Miss Betty MacDonald, accompanied by her niece, Miss Wendy MacEachern, spent Sunday in Bonshaw, guests of Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. MacDonald.

Mr. Johnnie T. Stewart, New Argyle, was a business visitor to Victoria and Hampton on March 9. Mr. Stewart, who has the reputation of being a proficient oyster fisherman, reports an excellent season's catch and ready customers awaiting.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Lloyd Thomson, her father, Mr. Shaw, and Mr. Beecher Inman, whose general health has not been as desired, wish to extend best wishes for an early restoration to enjoyable health, unbroken in the future by any such unfortunate circumstances.

Notwithstanding a prolonged period of adverse weather and travelling conditions, the district residents have laid in another year's fuel supply from their bountiful woodlands, and have their seed grains home from the cleaning mill, ready for seed time.

Miss Ada Lois Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Campbell, motored to Moncton airport on March 2, en route by air to Toronto where, as a business college graduate, she will take up office work in conformity with the college training received. Best wishes of relatives and friends accompanying Miss Ada, in her chosen occupation.

Members of Hampton W.M.S. and C.G.I.T. groups met with Victoria members at Victoria, for the annual Day of Prayer service. Mrs. Evan Wright and Mrs. John Dixon, presidents respectively of Victoria and Hampton auxiliaries, were leaders, and Mrs. Allison Lea was organist for this interesting service. Hampton C. G. I. Prayers of intercession were given by Mrs. Mack Dixon, Mrs. Homer Provencher, Mrs. Windsor Bell, Mrs. Allison Lea, Inez Gass and Mrs. Herbert Gill, and the Misses Margaret Cannon and Roma Sherren received the offering. Hymns sung by the congregation were: "Praise My Lord the King of Heaven," "O Lord and Master of Us All," "Lift Up Our Hearts O King of Kings," "The Day Thou Gavest Lord Is Ended." Following the benediction by Mrs. Dixon, Hampton members were guests of Victoria Auxiliary for an enjoyable social at the home of Mrs. Fred Iman. -C.M.

Those who intimately knew him, deeply feel, that by his exemplary life of humility, charity and goodwill to all men, he reminded them of the doctrine of Christ, that man is made to God's likeness. IN MEMORIAM

MR. CARROLL HUGHES

Seldom has a shock been felt so keenly or such heart felt sympathy expressed, as when it was learned on February 22, that Mr. Carroll Hughes had passed away at his home at the early age of 51 years.

The late Mr. Hughes had been about his work as usual, that morning, and on his arrival home at noon he mentioned that his right arm felt numb. Within the next few hours, he suffered a series of strokes and passed away at five o'clock of the same day, after being fortified by the last rites of his Church, by his pastor Reverend Eugene Murray.

Born at Emerald, Junction he was the son of Mr. Peter and Mrs. Suzanna Hughes. He was educated at the local school in his early years, and later he attended St. Dunstan's College. Shortly after leaving College he became engaged as an employee in different phases of employment of the C. N. Railway, and he was thus occupied at the time of his death.

His was a devoted and untiring worker in the interests of the Benevolent Irish Society and the members of that organization showed their sincere sorrow at the passing of one of their most beloved members by a large body of them attending his funeral in full regalia.

Those who intimately knew him, deeply feel, that by his exemplary life of humility, charity and goodwill to all men, he reminded them of the doctrine of Christ, that man is made to God's likeness.

His death will be deeply mourned by his devoted wife, the former Miss Alice Deighan, one sister, Reverend Sister St. Peter of St. Bridget's Notre Dame Convent, Toronto. Besides these and other near relatives, a host of friends will long cherish the memory of Carroll Hughes.
