VERSES
On being asked if I still loved Scotland.

Yes, Scotland! I do love thee still,
Tho' distant far from thee—
Tho' other lands may bloom as fair,
There's none so dear to me.

Thy bonnie pastoral hills and dales
Nae mair may meet mine eyes,
Nor yet the thrill of rapture flow
As when beneath thy skies.

The laverock shrill may sing at morn
Aboon thy flow'ry braes,
But ne'er, for me, awake the hopes
That gladden'd other days.

Unseen by me, the sun may tinge
Edina's* stately towers—
In beauty steep Forth's† winding vale
And Roslin's shady bowers.

But mem'ry will recall the past
As in life's morning seen,
And tones, long silent, fall again
Like music in a dream.

Yes, Scotland! thou art safely lodged—
Within my heart enshrined,
And converse strange I'll hold with thee
Of joys I left behind;

For these in youth an impress leave,
Tho' years have come and gone,
They'll start afresh at mem'ry's call—
And then I'm all thine own.

* Edina, Edinburgh † Forth, the Frith of Forth

VARIETIES.

THE END OF EDUCATION.—The multitudes think that to educate a child, is to crowd into its mind a given amount of knowledge; to teach the mechanism of reading and writing; to load the memory with words; to prepare for the routine of trade. No wonder, then, that they think everybody fit to teach. The true end of education is to unfold and direct aright our whole nature. Its office is to call forth powers of thought, affection, will, and outward action; power to gain and spread happiness. Reading is but an instrument; education is to teach its best use. The intellect was created, not to receive passively a few words, dates, and facts, but to be active for the acquisition of truth. Accordingly, education should inspire a profound love of truth, and teach the process of investigation. A sound logic, by which we mean the science of the art which instructs in the laws of reasoning and evidence, in the true method of inquiry, and the source of false judgment—is an essential part of a good education.

A YANKEE STORY.—A young gentleman, a stranger, in the city of Baltimore, entered a fashionable church, passing up the middle aisle, and down tne side, without receiving a request to take a seat. A few moments after he returned with a large block upon his shoulder, as heavy as he could well stagger under; his countenance was immoveable; again the good people stared, and half rose from their seats with their books in their hands. At length he placed the block in the very centre of the principal passage, and seated himself upon it. Then, for the first time, the reproach was felt! Every pew door in the church was thrown open! But no, the stranger was a gentleman; he came not there for disturbance; he moved not, smiled not, but preserved the utmost decorum, till the services were concluded, when he deliberately shouldered his block, and with the same slow step bore it off and replaced it where he found it. The congregation is now the most attentive and polite in America.

THE POWER OF IMAGINATION.—Mr. G—— had by degrees become so attached to his cups, that he could not comfortably pass eleven o'clock without his "nip" of brandy, and was yet anxious to avoid the suspicion of being an habitual drinker. He had used up all the stereotyped reasons, such as "a slight pain," "a kind of sinking," not "feeling right," &c. One day, at the usual hour, he called for his brandy-and-water, saying, "I am extremely dry; I am going to have salt-fish for dinner."

GET UP.—There is no time spent more stupidly than that whice some luxurious people pass in a morning between sleeping and waking, after nature has been fully gratified. He who is awake may be doing somewhat; he who is asleep, is receiving the refreshment necessary to fit him for action; but the hours spent in dozing aud slumbering, can hardly be called oxistence.

A GOOD PLACE FOR HUNTING.—"Well, farmer, you told us your place was a good place for hunting, now we've tramped it for three hours and found no game." "Just so; well, I calculate, as a general thing, that the less game there is, the more hunting you have."

THE HON. Horace Mann, in a lecture on "woman," lately delivered in Boston (U. S.), says: "I see but one reason, why woman should not preach the Gospel, and that reason is, that it is ten thousand times better to go about practising the Gospel, than even to preach it."

THOSE that wish for what they have not forfeit the enjoyment of what they have. Set a just term to your wishes, and when you have touched it make a stand; happiness only begins when wishes end, and he that hankers after more enjoys nothing.

LADY (affectedly): "Where, in the name of wonder, doctor, could I have got such a nose as this?"—Doctor A.: "Out of the decanter, ma'am."

THE number of sea-going vessels in the world is about eighty thousand, of which two-thirds belong to England and the United States.

Never Failing Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a maligaant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS —AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully,
(Signed) WALKER & Co.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
