Those attending the party included Earl Humes, Raymond Hickey, Mickey Richard, Ned Melanson, Ron Gillespie, Leonard Bourque and Bill Hynes, Misses Pat Gillespie, Alice Hagarty, Bernadette Wrynn, Audrey Chisholm, Annie Phinney and Eileen Delahunt Moncton Times.

—COUNTY COURT—The County Court of Prince County, Judge Shaw presiding was engaged on Tuesday and Wednesday with the case of Levi McArthur vs. Watson Silliker. The plaintiff is a farmer residing on the eastern outskirts of Summerside and is bringing an action for $500.00 damages against the defendant who resides at O'Leary and was driving a motor truck on the highway east of Summerside on the 19th of January last when there were snow cuttings on the road. The plaintiff claims that he was thrown from the sleigh and his arm broken, while the defendant alleges the truck did not touch the sleigh but that the plaintiff's horse became unruly through no fault of theirs, while in one of these snow cuttings when the truck was passing through. A large amount of evidence was taken including the evidence of two doctors. The case is adjourned until the 27th for argument. Morley M. Bell and Henry Noonan for the plaintiff; Lloyd G. Lewis and C. D. McCallum for the defendant. S

Charlottetown lost an old and respected resident in the death of Mrs. Lawrence W. Watson who passed away at the Charlotte Residence early Tuesday morning in her 81st year.

She was formerly Eleanor Massey DesBrisay, the daughter of Theophilus and Dorcas DesBrisay, and was born in Charlottetown on November 5, 1858.

She was married to Mr. Lawrence W. Watson, who was formerly in the drug business in Charlottetown and was for thirty-five years organist in St. Peter's Cathedral here. Mr. Watson passed away in 1925.

The late Mrs. Watson was a woman of sterling character beloved by all who knew her, and was a lifelong member of St. Peter's Cathedral.

Mrs. James Simpson of Charlottetown is a sister; five others predeceased her.

There are two sons, one daughter and seven grandchildren. The sons are Russell, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Ottawa, and Norman, who is with the C. N.R. at Montreal. The daughter is Mrs. Reginald Morris of Charlottetown.

Mr. Henry Wedge of Summerside was elected president of the Prince Edward Island Pharmaceutical Association yesterday at the annual meeting held in the Charlottetown Hotel. Mr. Wedge succeeds retiring president Mr. G. R. Morrison of Souris. The president-elect and Mr. Ralph Jenkins, Charlottetown were selected as delegates to attend the annual meeting of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association.

SPEAKS BEFORE ROTARY—Visiting Fredericton for the first time in his official capacity as District Governor of the 192nd District of International Rotary, under whose jurisdiction are 32 clubs in the Maritimes, Newfoundland, Gaspe and the State of Maine, Dr. J. A. Clark, of the Experimental Station, Charlottetown spoke before the weekly Rotary luncheon Tuesday afternoon. He held a club assembly that same evening. Before returning home on Monday Dr. Clark will make an official visit to Saint John.

FRIDAY

SENT BEST WISHES FOR CONFEDERATION CELEBRATION—Among the persons sending greetings and best wishes for the success of last week's Confederation Celebration were the following: Honorable Thomas J. Coonan, Minister Without Portfolio, Province of Quebec; M. J. Kaufman, Mayor of Amherst, N. S.; W. E. McMonagle, Mayor, Moncton, N. B.; D. L. Mellish, President Maritime Provinces Association, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

APPLICATION ALLOWED—Wednesday an application for a Writ of Habeas Corpus was made before Mr. Justice Arsenault on behalf of Cyrus McGillvary a prisoner detained in Kings County Jail for a violation of the Excise Act. It was ordered that the prisoner be discharged as the offence for which he was committed was one beyond the jurisdiction of the justices who tried the case Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C., appeared for the prisoner, and Mr. C. St. Clair Trainor, K. C. for the Crown.

LAID TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. L. W. Watson was held yesterday from St. Peter's Cathedral, Charlottetown, to St. Peter's Cemetery. Services in the cathedral were conducted by Rev. Canon Malone and Dr. Hunt, and at the cemetery by Dr. Hunt. The mourners were G. R. B. Watson, N. S. Watson, Louis Watson, Bruce Watson, Robert Morris, John Morris, Lieutenant-Governor DeBlois, Noel H. DeBlois, H. M. Simpson, Judge H. L. Palmer and Robert L. Cotton. The pall-bearers were James E. Harris, T. E. MacNutt, P. S. Fielding, J. R. Paton, H. R. Stewart and W. E. Cotton.

