Many friends in this city will hear with pleasure of the marriage at Cohoes, N.Y., on June 10th last of Miss Josephine Cairns formerly of the Telephone Company in this city but now residing in Cohoes, to Thomas K. MacCary, of Pittsfield, Mass. Mr. MacCary also resided in this city for sometime and both young people have hosts of friends with whom they were desirably popular and with them The Guardian joins in offering heartiest congratulations.

The excursions by the new steamer Harland are each day becoming more popular. On Saturday afternoon many excursionists took advantage of the beautiful weather and enjoyed a sail up picturesque West River. The scenery on this trip is superb, the steamer most commodious and pleasing while the officials in charge endeavor in many ways to give their patrons every comfort and make the sail an enjoyable one. There is no doubt but that excursions by the more attractive this summer than in the past as the sailings are well planned for the convenience of the general public and the outing is a most expensive luxury in which all the members of the family can participate.
