HORSES WANTED.—Oliver Mason wants 20 horses, from 1,100 lbs. up. See advt.

CALEDONIA CLUB.—Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Election of officers.

FOR DRILL.—No 1 Company, Garrison Artillery will meet for drill to-night at 8 o'clock.

THE SAME HERE.—Complaints are being made to the authorities at Summerside regarding corner-loafing in that town.

CORNWALL CHEESE FACTORY.—The cheese factory at Cornwall closed yesterday. Mr. C J Brown the manager will remain on the Island this winter.

TO-MORROW EVENING.—Good music by the Citizens' Band, and a good turkey supper—all for fifty cents at the Masonic Temple to-morrow evening.

ISLANDERS LOST.—The Islanders reported lost from the Gloucester fishing fleet during the past year are Nelson E. Cantello John Campbell, John Beaton and Captain F. McIsaac.

THEATRICAL.—The Boston Comedy Company will present "Maud's Peril" at the Opera House on Thursday night. The drama will be followed by a laughable comedietta.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—We are informed that the Boodler was stopped too quickly to-day, and that a horse on board, attached to a load of hay, narrowly escaped being pitched forward into a watery grave.

A SPECIAL TRAIN leaves Charlottetown to-morrow morning at nine o'clock (local) for Souris, to enable horsemen and others to attend the match race between Billie McKie and Onward. Return fare, $1.00.

DIED TO-DAY.—Charles McMillan, corner of Queen and Water Streets, died this afternoon about half-past one o'clock. He has been unwell for some time past, and was stricken with paralysis four or five days ago.

LECTURE ON ASTRONOMY. — Professor Cox delivered his great scenic lecture at Hunter River last evening, to the delight of all present. He will lecture at Summerside on Wednesday and Thursday evenings next.

FOOTBALL.—An enthusiastic meeting of the Crescents was held last night. As a result, the Secretary was ordered to write both the Prince of Wales' and St. Dunstan's teams for dates before Thanksgiving Day; and also to invite New Glasgow to the city to play on Thanksgiving Day.

DON'T FORGET IT.—The Ladies Committee are making extensive preparations for the turkey supper in Masonic Temple to-morrow night, and everything points towards the success of the project. The dinner tables will be placed upon the stage and they will be well filled with turkey and other good things. There will also be a candy table replete with all that is good and sweet in that line. All the tables will be presided over by ladies who understand every detail of the business. There will be no charge for admission to the Temple. The dinner tickets will be 50 and 35 cents, as advertised. Dinner will be on the tables from seven o'clock until all are served.

SAD DEATH AT CORNWALL.—Yesterday afternoon Mr. Allan Newsome of Cornwall, met with an accident which we regret to say, ended fatally this morning. When Mr. Newsome's son brought his horse in after plowing yesterday morning, the old man went out to help unharness the team. While doing so, one of the animals, a very heavy young mare, backed upon Mr. Newsome, knocking him down and trampling upon his stomach with one of her feet. At the time the old man did not appear to be much hurt, for with his son's assistance he mounted the mare and rode to the stable with her. At seven o'clock this morning however, he complained of being in great pain, and although everything was done to help him, he died at about half-past eight. Mr. Newsome had reached man's allotted space, but was still hale and hearty, and his sad death is deeply regretted by his numerous friends in town and country.