SEASON EXTENDED—The Department of Agriculture here today received an announcement from Ottawa which said the open season on ducks and geese other than brant would be extended this year on Prince Edward Island. The announcement stated that the season on ducks and geese would open Sept. 20 and close Dec. 5, a two-and-half months season. The new dates close three weeks later than last season and open five days later. For eider ducks, the season remained at two months, Sept. 20 to Nov. 19. Last January a migratory birds convention was held here and delegates were sent to Ottawa where they petitioned for a longer season on ducks and geese.

SESSION CONCLUDED—The Supreme Court at Georgetown concluded its session on Wednesday afternoon last, when the Court adjourned sine die. There were no criminal cases. The only jury case was a civil action brought by Andrew Banks of Annandale against the Prince Edward Island Agricultural Mutual Fire Insurance Company upon a policy of insurance by which the company agreed to pay two-thirds of the loss from fire which might be sustained by the insured. The insured's dwelling house was burned on March 12, 1938 and was a total loss. After making an investigation the Company refused to pay. The case was tried before Mr. Justice Arsenault and a jury on the 24th, 25th and 26th inst., when the jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. W. E. Bentley, K. C., for plaintiff; Hon. T. A. Campbell, K. C., and J. O. C. Campbell for defendant.

KINSMEN HOLD LADIES NIGHT—Wednesday evening at "Dalvay by the Sea", the Charlottetown Kinsmen's Club held their first annual ladies' night with dinner at 7 and dancing afterwards till 12. A jolly sing song led by Song Leader Roll Taylor was enjoyed by all. During the evening Miss Anna MacKenzie, who represented the Kinsmen's Club in the recent Princess Charlottetown Contest, was presented with a lovely compact, suitably engraved, to commemorate the occasion. The presentation was made by Kinsman Walt Gaudet on behalf of the Club. The Club was favored by the presence of Miss Sally Hughes, chosen last week as Queen of the Confederation Carnival. President Stewart Ives presided at the dinner and gave the toast to the King. A pleasing item on the program of the evening was a solo by Frank MacMillan, "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling."

PRESENTATION—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hector McNevin, Canoe Cove, on the evening of June 28th, in honor of their daughter Miss Jessie Isabell, whose marriage was to take place in the near future. To the strains of the Wedding March played by Mrs. Myrtle MacPhail, the bride-to-be entered the room and was escorted to the seat of honor by Mrs. Catherine Darrah and Mrs. Margaret McKinnon. Mrs. Minnie McNevin acted as chairman and after a few pleasant remarks called on Miss Stella Inman to read an address expressing their high esteem and good wishes for years of happiness, while Miss Annie Gordon presented her with a beautiful arm chair on behalf of the members of Lady Patricia L.O.B.A., of which she was a member. Although taken by surprise the bride-to-be thanked the members for their beautiful present and kind wishes, after which all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A very dainty lunch was then served after which all dispersed to their homes wishing Jessie many years of happy wedded life.

NOT QUITE SO HOT—The mercury reached 85 degrees yesterday just one point less than the high of Wednesday as the spell of warm weather on the Island continued. A cooling breeze swept in from the west during the day but died down at night.

CALLED TO BAR—A short session of the Supreme Court was held yesterday, and the one case before it was adjourned. On motion of Frederic A. Large, Charles G. Riley, of Charlottetown, who had been admitted as an attorney a year ago, was called to the Bar yesterday. Mr. Riley has been a law student in the office of Alexander W. Matheson.

Friends in this city will learn with regret of the passing at his home in Garden City, Long Island, N.Y., of Joseph Flynn, son of the late City Marshall T. E. Flynn and Mrs. Flynn, whose death occurred on Sunday last.

Mr. Flynn was for a long period chief steward of the U. S. Transport "Chateau Thierry." He was not enjoying the best of health for some time, and about six weeks ago underwent an operation from which he failed to recover.

A brother, Arthur, superintendent of army transport service, passed away last October.

He is survived by his wife and two brothers, W. M. Flynn and Frank Flynn, of this city. D. J. Riley is a cousin.

The deceased visited his native city about ten years ago on the death of his mother.

The funeral was held yesterday morning from his late residence, Garden City.

The eighth annual convention of the Prince Edward Island Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., was held in the Town Hall, Summerside, yesterday. Sessions were held morning, afternoon and evening.

His Worship Mayor John E. Campbell welcomed the delegates and extended to them the freedom of the town. Following the conclusion of the morning session the delegates and other returned men wearing khaki berets and carrying Legion standards, paraded to the war memorial where a wreath was placed by Major M.F. Gregg, V.C., M.C. The parade was headed by the Summerside Town Band.
