

Side Legion Hold Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Summerside Branch of The Canadian Legion was held in the home on Monday evening with the outgoing president, Charles Hogan, conducting the business before turning it over to the new president, Francis J. MacNeill.

The retiring president, in his report, stated that the year gone by had been a banner one for the branch. In reviewing the activities of the branch for the year, he said that the most outstanding had been the burning of the mortgage on the home. He thanked the executive and committees for their work and solicited the support of the branch for his successor.

Mr. Hogan also reported for the Sea Cadet committee of which he is the chairman. He said that the Legion Band instruments recently handed over to the High School for the formation of a junior band have been passed over to his committee for the use of the Sea Cadets whom the branch are sponsoring.

Chairman Hogan said that the local corps will be known as H.M.C.S. "Legionary". The sum of $200 was voted to the Summerside Athletic Association to help defray the costs of the hockey program for minors it is conducting at the Raceway Stadium.

Applications for five new members were passed by investigating committee.

Correspondence consisted of card and letters of thanks from members acknowledging gifts at Christmas.

The financial statement was submitted by W. A. Robertson, C. A. Committee reports were also heard as follows: cribbage, Bill
