A FEAST OF LANTERNS.

Unique Festival on a Sacred Island in Japan.

One drowsy noon the town crier came to the door, clapped two pieces of wood together, and in a long chant besought all people of Miyajima to come to the temple for "speak-meeting" at two o'clock that day and for the five succeeding days, to hear read the official news from the army in Corea. We sent our agent to listen for us, and our erratic and only Inudzuka returned breathless, to tell, in excited Japanese, English, and jargon, of the victory of the Heijo. We had intended to make a farewell offering to the temple to secure an illumination as a fitting close to our stay in Arcadia, and here was an opportunity. In the shortest time Inudzuka was speeding back to the temple to beseech the high priest to have the thousand oil-saucers of the lanterns filled at once, the illumination to begin at dusk, without waiting for the midnight high tide.

The priests shook their heads at such an irregularity, such a disregard of ancient custom on short notice. "But this is an American matturi, and in honor of the Heijo! How can you say you have any custom for such an illumination? And when did you illuminate at any tide for a battle won in Corea?" And the high priest said, "Surely, surely! Yes; for Beikoku (America) and the Heijo we can do it." And the circle of eagle-eyed, excited priests sprang delightedly to begin preparations.

Our joyous sendo was at the temple steps with the sampan as usual before the sunset hour, and he had not pushed off until he let us know that the village was agog at the double news of victory and the honorable illumination. We could see the lay brothers all along shore filling the oil-saucers, laying wicks, and pasting fresh papers on the tall stone lamps; and when we sculled back, long after sunset, lights had begun to twinkle under the temple eaves. A lantern came forth and went bobbing along the water-line, stopped a moment, and a second light shone forth, then a third and a fourth, and so on along shore, as the lamplighter went his way.

Soon the whole curving bay from headland to headland was outlined in living lights that gleamed double and wavered in long reflections toward us; and the temple was a great set piece of fireworks, each shrine a sun goddess's glowing cave, with the many-jeweled pyramids of votive candles. The spectacle lasted in full splendor for more than an hour, the villagers flocking along shore, trooping through the temple galleries, and drifting about in boats to watch the splendid spectacle. The lights dropped out here and there, and the glow of the rising moon made the firmament pale; but even when the shore-line was lost in darkness, Itsukushima's inner shrine by the sea was still aglow with votive lights.

The next morning the village officers called "to thank your spirit" in celebrating Japan's victories; the high priest sent sacred gift-papers filled with rice, and asked for the honorable names in full, that they might be written among the temple's contributors; and when we went to the village every one bowed and made pretty speeches about the American matsuri. Weeks later a Tokio artist wrote in his quaint idiom that he had heard of my "favorably presenting a great deal of money to the temple, praying for the war, and lighted the thousand lamps of Miyajima for the war. I seen it in our Japanese newspapers." Surely never did one obtain so much pleasure and glory by an expenditure of four yen (two dollars in United States gold.—"An Island Without Death," by Eliza Ruhamah Scidmore, in the Century.

Getting Even With Him.

"I've been watching that poets' club of yours, Dreamy, and I must say that you've got together a pretty weedy collection."

"I don't suppose, sir, that we have a Shakespeare, a Homer or even a Ruskin in our midst, but the members of our organization are all in deadly earnest."

"That's a fatal sign, Dreamy. No true poet ever had anything so nearly material as is earnestness. That smacks off the shop, the stock exchange, politics or the prize ring. Poets are born, you know. You can't teach poesy any more than you can manufacture inspiration, can it and send it in job lots over the world. It's all rot. You might spend millions in trying to make a genuine poet out of a practical fellow like me and you wouldn't get a single production worth publishing."

"I guess that's right. But you must understand that we have some brilliant young people in our club."

"Yes, brilliant jinglers, mechanical rymesters, tra-la-la or rat-a-tat-tat sort of writers, who know all about meter and would faint if they neglected to place a capital letter at the beginning of a line, but who are no more favored of the muses than the dancer of a sand jig or the juggler of cannon balls is beloved by Thespis. You may think that you can hammer genius into them, Dreamy, but my own opinion is that they are very rocky aggregation. You can't make a poet by growing long hair or cultivating eccentric habits."

"I'll bid you good day, sir."

Then the sledge-hammer critic smiled gloatingly to himself as he said: "Now I guess I'm even with him for writing that campaign doggerel against us."

Practical Reflections.

If we love Christ, we will love to do His will.

Our hearts may become temples of God.

Jesus has committed His work to the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is the world's greatest need.

To give peace of heart cost Jesus anguish.

