ADDRESS,

W. L. COTTON,
Manager Examiner Printing and Publishing Company.
Ch'town, Dec. 1877.

Welcome, Louisa!

"Over the water and over the sea"
The galleys have sped with Louisa.
Neptune was civil as Neptune could be—
Dashing with spray his Louisa.

From city and hamlet on Old England's shore
Fond wishes have followed Louisa—
From Vancouver Isle to lone Labrador
Our hearts have gone forth to Louisa.

From casemate and castle and iron-clad fleet
A welcome has boomed for Louisa;
Republican Jonathan starts to his feet
To grasp the fair hand of Louisa.

And swift may the sentiment speed from our Isle
To greet the Royal Louisa;
That heaven may graciously wreath in its smile
The brow Callum More and Louisa.

Ch'town, Nov. 26, 1878.

Swearing the Governor General into Office.

(From the St. John Sun.)

When the procession had reached the Provincial building, it halted while the Marquis and his party and leading officials entered the building, where the ceremony of swearing the Marquis into office took place.

The swearing in of the Marquis of Lorne as Governor General was one of the most interesting scenes of the day, although it was witnessed by comparatively few. The members of the Privy Council of the Dominion

FIRST ENTERED THE ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, and sat in the centre of the room with the Clerk of the Privy Council, Mr. W. A. Himsforth, and the Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, Hon. Justice Ritchie, at each end of the table; after the members had taken their seats the Marquis of Lorne, H. R. H. Princess Louise and suite entered the room.

SURROUNDED BY THE STAFF.

On taking their seat the Marquis' Secretary, Major DeWinton, handed him the book of oaths while Judge Ritchie handed him the Bible, whereupon the Marquis read the following oath:

GOVERNOR GENERAL'S OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

"I, Sir John Douglas Sutherland Campbell, commonly called the Marquis of Lorne, do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and will defend her to the utmost of my power against all conspiracies and attempts whatever which shall be made against her person, Crown or dignity, and I will use my utmost endeavors to disclose and make known to Her Majesty, her heirs and survivors, all treason and treacherous conspiracies which may be formed against her or them, and I do faithfully promise to maintain, support and defend, to the utmost of my power, the succession to the Crown, which succession, by an act entitled 'An Act for the further limitation of the Crown and better securing of the rights and liberties of the subject,' is and stands limited to the Princess Sophia, electress of Hanover, and the heirs of her body being Protestants, hereby utterly renouncing and abjuring any obedience or allegiance unto any other person claiming or pretending a right to the Crown of this Realm; and I do declare, that no foreign prince, person, prelate, state or potentate, hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction, power, superiority or authority, gubernatorial or spiritual, within the Realm; and I make this declaration upon the true faith of a Christian. So Help Me God."

After the Marquis had signed the above the Judge administered

as follows:—
1. "You shall well and truly execute the office and trust of Governor-General of Canada, and the territories extending thereon; and duly and impartially administer justice therein, so help you God."

2. "You shall do your utmost endeavor that all the clauses, matters and things contained in the several acts of Parliament, heretofore passed, and now in force, relating to trade and Her Majesty's Colonies and plantations, be punctually and bona fide preserved according to the true intent and meaning thereof, so help your God."

3. "You shall well and truly execute the office of keeper of the Great Seal of Her Majesty's Dominion of Canada, according to the best of your knowledge and ability, so help you God."

While the jurat was being signed by the Judge, the Governor General handed of the Dominion to the Secretary of State, Hon. Senator Aikins, saying, "I hereby give into your hands the Great Seal of the Dominion for safe keeping." At this moment the Governor General's flag was hoisted over Admiralty House, all the city bells rung out a hearty welcome, and a salute of seventeen guns was fired from the ships and forts in honor of our newly-made Governor General and his Royal wife. The party then left the Provincial Building, and the procession reformed and proceeded.

THE GREAT SEAL

The Earl of Rosebery opened the winter course of lectures before the Edinburgh Literary Institution on the 6th of November he said that the late A. T. Stewart told him in New York that his only recreation from the toils of his enormous business was the occasional reading of an ode of Horace.

Shere Ali's Army.

