

THE DAILY EXAMINER. DECEMBER 2, 1886.

Sister St. Thomas.

MANY of our readers will learn, with deep regret, of the death of Sister St. Thomas, well known on the Island as the founder of the City Hospital.

This morning at twenty minutes past nine o'clock, immediately after receiving the last rites of Holy Church, and after having given as another proof of her lively faith, our dear Sister St. Thomas so calmly quitted this vale of tears.

At the time of her death, Sister St. Thomas was in the 61st year of her age, and 27th of her religious profession.

When the smallpox epidemic broke out here last year, and nurses could nowhere be found to tend those stricken down with this loathsome disease, Sister St. Thomas immediately volunteered her valuable services.

Many persons in this Province do not approve of the religious system in which Sister St. Thomas lived and labored.

About the Public Debt.

The Montreal Gazette made a neat hit at the Montreal Herald in its issue of the 25th ult. The Herald was for years the staunch supporter of the Government's Canadian Pacific Railway policy.

In its new role the Herald has, of course, to protest against the rapid increase of the amount of the National Debt.

The Herald is alarmed at the increase in the debt of Canada and employs notes of exclamation to express its deep concern.

are as much a liability, as much a part of the debt as a loan floated in London.

The Hon. David Laird received a telegram last evening, informing him that he had been nominated by the Liberal Association of Prince Albert as a candidate for the House of Commons.

Prince of Wales Testimonial.

A GOOD SUGGESTION ADOPTED. Sir,—I enclose herewith for publication a copy of communication which His Excellency the Governor-General has received from the Secretaries of the Prince of Wales Testimonial Fund.

TESTIMONIAL TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

The sub-committee of the Earl of Cadogan, Chairman; the Earl of Rosebery; Lord Napier of Magdala; the Lord Mayor of London; Sir John Ross; Sir Robert G. W. Herbert with Colonel Sir Owen T. Burne and Sir Arthur N. Burrell, Honorary Secretaries, have had laid before them the following letter from H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, addressed to the Chairman:—

My DEAR CADOGAN, As I understand that you are Chairman of the Committee which has been formed for the purpose of collecting funds for a Testimonial to be presented to me as Executive President of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition, I wish to write and express to you and the other gentlemen who have so kindly moved in this matter, how deeply I appreciate the compliment they proposed to pay me.

I feel, however, that I cannot accept any personal present, though I am most sensible of the kind feeling which has prompted it, but as you are aware that it is suggested in commemoration of Her Majesty's jubilee year, to establish an "Imperial Institution" for the Colonies and India, in the promotion of which I take the deepest interest, I should be most grateful if the subscribers would allow the funds collected for my testimonial, to be applied in aid of that object.

Should they kindly do so, it will be an ample reward to me for any services I may have rendered to make the Exhibition of 1886 a success.

Believe me, My dear Cadogan, Very sincerely yours, ALBERT EDWARD P.

The Earl of Cadogan, etc., etc.

Whereupon the following resolution was proposed and adopted:—

That in view of the letter addressed by His Royal Highness, the Executive President, to the Chairman of this committee, in which His Royal Highness, while conveying his grateful appreciation of the proposed testimonial to himself, expresses the wish that it may not take such a form, but that any funds collected may be applied towards the "Imperial Institution" which it is intended to found to commemorate the jubilee year of Her Majesty's reign.

Resolved Therefore, That the committee, believing it to be the wish of the subscribers to evince their high sense of His Royal Highness's great services in the manner most acceptable to himself, acquiesce in the suggestion contained in his letter.

They desire, at the same time, to record what they are assured will be the unanimous feeling of all the donors—that the step then taken by His Royal Highness, if it possible, add to the appreciation entertained of his disinterested and public-spirited efforts, not only on behalf of an exhibition from which many millions of Her Majesty's subjects have already derived so much advantage, but to further a project which will at once be a grateful memorial of Her Majesty's long and happy reign, and conduce to the permanent consolidation of the Empire.