INJURY AND NEGLECT.

He Failed in Health and Strength—His Kidneys Ached, and he took Dodd's Kidney Pills.

DESERONTO, Dec, 14. (Special).—Among business people here, and especially by his fellow workmen great interest has been taken in the case of Mr. James Stokes, who for the past fifteen years has been shipper for the Rathburn Company.

Lately he had run down in health and strength to the point of being compelled to quit work, and his recovery now as the result of using Dodd's Kidney Pills is the talk of the town. On seeing Mr. Stokes he said:—

"From over-lifting and strain I suffered greatly from kidney trouble, being advised, after all else had failed, to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first dose I got relief, and hundreds of people here can vouch for my cure."

It is stated that a club for the promotion of the movement to obtain the political independence of Canada, has been organized in Montreal.

"My six-year-old daughter, Bella, was afflicted with eczema for 24 months, the principal seat of eruption being behind her ears. I tried almost every remedy I saw advertised, bought innumerable medicines and soaps, and took the child to medical specialists in skin diseases, but without result. Finally, a week ago, I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and the first application showed the curative effect of the Remedy. We have used only one-sixth of the box, but the change is very marked; the eruption has all disappeared, and I can confidently say my child is cured. (Signed) MAXWELL JOHNSTON.

THE TICHBORNE CASE AGAIN.

Talk Renewed in Australia by the Discovery of Another Claimant.

According to late advices from Australia, the famous Tichborne case is likely to be re-opened. A new phase of the matter has been entered into by the alleged discovery in the Paramatta Insane Asylum of the true Roger Tichborne. Steps have been taken to secure his release in order that he may be allowed to proceed to England and substantiate his claim to the title and estates. Mr. Edward Priestman, of Sydney, is acting on behalf of the friends of the new "claimant" in London, and he declares himself as convinced that the man who goes by the name of Cresswell at present, is, without doubt the true Sir Roger Tichbourne, and says he has himself seen upon Cresswell's body every identifying mark which it is admitted was carried by the lost heir. The present stage of the legal aspect of the affair is that application for the release of Cresswell cannot be made before the proper tribunal until early next year, but it is promised that when this is done and the case is investigated, evidence will be produced quite as remarkable as any that was forthcoming at the famous trial of Arthur Orton, and which will add another, and not the least famous one, to the chapters of this remarkable case.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Two Instances of Many Where They Effected Cures

Men and Women Made Well

Gratitude Compels them to Testify to the Curative Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Greatest Discovery of the 19th Century.

Smith's Falls, Ont., Dec. 18—This village can produce evidence indisputable that the diseases most feared by man and woman are curable. Two well-known citizens gratefully testify to the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills. They have been cured.

No kidney disease is so far advanced or so severe that these Pills will not effect a cure Bright's disease disappears, diabetes is conquered gout subsides, calculi are disolved, weak backs are made strong, rheumatism vanishes, through the agency of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Thousands of Canadians who have suffered from some form or other of Kideny complaint, to-day enjoy perfect health—thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the cure. They cure backache, weak back, bearing-down sensations of women, rheumatic pains wherever located. They cure Bright's disease. They cure diabetes. They cure them for all time. They have cured others. They will cure you.

Don't take our word for it, if you don't wish to. Inquire of those who have been cured. Let those who have tried Dodd's Kideny Pills speak in their behalf.

For example, read this statement from a well-known citizen of a town in Eastern Ontario:—

ALMONTE, Ont., Dec. 2—Harry Grace, of this town, has been troubled with lumbago for over a year. Doctors could give him no relief. He is now cured. He says:—"I heard of the wonderful cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills. I thought I would try them. I have tried one box, and I must say they have cured me. I have no objection to allowing you publish this, as you see fit, so it may help others.

THE FATHERLAND.

Where is the true man's fatherland?
Is it where he by chance is borne?
Doth not the yearning spirit scorn
In such scant borders to be scanned
Oh yes his fatherland must be
As the blue heaven wide and free.

Is it alone where freedom is,
Where God is God and man is man?
Doth he not claim a broader span
For the soul's love of home than this?
Oh, yes! his fatherland must be
As the blue heaven wide and free.

Where'er a human heart doth wear
Joy's myrtle wreath or sorrow's gyves,
Where'er a human spirit strives
After a life more true and fair,
There is the true man's birthplace grant
His is a world wide fatherland!

Where'er a single slave doth pine,
Where'er one man may help another—
Thank God for such a birthright brother—
That spot on earth is thine and mine!
There is the true man's birthplace grand,
His is the world-wide fatherland!
