Clermont Couple Observe Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Curley, Clermont, were honored at their spacious home, on Friday evening, December 26th, by their family, neighbors and friends who came to extend congratulations on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and to join in the celebration with them.

The rooms which were gaily decorated for the Christmas season presented an attractive appearance. When the large crowd of guests had assembled, the bride and groom of twenty-five years ago, escorted to seats of honor near the Christmas tree.

Mr. Edson Rayner, capably acting as chairman, explained the purpose of the gathering and asked Mrs. Albert Moase to read an address which expressed the good wishes and friendship of all for this worthy couple; as Mr. Cecil Mill presented them with a sum of money. Their little daughter, Paula, presented her parents with a beautiful bouquet of flowers on behalf of the family, who also gave a lovely four-piece bedroom suite.

Mr. Curley, on behalf of his wife and himself, expressed heartfelt gratitude to the kind neighbors, for the pleasant surprise and gifts; thanking them also for the exceptional community spirit shown by them in the past. They all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

LAC. James Ford took several flash photos of the couple and their surroundings, which included the dining room table, adorned with lighted candles and centred with a wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Alfred Curley, prettily decorated in silver and white by Mrs. Cecil Mill and topped by a miniature bride and groom. This cake was presented by their daughter Jean, cut in the traditional manner and served to all.

A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Albert Moase, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. John Moase, Mrs. Wallace Thompson, Mrs. Gervase McGaughey, Mrs. Edward Laughlin and Miss Jean Curley.

Special numbers on the program were step-dancing by the "groom" and LAC. Fred Hurd, a jolly sing-song with Mrs. Arthur Wright as pianist and modern and old-time dancing by Miss Allie McNeill, violin, LAC. and Mrs. James Ford, guitar and Mrs. Cecil Mill, and Mrs. Curley, piano.

Members of the family present were: Jean, principal of Darley School, Walter, Gavin, Alvin, Frances and Paula. Unable to attend were: Leland, Zelma and Glenn, R. N., who recently left to accept responsible positions in Western Canada.

The guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Curley the return of many more happy anniversaries and hoping to be with them to celebrate their golden wedding.

Ayrshire Enthusiast Visits Province

Miss Ellen Bompas of Bell's Corners, near Ottawa, left this province by plane on Wednesday, having spent the holiday season the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boswell and Mr. Edward Boswell, "Lealands", Victoria.

Miss Bompas, owner of the Dolly Dale Ayrshire herd and a member of the firm of John Bompas and Sons, visited the Ayrshire herd at the Experimental Farm, Charlottetown, and was very much interested in the grass silage experiment which was outlined to her by Mr. Parent and Mr. James Nicholson.

She also visited the herds of Andrew MacRae and Sons, and Vernon MacMillan and Son, Central Royalty, and that of W. F. A. Stewart, former Minister of Agriculture, as well as the Holstein herd of Premier J. Walter Jones.

Miss Bompas, who has the distinction of being the only woman who has judged cattle at a Canadian fair, showed the grand champion Ayrshire bull at the 1952 Royal Winter Fair, Toronto.

This fine animal, Aucherbrain Battleflame, was one of an importation of several animals personally selected by her when she visited Scotland in 1949, following the 1949 Royal Winter Fair, where her home bred cow, Russell Dolly, had been grand champion female.

After an inspection of the Exhibition Association set-up she pronounced it one of the best she had seen, and was very much interested in the Women's Institute handicraft work, taking back with her several rug designs.

This versatile lady does not confine her interest to cattle alone, having had the honour of having her rugs, which were winners at the Canadian National Exhibition, placed in the royal bedroom at Government House during the visit to Ottawa of the late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

S'side Baptist W. M. S. Meeting

The January meeting of the W. M. S. of the Summerside Baptist Church was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sherman Parlee. The president, Mrs. Jack MacLeod, opened the meeting with the singing of "O God Our Help In Ages Past", followed by the invocation.

The members responded to the roll call with a Scripture verse, containing the word "new", after which a New Year's greeting from Dr. Zelle Clark, provincial secretary, was read. The Bible lesson in the third chapter of Philippians was read by Mrs. W. A. Currie.