It was further resolved that the chairman report the foregoing proceedings for the approval of the full committee and the subscribers.

Omissions Supplied.

THE President of the Caledonia Club, in his opening remarks at Saint Andrew's dinner, on Tuesday evening last, said that it was now over half a century since the Highland Society was first organized in Charlottetown, and that among its members at that time were Donald MacDonald, Esquire, President, Hon. D. MacDonald, Glenaladale, Hon. Wm. Macintosh, Andrew Duncan, Alex. Brown, Hugh MacDonald, Georgetown, John McGill, P. Walker, Geo. Dalrymple, John McNeill, Major C. D. Rankin, James Purdie, Hon. Charles Young, Alex. McLean, Donald Montgomery, J. H. Grey, and others.

The occasion was enlivened by excellent songs by Mr. John Ross, and a recitation of the address to a haggis, by Councillor McLean.

An Ottawa despatch to the Halifax Herald says:—"Hon. Mr. Foster has returned to the city from a campaign tour with Sir John. A gentleman who was present at the meetings last week tells us that nothing could exceed the enthusiasm of the people of St. John. He says Messrs. Foster and Thompson have won golden opinions from the western people for their ability as platform speakers."

The Gem of the St. Lawrence.

A HALIGONIAN IMPRESSION OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND—ITS PROGRESS AND ITS FUTURE.

(Special Correspondent Halifax Herald.)

A Herald correspondent who recently visited Prince Edward Island, writes as follows:—"This exclusive little spot in Canada beautifully rewards any visitor between June and November. Passengers are met every day except Sunday, at Point du Chene, by one of the two boats that do most of the transportation to and from the Island between Pictou, Charlottetown, Georgetown, Point du Chene and Summerside. On a fine October day, the St. Lawrence came as usual with her rich and heavy load of freight to Point du Chene. Her lower deck was covered with sheep, lambs, horses, and piled up with oysters in barrels, and oats in bags.

There is something in the soil and climate of Prince Edward Island favorable to physical development. A look at the horses and sheep on the St. Lawrence made that evident. Some of them are adapted to the road and some to the truck. They were a fine lot of animals. I took pains to examine the sheep. They too were large and finely rounded in form. Close observation in travelling over the Island confirmed the first impression. Everywhere the horses and sheep are large, and many of them fine in form. Every farm has a small flock of sheep; the rule is from 18 to 30 on a farm. Doubtless the flocks on some farms are much larger. The horse does the farm work on this Island. I did not see an ox-yoke in all my travels. Everywhere the horses were out doing the fall-ploughing. Nowhere did I see a crooked furrow. It is pleasant to the eyes to look upon the red fields and the straight furrows. Most of the ploughing is evidently done in the autumn. Farmers think it is better for the land, and, as the autumns are long and fine, and the springs late and rainy, it is economy of time to get the fields turned up to the sun before winter comes on. At Montague I saw one of the finest Durham cows that could be found anywhere. There is no little agitation about the matter of improved breeds of animals, and the introduction of fruit trees. It is ascertained that good apples can be raised on any part of the island. Apple tree agents were busy in distributing young trees in different parts of the country. The plough could make an uninterrupted furrow from East to West Cape. The spruce and fir are natural to the soil. If taste should be a little more generally cultivated, Prince Edward Island could be and become a garden from end to end. Too much of the woods in many places have been cleared from the country, leaving it bare and exposed to the winds and the wash of the rains. In some places this is remedied by planting rows of spruce and fir. Should this become general it will both beautify and enrich the country. Many of the people are of Scotch Highland origin. They are not by predilection the best of farmers, but they can learn, and are learning. It must not be inferred that there is no manufacturing in that part of the Dominion. At Tryon and Charlottetown there are woolen mills, and at Crapaud there is a starch factory. At Tryon the factory produces a great variety of tweeds, blankets and yarn. Ready sale is found for all that is made. The market is Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and the province of Quebec. Thirty-six hands are employed and $75,000 worth of goods are produced in Tryon. More than this is turned out of the factory in Charlottetown. There are other factories on the Island.

