, Ernest Aitken and Arthur Mackinnon. Chairman of the evening was Mr. William Whiteley.

The meeting stressed the need for farmers who are engaged in potato production to form an organization. With reference to potato storage which was one of the resolutions, the Whim Road Farm Potato requested the Department of Agriculture to urge the Government to speed construction of the first proof warehouses at Potatoes to be ready to house the 1934 crop.

A resolution regarding potato price support was not approved by the meeting. Other resolutions accepted were community study, poultry industry, radio and television, taxation for education and Nova Scotia Agricultural College subsidies.

DIRECTORS ELECTED

At the close of the meeting the following directors were elected: First District, Mr. Gavin Reid; Victoria Cross, Fourth District, Colin Macdonald; Whim Road, Fifth District, Mrs. Percy King; Gaspeaux, There were no representatives from the First and Second Districts.
