Changes In Credit Conditions Seen No Economic Cure-all

TORONTO (CP)—Changes in credit conditions are no more a cure-all for economic ills than any single kind of treatment is for physical ills, Louis Rasminsky, governor of the Bank of Canada, said here.

In an address to a joint luncheon meeting of the Toronto branches of the Empire and Canadian Clubs, Mr. Rasminsky said monetary policy is but one of the instruments of public policy which influence the performance of the economy. "Even the whole armory of public policies cannot assure good performance if the basic trouble lies elsewhere."

It was Mr. Rasminsky's first public address since he was appointed governor of the central bank in 1961.

"There is a great deal of difference of opinion, about the extent to which moderate changes in credit conditions can be expected to influence the performance of the economy," he said. "I am inclind to think that most people tend to over-estimate the importance of monetary policy taken by itself, but I also know from my own experience that there are occasions in which vigorous use of the monetary instrument can be of substantial help."

Mr. Rasminsky said he regards monetary policy as a necessary condition, though not a sufficient condition, for good economic perfrmance.

"Whether one likes it or not, monetary policy in Canada in the last two years has had to give a good deal of attention to shoring up our external position."

He said there is increasingly wide agreement that Canada's external economic performance has not been altogether satisfactory.

"Our dependence on capital from abroad to pay for the import surplus of goods and services, and the associated increase in our large international indebtedness, have been elements of instability in our position.

"Our large and persistent reliance on net inflows of foreign capital to finance a current account deficit would have a different aspect if Canadian productive resources were being used to capacity.

"But this has not been the case. On the contrary, our levels of output and employment have been much lower than we are capable of sustaining. And it is certainly not without significance that the improvement in domestic economic conditions in Canada during the last couple of years has been accompanied by—and indeed has been closely related—to the sizable reduction which has occurred in our current account deficit."

Boy's Hand Chewed By Park Wolf

MOOSE JAW, Sask. (CP)—A father engaged in a 30-second tug-of-war with a wolf that snatched the hand of his five-year-old son and pulled the youngster's arm through a wire mesh surrounding the wolf pen at the wild animal park here.

The boy, Dean Miller of Stelcam, Sask., 17 miles southeast of Moose Jaw, was reported in good condition in hospital with severe hand and lower arm lacerations and torn finger tendons. He was expected to be released in two or three days.

Dean visited the park Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Miller. The youngster was watching badgers in an adjoining cage and wandered around a guard rail in front of the wolf cage.

When the boy leaned against the heavy wire mesh, one of two wolves grabbed his right hand and pulled it through the mesh. Mr. Miller whirled around just in time to see the wolf pulling his son's arm into the cage.

"We engaged in a tug-ofwar, but I was afraid to pull too hard for fear of tearing his fingers off," Mr. Miller said. "When I saw the other wolf coming over I braced my feet against the edge of the pen and pulled so hard I skidded the wolf across the floor.

"He must have loosened his jaw to take another bite because I suddenly pulled him (Dean) free."

1,000 Persons In Que. Polled On Separatism

TORONTO (CP)—A survey among 1,000 French-Canadians in Quebec indicates 13 per cent favor the immediate political separation of the province from the rest of Canada.

But 43 per cent oppose the division of Canada, 21 per cent said they had never heard of the separatist movement and 23 per cent were undecided about the issue.

Almost all separatists questioned said they favor democratic methods of achieving Quebec's secession. Only eight per cent said they would approve of a coup d'etat. None favored violence.

The study was commissioned jointly by Maclean's magazine; Le Magazine Maclean, its French - language edition; the CBC-TV program Inquiry; and the Groupe de Recherche Sociale, a non-profit group of social scientists at McGill and Montreal universities which directed the survey. Results were announced on Inquiry program and are published in the Nov. 2 Maclean's.

The minority favoring separatism—the indicated 13 per cent of Quebec's total population would be more than 300,000—includes strong representation from the youthful, well - educated, city-dwelling classes, the survey indicates.

The study shows one out of four professional persons questioned and the same ratio of persons earning more than $6,000 a year favor the separatist movement, which would have Quebec secede from Canada on the ground that the French-speaking minority is dominated by English Canada.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Three Quints Make Giant Step Ahead

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP)—Three of the Fischer quintuplets, born five weeks ago, have completed a giant step toward normal babyhood.

Mary Catherine and Mary Margaret Fischer were taken from isolettes and put in incubators at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen. Brother James Andrew, largest of the quints, got out of the isolette last week.

The two other girls, Mary Ann and Mary Magdalene, are still in isolettes.

LAUDS WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG (CP)—The president of the Canadian Restaurant Association says Winnipeg is "the capital of Canada" when it comes to food service. Dalton Waller of Toronto told a dinner meeting of Manitoba restaurateurs both the food and the service in Winnipeg eating establishments are outstanding.
