Robert Bond Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills After Being Given up

J. J. Dodd & Co.

Mr. Brydges, April 17.—Robert Bond, of this place is famous as the man who was allowed Total Disability by the Provincial Government, of St. Thomas, and who subsequently recovered, owing to his use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. He suffered from Bright's Disease and was given up by the doctors. The Insurance Company paid him the full amount of his claim, $600. Mr. Bond then learned of the only and best cure for Bright's Disease, Dodd's Kidney Pills, used them to the extent of twenty boxes and is well to-day.

Recent letter to an enquirer reads: "Dear Sir—In answer to yours, I would say my cure by Dodd's Kidney Pills was entirely satisfactory and I recommend them most heartily."

Yours truly, ROBERT BOND.

CECIL RHODES CRITICISMS.

Cecil Rhodes in his speech at the annual meeting of the De Aar Mining Company paid his respects sharply to both Kruger and ex-President Steyn of the Free State. Mr. Rhodes said: "I venture to predict that the day of reckoning is coming between the Dutch farmer and these people who have misled him. What is the Pretoria government? Simply President Kruger and a gang of Hollander placemen, steeped in corruption, and the whole government is consequently rotten. The people have no voice. They have been deluded into the belief that their independence was threatened, and all the time this old gentleman was piling up armaments to threaten the flag of Her Majesty in South Africa, and it is quite a question whether if he had threatened it during European complications he might not have been successful for a considerable time. And what of the government of the Free State? They were left alone; we did them no harm. But, gentlemen—and really it is the most amusing story in the world—that state has been plunged into war at the will of two individuals. We had here a rather indifferent attorney called Fischer, who left us and retired to Bloemfontein. There he became a member of the Raad, but he left it in a fit of temper, and I suppose he thought in his retirement that he could bring himself again before the public if he upset the existing order of things. And so he and that bucolic President Steyn have plunged his state into war. And their people are going to reckon with them—not with us. Presently they will ask: "What was the fight about?" and "Where was our president?" I noticed the other day that President Steyn had been to Pretoria, and Kruger sent him back with a message. He said: "I am so old I cannot lead my burghers, but tell them if I were not so old

I should be leading them." This message was greeted with great enthusiasm, but curiously no one saw the humor of it. The humor was this. Why was not Steyn leading his burghers? He is a great fat, hearty man of 40, and quite physically capable of going into the field, but he preferred to stay in Bloemfontein, or make trips to Pretoria, and I have not heard of Mr. Fischer, ex-Attorney of Kimberley, leading the burghers either. I suggest to President Steyn that he should finish the balance of the war by leading his own burghers, instead of wasting his time in some passionate denunciations of England, which invariably finish up with those religious cant and appeal to the Almighty."

ADVANCE BY BEIRA.

Three transports have landed at Beira, Portuguese East Africa, 1,100 Australian bushmen, with horses, 1,200 mules, and a large number of transport vehicles. These will go to Marandellas, 24 miles from Salisbury. Marandellas will be the first base camp. It has already been prepared for occupation.

Two more transports have arrived at Beira, bringing railway material. Twenty-two transports, in addition to vessels bringing large shipments of South American cattle, are expected to arrive at Beira within a month.

Beira is 600 miles north of Lorenzo Marques. Under an old treaty, Portugal has permitted British troops to be landed there and sent across Portuguese East Africa to Rhodesia, the country north of the Transvaal. Twenty-two transports would contain from fifteen to twenty thousand troops.

On April 7th the following came from Mafeking: The success of Lieut. Smith-Eman, the Rhodesian scout, who with the exception of a Reuter correspondent, a cyclist is the only white man who has entered Mafeking since the siege began, is likely to prove of great value to Col Plumer, to whom he has returned with despatches should Plumer decide to raise the siege in earnest.
