

they don't want to know that).
Secondly, okay so you say "These proabortion feminists are prepared to justly murder and slaughter the child all for the liberation of women and their rights." I take from reading your letter that you don't believe women should have any rights, well then what if the 'child' is a female does that make it okay to have an abortion???? What about the men in some countries who practice Female infaticide ALL FOR THE RIGHTS OF MEN TO HAVE SONS!!!!!! Women are intelligent people to, they should be able to decide for themselves if having a child is right for them or not.

Thirdly, "Feminists join to think they are doing women all women in the world a favor by freeing them." MY MOST HEARTFELT THANK YOU TO ALL THOSE FEMINISTS WHO FOUGHT SO HARD FOR MY FREEDOM...I AM FOREVER INDEBTED TO YOU FOR ALL YOUR HARD WORK.
Fouthly, Is it a big deal or degrading for a husband to serve her meals on time, clean their house, and service her in bed in a loving family enviornment in return to her? I THINK NOT!

Lastly, This anti-family garbage that keeps popping up...just because feminists want rights for women, and for women to be treated equally and with respect just as any person should does not make them anti-family. Also in response to "Feminists are weak, and are only so reactionary, and have such big chips on their shoulders, because most of them could not get a man, even if they were the last females on earth due to their attitudes." If Feminists were weak then all you people would not be afraid of them, but their strength comes from the truth...WOMEN ARE EQUAL!! Also the part about not getting a man if a Feminist was the last women on earth... Well I have been engaged for over a year to a someone who loves me even though I have all these "bad" attitudes...Go figure that one...That might take you to long on your own so I'll help you out. I'm going to marry a REAL man one who loves me enough that he would not make me do something that would make me really unhappy...Maybe you'll never get married because you are carrying a chip on your shoulder and you have such a bad attitude.

Dear Editor,

I find the articles submitted by "Campus Women" very discouraging since people might get the notion that these women speak for us all. Fortunately they do not. Many of us do not believe that equality depends on the right to abortion - on - demand. Abortion always ends a human life, regardless of the reasons for doing so or the age of the preborn child. The right to abortion - on - demand does not make women equal, it assumes they are superior for they have the "choice" to end another's life.

It is ironic that most feminists, who are so fond of blaming the men for the mess of our world, want to change it by using the same tactics of misusing power and of discrimination. For years men denied that women were people who deserved that same rights as they themselves enjoyed: Now women, who fought this kind of discrimination, are following in the men's footsteps by denying the same rights to the preborn.
