

Ten-Headed Cabbage Tops Current List Of Oddities

SUMMERSIDE — A cabbage with ten heads, displayed by Heaver Myers of Carleton at the community, politics, labour, etc.

Support was given to the efforts of the Charlottetown Ministerial Association in urging the appointment of a chaplain for provincial institutions.

Rev. W. Burton Crowe of Park-Royal, was elected secretary of the Presbytery in place of Rev. T. R. Goudge of Pownal, who had served in that capacity efficiently for a number of years.

Rev. James A. Fraser of Bideford, was named a special secretary. Rev. Dr. E. Arthur Betts was released from the charge of Winsloe, to take effect at the end of the conference year.

REPHRASED MADE Enthusiastic reports were made by Rev. L. M. Murray, and S. T. Green, R.A. Profit, and L. R. Allen, who had attended general council at Ottawa.

Rev. E. F. Hall, who has recently come from Scotland to take over the charge of Hunter River, was introduced and made welcome.

Plans for the coming rural life conference at Bedeque were outlined by Rev. Dr. E.A. Betts, convener of the committee.

Dinner was served by the Breadalbane ladies, and a welcome to the presbytery was extended by the minister, Rev. Anthony G.N. Ware.

The meetings were opened with devotions led by Rev. G.A. D. Elliott of York, and closed with the benediction by the chairman, Rev. J. Murdoch Fraser of Montague.

Mr. Lawrence Lewis of Alberton was studying at Dalhousie University, and unable to be present, was introduced by Mrs. A. C. Green. A public reception for each of these is to be held in his home church.

ADAPTED TRAINING The ministers in the province have adequate training and devotion to do the work of evangelism, asserted Rev. W. A. Paterson of Georgetown, in reporting for the committee on evangelism and social service.

A former school teacher, Harold Lewis of Bedeque mentioned the Christian influence of his home, in his home church, and the experience of boys' camps, as most helpful in his life.

A merchant in Carleton, Ralph MacCaull, spoke of his experience in his home church and his decision at the recent conference of United Church men at Stanhope.

P.M. Still Backs Rejected Commonwealth Fund Plan

KARACHI (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker said Friday he still favors the idea of a Commonwealth development fund—the plan that was turned down at the recent Commonwealth economic conference in Montreal.

The world-touring prime minister told a packed press conference such a fund would give newly-independent countries a better chance to strengthen themselves.

He mentioned Ghana and Malaya, and told reporters: "The Commonwealth has a mission and a mandate of freedom, and it is doing the job very well."

He and Mrs. Diefenbaker arrived here Thursday to start the Asian phase of their world-girdling tour.

FORMAL DINNER Friday night they were to meet Pakistan's new president, Gen. Ayub was visiting the northern part of Pakistan when the Diefenbakers arrived, and was unable to meet them.

Today, the two leaders are to hold private talks.

Diefenbaker covered a wide range of international topics during his press conference.

Asked about recognizing Communist China, Diefenbaker said recognition now might be construed as approbation of communism, particularly in the light of Red China's role in the Korean War.

Asked whether he thought Quebec, Matsui and the other offshore islands should go to Communist China as a matter of right, he said: "These problems are matters for negotiation and discussion."

On Algeria, he said: "That problem is an internal problem of the republic of France."

INCREASE CONTRIBUTIONS Diefenbaker said Canada would be contributing $50,000 annually for the next three years to Colombo Plan funds, an annual increase of $15,000,000, and Pakistan would naturally share this amount.

Asked about the possibilities of a flow of Canadian capital to Pakistan, Diefenbaker said there was a shortage of investment capital in Canada and many Canadian projects are carried out with American and British investments.

Asked whether he thought the Commonwealth could become a third bloc as a balancing force between the Communist and Western blocs, he said he did not believe in the formation of additional blocs.

Train, Car Collide; Man Not Injured

L.K. Abbott, Atlantic Provinces representative of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and Other Transport Workers, arrived in Charlottetown Wednesday and since that time has concluded negotiations with Northumberland Ferries Limited with the signing of an agreement for employees on the Wood Island-Caribou ferries.

Mr. Abbott attended a meeting of Local 20, representing railway and above mentioned employees, and conducted their election of officers.

He also brought the members up to date on the national convention proceedings which was held in Vancouver in September. Some discussion took place on the pending strike set for Dec. 1st, and appropriate committees were elected to take care of same.

Mr. Abbott goes to Borden today for meetings with the locals of the brotherhood there, and to present a charter to Local 318, a newly formed local of engineers in the Tormentine-Borden services.

While in Charlottetown he met with members of Local 279 employees at the Charlottetown Hotel. He will be returning to Halifax Sunday.

Missing Bullet Is Found Embedded In Cigaret Lighter

SUMMERSIDE — The mystery surrounding the disappearance of a sixth bullet from a revolver allegedly used in the wounding of a man and woman at Summerside last Friday night has been solved by its location embedded in a cigarette lighter which had been in the shirt pocket of Dan Nault who was shot in the shoulder during the incident in which Nault and Mrs. Harold Martin were allegedly wounded by Martin in the Martin home on second street early Friday evening.

Both victims of the shooting are still in hospital, Nault with a left shoulder wound, and Mrs. Martin with a wounded left forearm, and a bullet in or near the left lung.

A short time after the shooting Martin was located by Const. Harry MacKay who, although unarmed and believing Martin to be in possession of the gun, searched the premises under circumstances which merit commendation, located Martin in a small room at the back of the house, and placed him under arrest.

The revolver was later found under a cushion on a chair in the living room of the home.

With one exception the police were able to account for all of the six bullets which are believed to have been fired from the revolver at that time.

At the hospital Nault's shirt was removed and laid away, and later there seemed to be no explanation for his complaint of a very sore chest.

However, the matter appears to have been associated with the impact of the missing .38-calibre bullet found in the cigarette lighter whose chance location in the shirt pocket in the area of his lung, may well have saved his life.

Contracts For $1,727,516 Awarded For Airport Work

OTTAWA — (Special) — Contracts totalling $1,727,516 have been awarded by the federal government in the expansion and improvement of the RCAF Station, Summerside.

An official of the Defence Construction (1951) Limited disclosed Friday that three contracts were awarded during the period October 16th to 31st for the development of work to be undertaken at the station.

The project will provide much needed employment during the winter months.

Curran and Briggs Limited of Summerside was awarded a $40,045 contract which calls for the resurfacing of existing walks and driveways.

A contract valued at $349,444 was awarded to Richard-Wilcox Canadian Company Limited of London, Ont., for supply and installation of electrically-operated hangar doors. The amount is divided equally between the Summerside base and that at Greenwood, N.S.

The biggest contract amounting to $1,512,749 went to Forbes and Sloat Limited of Fredericton, N.B. The work to be done calls for new roads, drainage, aprons, taxiways and the installation of water and steam distribution systems.

The federal government plans to spend millions at the Summerside station over the next few years to make it one of the most modern and best equipped on the continent.
