Croken with Solemn High Mass being celebrated by Father Croken, assisted by Rev. Patrick Rooney, Alberta, as deacon, and Rev. L. Buote, Idaho, as subdeacon, both former classmates of Father Croken who was ordained on June 26, 1927. Rev. Phalen McKenna officiated as master of ceremonies.

The address was delivered by Rev. J. W. McCardle who chose as his text, St. John, chap. 15, verse 16: "You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and have appointed you that you should go and should bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain".

Father McCardle spoke eloquently on the holy priesthood and its institution by Christ. He spoke of the dignity and offices of the priesthood, of the close association of the priest with his parishioners, and his unfailing interest in their spiritual well-being. He congratulated Father Croken on the attainment of his silver jubilee, twenty-five years of service in his priestly duties, nineteen of which had been spent in this parish. "He has ever been the worthy ambassador of Christ, always the good shepherd to his flock", the speaker said, and to the parishioners he concluded, "This is indeed an occasion of rejoicing, and I know you will offer prayers of gratitude for the many blessing which have been yours during the years Father Croken has laboured among you. We ask that God will grant him health and length of days to continue his priestly labours".

Following Solemn High Mass, an address was read by Mr. Peter McKenna and a presentation of a purse was made by Mr. Michael Kelly on behalf of the Holy Name Society. Father Croken thanked his parishioners for their kindness in remembering him on this day, and said that he would strive to assist them in all their undertakings in the spiritual and temporal development of the parish.

Present at the service were Rev. Bennett MacDonald, Rev. Owen Kiggins, Rev. Phalen McKenna, Rev. H.J. Croken, Rev. J.W. McCardle, Rev. Urban Gillis, Rev. R.J. MacDonald, Rev. E.L. Murray, Rev. T.P. Butler, Rev. F.L. Mullally, Rev. George MacDonald, and the Sisters of St. Martha.