The Amir's army consists of some seventeen or eighteen battalions of infantry, dressed in cast-off British uniforms, purchased for the most part at Peshawar; four or five regiments of light dragoons, similarly rigged, and an artillery force, with perhaps a hundred brass guns. This comprises the regular army.

Mr. Spurgeon and the Canadians.

Mr. Spurgeon, having been again urgently invited by the churches of Canada to pay them a visit has written a characteristic letter, declining the offer, on the ground that the claims of the work at home are too great and pressing to permit of his leaving. When he does leave the post of actual service, he says he must seek absolute repose, but he could not get that in Canada, for when he sees the eagerness of the people to hear, he must preach, and to refrain from doing so is a greater strain than to deliver his soul. Hence he could only go to Canada when he felt able to work hard, and that also is the time when he has most desire to be home.

A. T. Stewart's Remains.

The N. Y. Times of the 22nd inst. says the mysterious doctor, believed to be the chief conspirator in the Stewart grave robbery, has been fully identified as George A. Christian, the notorious Washington resurrectionist. The Tribune denies the reported recovery of Stewart's body and the arrest of the robbers. It says the chief hope of Mrs. Stewart, Judge Hilton and the police, is that, despairing of securing any reward for the unconditional return of the body, the criminals will quarrel among themselves, and each will hasten to betray the others, in the hope of being accepted as a witness for the State. This policy has been urged by Judge Hilton and Inspector Murray from the first, and Mrs. Stewart has only lately consented to it. This accounts for the offering of a new reward, in which no mention of the return of the body was made.

Miscellaneous.

Mr. Spurgeon is to receive a gift of $25,000 from his congregation on the completion of his theological labors, December 31.

Serious charges of mismanagement are made against the nurses of the Montreal small-pox hospital, and an investigation will likely be held.

The Royal Commission at Victoria, B. C., has found that the late Governor of the Province had not been guilty of attempting to bribe a member of Parliament.

A correspondent of the London Daily News, having made some comments on the present system of calling British war vessels by such names as the Bummer and the Insolent, the Pall Mall Gazette suggests, as an improvement, such mild names as the Ritualist and the Thoughtful Radical.

Appalling destitution exists among the mechanics and labourers of Sheffield in consequence of the business depression. Hundreds are living in tenements without clothing or furniture, which they have been forced to sell for food. They are without fuel, and dependent upon the charity of neighbors for subsistence.

It is said that Mr. Tilley has received instructions to represent to the British Government that the adoption of the Pine River route, terminating at Bute Inlet, for the Canadian Pacific Railway, recommended by Admiral Duperoy and approved by the Home authorities for strategic and other considerations, will involve an expenditure of about $30,000,000 over the route terminating at Burrard Inlet, and that it is on the ground of the selection of the former route being an imperial, as well as Colonial, necessity, that England is asked for a grant of £6,000,000 sterling to cover the additional cost of construction.

SINCE 1828 no less a sum than $3,070,000,000, or $61,400,000 a year, has been raised in London for foreign States. Of this, $785,000,000, or 26 per cent., is in entire default. The bankrupt states are Turkey, Peru, Mexico, Venezuela, Honduras, Costa Rica, Paraguay, the Confederate States, Uruguay, Greece, Bolivia, Ecuador, San Domingo, Guatemala, Poyais, and Liberia. The loans in partial default amount to $875,000,000 or 30 per cent. Spain owes $545,000,000, and the chances of her paying are considered on a par with Turkey. Calculating that the Khedive of Egypt will keep his engagements, there are thus loans in entire or partial default amounting to $1,660,000,000 or 46 per cent of the whole.

A story which some would call characteristic, is told of Bismarck, when, in 1851, he arrived at Frankfurt for the purpose of entering on the exercise of his first political office, as Prussian representative at the Diet of the since dissolved Confederation. In his new capacity the now celebrated Chancellor paid a visit to the President of the Diet, Count Thun, a nobleman who had a very poor notion of the dignity of his high position. The Count received his visitor with scant ceremony, did not even ask him to sit down, and continued smoking his cigar. Herr Otto was, nevertheless, not taken aback. Drawing forth his cigar case, with the utmost coolness he said, "May I ask your Excellency for a light?" His Excellency showed considerable surprise, but gave the light, and Bismarck lit his cigar, sat down without ceremony and opened the conversation.
