Honoured On Silver Wedding Anniversary

The Lawless family of Norboro, the Misses Miriam and Norma and Messrs. Frank and Lloyd, entertained on October 26th, at dinner in honour of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawless, who were celebrating the 25th anniversary of their marriage.

Partaking of a sumptuous goose dinner were forty guests including the bridesmaid and groomsmen of twenty-five years ago, Mrs. Frank McDougall and Mr. Cecil Hughes.

The dining room, decorated with pink and white streamers and varicolored balloons, was an attractive setting for the dinner table with center piece of anniversary cake flanked by lighted candles.

When the guests had assembled the bride and groom of twenty-five years were escorted to decorated chairs to the strains of the Anniversary Waltz. Mr. Louis O'Connor as M. C. in brief opening remarks congratulated the bride and groom and called on Miss Miriam Lawless to read an address from the family while Lloyd presented their gift of Wrist Watches. Brief congratulatory addresses were given by Mr. Peter Callaghan, Mr. James Pendergast, Mr. James Morris, Mrs. Leona Cameron, Mrs. Fred Worth and others. Mr. and Mrs. Lawless also received a beautiful array of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Leona Cameron.

The guests were entertained with a pleasing variety of vocal and instrumental music with the following "stars" taking part, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gallant, Mrs. Merritt Callaghan, Mr. Raymond Kelly, Mr. Wilbert Lawless, Mr. Ignatius Lawless and Lloyd Lawless. A sing-song in which all took part and a reading by Mr. Louis O'Connor were features of the program.

At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Lawless many more years to enjoy their happy marriage.—K.

—PLAN TO ATTEND Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic, St. Mary's Hall, Summerside, Thursday, November 6th, from 7-10 P. M.

—WINNER IN ESSAY CONTEST —Friends are particularly pleased to note the name of Earl Lockerby of Hamilton's one room rural school as receiving second place award in his division in the essay contest sponsored by the Department of Education during Old Home Week. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lockerby, and his teacher, Miss Agatha MacLellan, may feel justly proud of his achievement.

—WEST MEETS EAST. — Flying Officer P. L. Johnston, formerly of Terrace, B. C., came on Thursday, October 23rd by plane from Winnipeg to Summerside Air Navigation School. The trip approximately 1500 miles, was made in a Dakota in slightly over eight hours. He had his first look at the Atlantic Ocean and Prince Edward Island. He thinks the Island is a veritable garden and says it is known in B. C. as the birthplace of Canadian Co-operatives — as per the Co-operative Cheese Companies established in 1894 by the apostle of co-operatives, Dr. Robertson. Officer Johnston visited friends in the vicinity of Kensington.—K.

—NOVA SCOTIA VISITORS — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leydon of Amherst spent the October 25th weekend with friends in Kensington. It was their first visit, and they were not disappointed or disillusioned. They marvelled at the extent of some of the neighborhood bins of potatoes and large flocks of cattle. Mr. and Mrs. Leydon, who are both native born Halifaxians, were recently married in St. Patrick's Church Halifax. Mrs. Leydon had the unique and thrilling experience of being one of those held up on two occasions in bank robberies in Toronto. The last one was by the Boyd-Suchan gang. The description given of the "lineups" of prisoners for identification by bank employees was graphic and thrilling. Mr. Leydon is assistant superintendent at the salt mines at Nappan.

Alberton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Hardy, Windsor, motored to Alberton yesterday where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atkinson.

Mr. Preston Clark is spending a few days in Alberton on behalf of the Automatic Sprinkler Company, Saint John, N. B., where he is employed.

The Alberton Ladies' Curling Club members were hostesses at a card party held in the Legion Hall Tuesday evening. Fifteen tables of bridge and auction were in play. First prizes for bridge were won by Mrs. Albert Clarke and Dr. S. Bandler; consolation prizes by Mrs. S. Bandler and Mr. Earl Atkinson. First prizes for auction were won by Mrs. Raymond Saunders and Mrs. Erskine Campbell; consolation prizes by Mrs. Cyril Leard and Mr. Hunter Weeks. Refreshments were served by the ladies and a number of cakes were auctioned by Mr. Frank Bryan.
