

ANOTHER PRIZE WINNER

MIDWAY FUN FOR EVERYONE

Vaudeville is certain to delight allcomers

A full and appealing variety of vaudeville entertainment is on tap for this year's provincial exhibition Old Home Week.

Local talent is combined with imported performers in a blend of entertainment which has something for all.

Vaudeville performances will be staged at 1 p. m. and 7 p. m. daily throughout the exhibition, with the exception of opening day when there will be no 1 p. m. vaudeville show.

Sure to enthrall spectators is the slack wire act of La Belle Norma, one of the finest and most remarkable exhibitions of this kind.

An appealing and laugh-provoking comedy with wide appeal to young and old alike, is the Swan and Norma act. They are leading comedians and magicians.

Another act with wide appeal is Albert Charles and his educated dogs, presented in a most unique and novel manner with unequalled smoothness of performance which make this act tops in its field. This act is one of the most beautiful canine acts to be presented on stage in recent years.

UNIQUE APPEAL
Of unique appeal is the Miss Arizonas appearance. Miss Arizonas is a cowgirl sensation, her act features an outstanding exhibition with whips, ropes and a unicorn.

Miss Arizonas has played at the leading rodeos in North America and abroad. She will be in Canada for the first time with her local appearance here. Local talent will feature the splendid Kensington Junior Choir, popular with all who have heard the youthful girl performers. The blending of voices of the 12 performers and the beauty of the inspiring lyrics set to pleasing music, is a composite effect which presents great listening pleasure.

The choir has a wide range of selections, which is sure to captivate listeners.

The choir will perform during
