Face Death For Medicine Murder

MASERU, Basutoland (Reuters)—Fourteen Basutos Monday were sentenced to death for a "medicine murder." Five ot hers were found not guilty and released.

The Basutos were charged with murdering an African, Mpho Mothijoa, in April last year. The crown said they cut a piece from his eyebrow for medicine and also collected some of his blood.

They then put his body in a river to make it appear that he had been drowned.

Second Montreal Daily Folds

MONTREAL (CP) —An official spokesman for La Patrie announced Saturday that publication of the daily edition of the French - language newspaper will cease Nov. 15.

The Sunday edition—La Patrie du Dimanche—will be continued. It is distributed on Saturdays.

Discontinuance of the daily La Patrie will mean the second cessation of publication of a Montreal daily within a month and the third Canadian daily to quit within five months.

The Herald, Montreals' oldest daily, ended publication last Oct. 18. The Vancouver News-Herald, a morning paper, printed its final issue last June 15.

CLOSE RADIO STATION

The announcement Saturday also said that radio station CHLP, operated by La Patrie, will be closed down, probably at the same date.

Both La Patrie and its radio station are controlled by La Presse, largest French - language daily newspaper in North America.

With the disappearance of CHLP there will remain seven radio stations in greater Montreal. They are the two CBC stations—CBM and CBF — and five privately owned stations — CKVL, CJAD, CFCF, CKAC CJMS.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN WARREN

A deep gloom was cast over Albany and vicinity on August 4th, when it was learned that Mrs. John Warren had passed away at the age of 85 years. Medical Aid and everything possible was done but to no avail, as God willed otherwise, and took her home where there is no suffering or pain. Her Beloved Pastor Father Reginald MacDonald administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a faithful member.

She was of a quiet and cheerful disposition and was ready to lend a helping hand when needed.

The late Mrs. Warren was born Dora Evans at Norboro in 1870. She will be missed in the, home where she was a devoted mother. Since the death of her husband 2 years ago, nothing was left undone for her family that could be done.

She leaves to mourn 7 sons, and 4 daughters namely: Leo, Carleton; Ambrose, George, Albany; Eva (Mrs. Michael Delaney,) Charlottetown; Louise, (Mrs. Arthur Stewart), Albany; Bessie, (Mrs. John Matheson, Inkerman; Annie, James, Elmer and Harold at home; 3 children predeceased her. Also left to mourn her passing are 29 grandchildren.

The funeral which was on Wednesday, August 7th, to Seven Mile Bay was largely attended. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Father Reginald MacDonald. Assisting at the grave were Father Austin Bradley and Father Horrigan.

The pall bearers were as follows: Messrs. William Smith, Ellsworth and Aneas Bassett, Eldon Cairns, Raymond Cameron and Peter Nicholson.

Burial was in the Church cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of H.M. Chisholm, North Tryon.
