Jumbo Size Bubble Burst

The bubble, which Island scribbles and others have been blowing up to jumbo size has burst. Saturday night at the Sports Arena the Amherst Ramblers had little trouble with the Parkdale Royals, who had a lot of good things in the development on the island in as though many years. If the Ramblers can beat Sandy's dandies 1:4 and the Gall Ferries can trounce Amherst 8:1, where does that put our level of hockey on P.E.I.?

The opinion of old-timers, who look at the past with rose-coloured glasses are likely to be taken with a grain of salt by present day fans.

But the fact that in the twenties the Abbies took on Canada's best amateur team, the Toronto Giants, and put up a spirited fight, team 4:1, supports the old-timer contention that the old Abbies and Crusals were better than the present Island Teams. We feel that our

Maroons Take Over

The O'Leary Maroons seem to have taken up the torch dropped by the Cape Traverse Rovers when they moved into senior company and called themselves the Rovers. Those Maroons are going to be hard to knock off and don't say we didn't warn you. When Henderson, who decided apparently he'd rather be a small team than a big one, left the Rovers and started the Maroons, we're going to give him a name for himself in intermediate circles.

Last Week's Bouquet

Glenn Morrison merits attention for his goal, at least honorable mention: On Saturday "that trick" is unique: Maurice Reeves shot three corners last week. For two years on the speed-

Spesies Highlight Hoop Twin Bill

Two upsets featured the City Basketball League twin bill at Prince of Wales College gym Saturday afternoon when the defending Phalanx scored its first win of the season at the expense of second place PWC. Final score was 72:70. The other game saw YMCA score a thrilling 97:79 win over Welshmen.

The Phalanx hoopers, who were down 40:41 at half time, were paced by Roy Dolron with 19 points. Teammate Ralph Beasly was four points behind.

Tot Smith paced the students from the hill with 20 points. Mike Wong racked up 20. Brothers Roy and George Beasly paced the Y team with identical 25-point performances. Veteran Tom Atkinson swished the twines for 19.

The 'V' fine was leading by 21 points half time with the Fast Times, Big Pays Feature Races Sat.

Fast times, exciting finishes, juicy pari-mutuel payoffs. They were some of the features being served at North River causerie Saturday afternoon in the Victoria Driving Club sponsored race meet.

The fastest overall times of the season were seen with Jolly's Pride hanging up the fastest time. The Summersdale horse owned by J. H. MacNeil took the first dash of four furlongs in 20.1 seconds for the season.

The slowest time of the afternoon was 24.3 in the 1000 Yards. Some of the betting fraternity also took home some big payoffs, the biggest being a win ticket on Vivian Strong which returned $50.00.

A contest donated by the Borden branch of the Canadian Legion is to be presented to the winner of this class A Trot, captured by Hey You, owned by Art Aron of Kinrossa who by coincidence, is president of the Borden Legion.

The presentation was made by D. B. MacNeil president of the Victoria Driving Club.

Hey You was driven by Jackie Borden of Hunter Street.

Officials for the program were — driver — Allan York; judge — I. W. MacNeil; clerk — C. Stewart; Jack Bell; judges — Willie Wood, G. Smith, P. Aron.

local scribbles were really whiter than the ones in estimating what Royals would do in the present series, and this of their patriotic duty. They had us almost convinced in spite of the fact that they were the Parkdale Royals, who had a lot of good things in the development on the island in as though many years. Rangers Capture Opener With Lopsided 11-4 Win

Amherst Ramblers are only their first game following one victory away from their third lopsided 11-4 victory over the Parkdale Royals last night at the Sports Arena Saturday night.

The game was the first of a new series for the Mar time title. The second game is slated for Amherst tonight.

The Ramblers, a powerhouse in recent years, had too much pook know-how for the island champs and after twenty minutes of play were leading by a 5-0 score.

The Nova Scotians appeared to take it a bit easier when they came out in the second period and again in the third. They outscored the Royals 5-3 in the middle of the game and after twenty minutes of play were leading by a 10-4 score.

The bumper crowd of over three thousand fans saw Montreal native Alain Caron pace the Ramblers with three goals.

Caron, a star that specializes in the Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League this season, scored 78 goals during regular season play in the Bill Ford's Big Four round.

Joe Lamirande came through with two goals while linemates Shermie White and Dave Kelly were active in the other corners while they (Ramblers) were a player short.

Alain Caron opened the scoring at the 6:13 mark of the opening period and when through the Parkdale defence and caught the lower left hand corner of the crossbar.

The score went up to 6:16 before the Royals broke through for their first goal, Angie Carrol doing the honors with an assist going to Alfie Flanagan.

Back Whittlock got two of his three goals in this frame, his first coming at the 8:47 mark when he deflected in Stu Moore's shot from the point.

With the score reading 10-3 and the final frame less than three minutes old Whittlock closed out the Parkdale scoring with his third marker from practically on the Royals' doorstep.

CLOSES OUT SCORING

The final goal of the game came when defenceman Jim MacLean of the Ramblers stole the puck into the Royals' half and beat Roper with a low shot that caught the short corner.

The game was delayed for what appeared to be a dogfish on the ice.

When the Royals scored their first goal Roger tossed a live rooster on the ice and the game was delayed for what appeared to be a dogfish on the ice.

Earlier another fan had tossed a live rooster on the ice.

Referee Wayne Boucher of Amherst and Don Whelan of Charlotteville called a total of 11 penalties, all minors, a total of 15:33. Penalties: Joe Tracy 2; Kelly 13:15; Junior MacLeod 19:56.

X-Men Capture Basketball Title

ANTIGONISH, N.S. (CP) — St. Francis Xavier University X-Men defeated St. Dunstan's University Saints of Charlotteville 46-38 here Saturday night in the Maritime intercollegiate basketball championship.

X-Men controlled backboard action throughout the game and led 31:28 at half time. Early in the second half Saints moved to within one point of X-Men, but they were unable to close the gap before the buzzer.

Jay Ashe scored the winners with 22 points, followed by rookie X-Men Paul Chénard with 15. Bob Francour netted 23 points for the Saints, with John Heine collecting 10 points.

St. Dunstan's showed much of its strength at the foul line, hitting 10 out of 24 free throws, compared with St. F.X.'s eight out of a possible 19.