ALMOST A TRAGEDY.—A man named Daniel Berrigan, of North Tryon, narrowly escaped being killed by a train last night. It appears that Berrigan got off the Cape Traverse train at Kinkora station and started to walk along the track towards Albany. After the train pulled out from the station the train hands noticed a man apparently under the influence of liquor walking along the track close to the rails, and when the train was within a few yards of him he staggered in front of the engine. The driver, observing the predicament of the man, promptly reversed the engine and did all in his power to stop the progress of the iron horse. But just as the locomotive was within a few feet of the man he took a lurch and staggered from in front of the engine to his former position alongside the rails, and as the train passed he was so close to the track that he rubbed against the cars as they were going by. Berrigan was returning from Summerside, a town where the Scott Act is law.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING.—The Summerside correspondent of the Guardian writes: A special meeting of the Town Council was held yesterday evening to discuss the Electric Light question. The Chairman said that while the Council would like to accept the proposal of the Electric Light, Heat and Power Company, they felt that the price was beyond what they would be justified in giving. The Council then made the Company an offer of $600 for 33 incandescent 32 candle power light to be placed approximately with the position of the present lights, burners and renewals to be furnished by the Company. This offer is for three years. Mr. Grady said, as President of the Company, he thought they would likely accept the offer but that it would have to be laid before them. The Council then appointed a committee of three to arrange with the Company for lighting the town on the basis of $600 per annum for 33 lights. Before adjourning a motion was made to give the Company the privilege of erecting posts and appliances for the term of ten years.

CLAY AND FARQUHARSON.

A most pleasant event took place in Boston on Thursday last, Oct. 25th, 1894, when the Rev. Dr. Lorimer, of Tremont Temple, united in marriage Miss Ada Sophia, youngest daughter of Thos. Clay, Esq., of Dundas, P. E. I., to Mr. Lemuel Farquharson, son of James Farquharson, Esq., of Mermaid Farm, Lot 48, and nephew of Hon. Donald Farquharson, of this city.

The bride, who was most becomingly attired, looked very handsome, and was attended by her sister, while the groom was ably supported by the brother of the bride. Mr. Farquharson, who left P. E. Island about five years ago, is travelling salesmen for one of the largest markets of Boston, and may well be classed as one of the most popular salesmen of the company, and also among our many successful Islanders abroad.

After the ceremony was performed the contracting parties together with their relatives and near friends, repaired to the private dining rooms of the Clarendon Hotel, where a sumptuous repast was partaken of, and amid the congratulations and best wishes of all they started on their honeymoon to New York and Niagara Falls.

The large number of presents attested to the high esteem in which both parties are held.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Geo. W. Gardiner returned last evening from his holiday trip to Boston and New York.

Mr. C. H. Jordan, of Chicago, representing D. Appleton & Co., New York, is visiting Charlottetown.

Rev. G. M. Campbell arrived from St. John last evening. He preached with much acceptance to a large congregation in Exmouth Street Church on Sunday evening.

At the Queen Hotel this forenoon there registered: Rev. James M. Graham, Inglewood Ont; W. Mutch, Eldon; L. E. Dywstant, Halifax; Rev. D B McLeod, Orwell,; J M Egan, Mount Stewart; H F Feehan,do; William Dwyar, Chesterville Ont.

The Moncton Times reports that Rev. W. W. Brewer has received a call from Albany, N. Y., to go there as co-pastor with B. Fay Mills the noted evangelist. It is understood that Mr. Brewer has given his congregation to understand that he will not accept the call; but he has been granted four weeks leave of absence, and will leave for Albany about Nov. 11th, to spend a month assisting Mr. Mills in his evangelistic work.

RETAIL PRICES.—There was a fair attendance at the market to-day, and sales were fairly brisk. Eggs advanced slightly, selling at from 15 to 18c. a dozen. The average price paid for pork was 5 to 5½c. per lb., although in one or two instances six cents was offered. The prices of other articles were about as follows: Hay, 30 to 35c.; oats, 32 to 33c.; potatoes, 21 to 25c.; turnips, 11 to 13c.; mangels, 14 to 16c.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT. — The Rev. Mr. King will lecture in St. James' Hall this evening. Subject: "One Minute with the Queen." Lecture commences at 8 o'clock. Silver Collection. Don't forget to attend.

SCOTT ACT.—This morning, Geo. Mutch paid the amount of his fine and costs, $60.15 in all.

POLICE COURT. — To-day two drunks were disposed of for $2 or 10 days' each.