Mrs. MacLeod gave a meditation showing how Christmas was a preparation for the New Year and concluded with a poem entitled "A New Leaf".

Following the president's question "Who are our neighbours—those in need of us," the hymn "O Master, Let Us Walk With Thee" was sung as a prayer.

During the missionary study, Mrs. J. S. MacNeill read an article on the early life and work of Pastor Cornelius, a native pastor in India, after which Mrs. C. B. Jelly gave a paper on "Pastor Cornelius' Aunt Martha".

After the Mizpah benediction a social hour followed when delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

a two or three weeks visit to her children in Toronto on Monday morning, December 29th. On their return they plan to stop over for a few days visiting relatives in Rumford, Me.

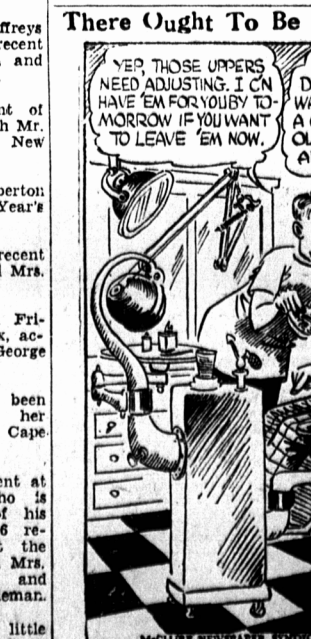

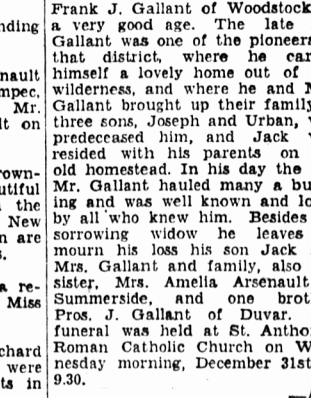

During 1952 there were 11 funerals, 11 marriage, 33 baptisms and 80 children conformed at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church at Bloomfield. Also during the year a new steam heating system was installed and new electric lights put in.

Sympathy is being extended to the widow of the late Carl Weeks of Alberton on his death last week. The late Mr. Weeks was a well liked and efficient fire insurance agent until his health caused him to retire a few years ago and was well known throughout this western end of the Island.

The Angel of Death on Monday, December 29th claimed the soul of Frank J. Gallant of Woodstock at a very good age. The late Mr. Gallant was one of the pioneers of that district, where he carved himself a lovely home out of the wilderness, and where he and Mrs. Gallant brought up their family of three sons, Joseph and Urban, who predeceased him, and Jack who resided with his parents on the old homestead. In his day the late Mr. Gallant hailed many a building and was well known and loved by all who knew him. Besides his sorrowing widow he leaves to mourn his loss his son Jack and Mrs. Gallant and family, also one sister, Mrs. Amelia Arsenault of Summerside, and one brother, Mrs. J. Gallant of Duvar. His funeral was held at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church on Wednesday morning, December 31st, at 9.30.

CARDINALS' FASHIONS

One of Rome's three official ecclesiastical tailors dresses his window with a set of resplendent vestments such as the new cardinals will wear, when invested with their office at the forthcoming consistory which has been called by Pope Pius XII. Although all of the 24 newly named cardinals will not be able to attend, they have all ordered their vestments from Rome's tailors.

CARLETON MISSION BAND

The November monthly meeting of the Happy Sunbeams Mission Band, Carleton Branch of Cape Traverse United Church, met at the home of Harley Harper with 21 members present. Miss Ariene Stordy presided and opened the meeting. A portion from the Study Book was read and explained. The theme was, "A Christian gives his best to his friends".

The Mission Band hymn was sung, and scripture was read by Earle MacWilliams, Mark 12: 41-44. Prayer was offered by Wendy Johnston and the offering was taken by Pauline MacCallum.

The members' purpose was repeated, roll call was taken and minutes read. Gloria Stordy had a birthday this month and the members sang "Happy Birthday" to her. "World Friends" was distributed by Elizabeth MacCallum.

The meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah Benediction. A treat was passed and a social hour enjoyed.
