Bible House

At West Point

During the first week of August the West Point Presbyterian Church held its annual Bible school sessions.

Rev. George Cunningham, minister of the church, opened the services held each morning with a hymn, followed by scripture reading and prayer, and also led the boys and girls in the singing of hymns during the week. Mrs. Cunningham presided at the organ.

Teachers for the different classes were Rev. G. Cunningham, Mrs. Cunningham, Helen McCabe, Marie MacDonald. There was a good attendance at all the meetings.

On Friday afternoon the session concluded with a picnic held at MacDonald's Shore. Entertainment was provided and enjoyed by the children and their parents. A very delicious lunch of ice cream, cake and sandwiches was served by the ladies in charge.
