

Cards Edge Dodgers To Grab Second Place In Nat. League

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
St. Louis Cardinals ran their winning streak to four Wednesday and moved past Brooklyn into second place in the National League, a full game behind the surprising Cincinnati Redlegs.

The Cards edged the Dodgers 6-5 in 10 innings at St. Louis and the Redlegs whipped Pittsburgh 8-4 in Cincinnati. In the only other day action in the majors New York Giants beat Milwaukee 3-1.

Rain and cold weather caused a rash of postponements for the second straight day. Games called off were Philadelphia at Chicago in the National League and all contests in the American League except Chicago at New York, Detroit at Philadelphia, Cleveland at Boston and Baltimore at Washington.

A walk, a stolen base by pinch runner Dick Schofield and a two out single by Steve Bilko gave the Cards their winning run after the Dodgers had tied the contest in the top of the ninth on Duke Snider's double with one on and two away.

LIFTED FOR PINCH-HITTER
Vic Raschi, who taunted the Dodgers when he tolled for New York Yankees, stayed nine innings for St. Louis before giving way to a pinch hitter. Joe Presko got credit for the victory.

Cincinnati wrapped up its second straight over the Pirates with five runs in the third inning on a pair of singles, a double by Jim Greengrass, a sacrifice fly and a steal of home by Johnny Temple and Jackie Collum gave up only one hit in 6 1-3 innings of relief work for the Redlegs.

The Giants bunched four hits in the seventh for all of their runs at Milwaukee. Pitcher Ruben Gomez singled with two on and two out for the first run and after Whitey Lockman walked Al Dark doubled for two more.
