From Life to Death.

IN MEMORY OF ETHEL AND EUPHEMIA M'DOUGALL, ARGYLE SHORE, AGED RESPECTIVELY 10 AND 13, WHO DIED FROM DIPHTHERIA ON THE 19TH AND 20TH FEBRUARY, 1892.

Death's heavy hand has been laid on
Two flowers just in bud;
As tender plants by lightning struck,
They reeled and dropped their heads.

They side by side in beauty grew,
Their home was filled with glee;
But they could not stay, when called away
Young to eternity.

The marks of love they distinctly made
Can scarcely e'er decay,
And in the minds of those behind,
They'll rise from day to day.

Their pleased forms are seen no more,
They sleep within the clay,
They sleep the sleep that knows no wake,
'Til resurrection day.

Their chairs are vacant in the home,
Occupied no more shall be
By them, who once were full of mirth,
And played upon the lee.

With pleasure beaming in their eyes,
From home to school they went,
But now no more we'll see them there,
For they've from life been rent.

Playmates! no more shall they
In games take part, and run;
You'll miss them truly in you sports,
But God's will must be done.

As surely as the sun doth set,
We're born to meet our doom,
The old must go—the young they pray
At night, morn, eve or noon.

Weep not ye parents of these girls,
In God's hands do they lie,
He called them from this lower world,
To be with him on high.

We all, with one accord
Extend our sympathy,
For they to us connected were
By bands of unity.

B. C.

Argyle Shore, Feb. 24th, 1892.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr

The Telephone Company

—OF—

P. E. ISLAND.

PARTIES using the Telephones would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.

ROB ANGUS, Manager.

SAVED!

The testimonial below refers to a patient who was pronounced incurable by leading physicians in England:

From Rev. Dr. Hill.

M. F. Eagar, Esq. HALIFAX, N. S.

Dear Sir,—I feel that it is due to you that I should say publicly what I have said privately very many times, namely, that I firmly believe your PHOSPHOLEINE was the means of restoring a near relative of mine to ordinary health. The patient was apparently in the last stages of Consumption, but with the concurrence of skilled physicians your PHOSPHOLEINE was tried, and, I am happy to say, with results that I certainly did not anticipate. My friend is to-day in the enjoyment of excellent health.

Believe me, yours very truly,

GEORGE W. HILL, D. C. L.