Mock Parliament.

A Mock Parliament in connection with the Y. M. C. A., was organized last evening. Mr. Bowman Brown was chosen speaker, and a code of rules and regulations was adopted. A Liberal Cabinet has been formed as follows:—

Premier.—J. W. Mullaly. Attorney-General.—J. H. Good. Provincial Secretary.—B. D. Higgins. Commissioner Public Works.—J. M. Campbell.

Commissioner Crown Lands.—G. M. Harris. Mr. Duncan McLean was appointed Clerk, and Mr. Ingram Wood, Sergeant at Arms.

Mr. Palmer gave notice that he would, at the next meeting, introduce a resolution setting forth that it is expedient to build a bridge over the Hillsborough.

The Mock Parliament will meet every Tuesday evening.

The Temperance Question

SIR,—The temperance question is an ugly question for the Grits, especially the Charlottetown Grits, to handle. Even the matchless Milliner found it too hot even to touch at the grand rally. Gritism and temperance don't go well together. Come, Bro. George, is it party or country first? TEMPERANCE.

Tin Wedding at Souris.

A large number of the good people of Souris passed a very enjoyable evening last Saturday, at the house recently occupied by Mr. G. B. McEachen, where Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Fhine celebrated their Tin Wedding on the tenth anniversary of their marriage. The high esteem in which the happy pair are held in the community, was amply shown by the number present on the mirthful occasion, and by the spirited manner in which the music, dancing and other festivities were kept up to a late hour. The presents in tinware were numerous and useful, although somewhat comical in their design. They consisted in part of a milk creamer, a pair of tin lanterns, patty pan, necklaces and bracelets, cake cutter, casseroles, etc., together with a regular assortment of children's toys of fantastic design. As the party broke up many and sincere were the congratulations and kind wishes expressed for the future of the youthful couple, who on their part manifested their gratitude and delight by smiles and hand shaking, as their numerous friends left for their respective homes.—Com.

"Fair Rents and Free Homes!"

JOHN DILLON'S CHALLENGE TO THE GOVERNMENT—ADVICE TO THE TENANTS.

Notwithstanding the proclamations, what may be called peripatetic meetings were held in the vicinity of Sligo and other places, which were variously dispersed by the bayonet or the club. At Ballaghaderin John Dillon was defiant. The following extract from his speech will voice the general feeling of Irishmen:—

"The government may attempt to suppress the movement. They have struck a blow already. A detective from Dublin has handed me a process. That is the blow. I am still here. These papers declare that I have been guilty of bad conduct toward the Queen, because, indeed, I have induced tenants on several estates in Ireland to combine together in order to compel the landlords to reduce the rents.

"All I can say is this: If the government have no other blow to strike they will have very little effect on me by such blows. They may rest perfectly certain that if writs or processes have no more effect on you than these documents have on me, it will be a long time before Lord Dillon gets his rents. In spite of these grand legal documents, we shall continue to go around and advise the people to take their stand. Now or never for fair rents and free homes! I say that you need not be at all afraid as to the result of this movement if you follow our policy as honest men, as brave men and as men faithful to one another.

"Lord Dillon is absolutely powerless before you, but I must remind you that in carrying out this policy you are not to lie down and sleep. In every district on this estate members of different leagues should meet every Sunday and, regularly as they go to mass, discuss the situation. Whenever writs or processes are served you should meet together and express your determination to support the men who have been struck and send up word to us in Dublin as soon as the writ serving begins and we will call the biggest meeting that ever assembled in town. (Cheers.) If you stand firm, as I know you will, the battle is won, and you will soon see Lord Dillon haul down his colors."
