A St John boy has been arrested for stealing $80 from his mother.

The St. John papers are agitating for the Dominion Exhibition in 1883.

Hon. Mr. Skead has declined acceptance of the Lieutenant Governorship of the North-West Territory.

In St. John money is in increased demand, greatly to the satisfaction of the bankers. So says the Telegraph

The steamer "Edgar Stuart" arrived from Halifax this morning, and will sail this evening with a cargo of produce.

The late residence and grounds of Hon. Joseph Pope have been purchased at auction by C. C. Gardiner, Esq., for $5,760.

It is reported that the French Credit Foncier has offered eight millions for the Q. M. O. & O. R., and that Mr. Chapleau favors the offer.

The brig "Zinga," Shehan, Master, to Peake Bros. & Co., with a cargo of general merchandize from London, G. B., arrived here on the 4th inst. She experienced very heavy weather the whole passage.

Firemen Extraordinary.—Nearly all the members of the volunteer fire department at Danville, Ill., have been arrested, charged with starting numerous fires during the past year for the purpose of having the department made a paid one.

Personal.—J. D. McLeod, Esq., of the firm of J. D. McLeod, & Co., and Mr. E. W. Dawson, of the firm of W. E. Dawson. & Co., have returned fram a business tour in the Upper Provinces and United States.

A Fatal Distemper.—Mr. Lovell Lewis, of Lewisville, in this Parish, lost two calves recently. They were attacked by a distemper and nothing that could be done had any effect. A third was the other day expected to die. No other cases have been reported.—Moncton Times.

There was a fair audience in the Y. M. C. A. last evening to hear the Rev. Mr. Carruthers' lecture on "Characteristics of the Scotch;" and Alexander McKinnon, Esq., was the chairman. The lecture was brimful of fun, with just enough of pathos and eloquence in it to give it a flavor.

The Scott Act.—A Fredericton despatch of Wednesday is as follows: Mr. Charles Lugrin received word from Ottawa this morning to the effect that the Dominion Government will pay the costs of the appeal in the Scott Act case on both sides. The case will not probably be heard before December, if then.

The Literary and Musical entertainment season opens in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Monday evening next. Among those who will take part are Misses Smith, Hayden, McLeod and DesBrisay, and Messrs. Vinnicombe, Earle, Fletcher and Millner. Mr. Vinnicombe will play on his new (or rather old and celebrated) violin.

Renewed activity is reported in Nihilistic circles in Russia, and apprehensions are felt that the revolutionists are preparing to strike another blow at the monarchy. The Government has ordered large bodies of troops to be in readiness to act at a moment's notice in every large city in the country. Forty of the Nihilists now under arrest will be secretly tried early this month.

A widow named Campbell appeared at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, charged with keeping a house of ill-fame at the East End of the city. Witnesses were examined, but while it was shown that she had, on one or two occasions, permitted disorderly parties in her house, the main charge could not be proven. After receiving a short lecture from the court she was, with her associates, dismissed.

A St. John Lawyer's Disappearance.—Considerable excitement has recently been caused in legal circles in this city by the disappearance of Mr. F. J. Duffy, of the law firm of Ritchie & Duffy, and President of the St. John branch of the Land League. It is said that Mr. Duffy has taken with him about $2,000 belonging to clients of the firm. It is supposed that he went to New York; but his present whereabouts are unknown.—Sun.

Ashore.—The brigantine "Emma Pitcairn," Capt. Marker, on voyage from Swansea to New London, P. E. Island, via Maderia, went ashore at Bull Creek, King's County, on Monday evening last, at four o'clock. She is reported to be badly injured, and has been ordered to be sold for the benefit of all concerned. (See advertisement in another column.) The "Emma Pitcairn" is fifteen years old, 195 tons register, A1 five years at Lloyd's. She is owned by Mr. R. M. Lloyd, of Cornvilla, Morristown, England. The captain reported her in ballast; but it is said she is loaded with Maderia wine.

The steamer "Carroll" sailed for Boston yesterday evening with a cargo of produce and the following passengers; I D Wallace and wife, Annie Bauncy, Flora McDonald, Elizabeth McDonald, Mary Kennedy, Donald Weatherbee, Jas McKinnon, Albert Hooper, Geo Inman, Flora D Ferguson, W F Blake, Mrs McDonald and three daughters Christine McLeod, Mary Kelly, Maggie Kelly, Bridget Kelly, Flora Stewart, Isaac M Bernard, Wm McLure, Islay McEachern, Mary McDonald, Mary Green, Margaret Green, Bridget Green, Jane McLeod, Gilbert Makes, Annie Bradley, Ellen Flood, Joseph Carr, Jas Mulligan, P. The silver and bronze medals given by the Governor-General for competition by the riflemen of this Province, arrived and were duly presented to the riflemen who made the best and second best aggregate score at the Provincial Rifle Shooting Match held in this city. Color-Sergeant R. V. Longworth having made the highest aggregate score, received the silver medal, and Sergeant L. Younker, who made the second highest score, received the bronze medal. The medals are alike in design and very handsome. The heads of the Marquis and Princess stand out in bold relief on one side, with the inscription: "H. R. H. Princess Louise, Marquis of Lorne, Kt. G C. M.G., while on the other are the arms of Great Britain, Canada and Argyll, with the inscription: "Palmam qui Meruit Ferat." As medal-winners Messrs. Longworth and Younker have been quite successful. The former, besides two cups and a silver badge, can display five handsome medals won in rifle contests, while the latter has been presented with a cup, four medals and a silver badge. We congratulate our friends on their success as marksmen and hope it may continue.
