PERT PERSONALS

May Irwin is billed to play Juliet. Probably she will do it by the pound.—St Louis Republic.

It is Russell Sage's desire to die rich and be buried as cheaply as possible.—Washington Post.

Joe Choate is a happy man. The British are "seeing" his jokes.—Philadelphia North American.

If money talks, John D. Rockefeller can hold the floor the balance of his natural life.—Nashville American.

There will be no Hobson business when General Funston comes home. There is a Mrs. Funston.—Kansas City Star.

The Kaiser has been called a "poodle prince" and can't do anything but treat the aspersion with dogged indifference.—St. Paul Dispatch.

Capitalist Hetty Green and Capitalist Russell Sage are standing closely together against all newfangled Scottish doctrines.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Congressman Elect Roberts only bears an occasional Mauter bullet from the firing line now, but wait until he gets into range at Washington.—San Francisco Chronicle.

William Winter sarcastically says that "Maude Adams as Juliet bleats her part." This has aroused such a protest that probably William feels sheepish himself.—Boston Advertiser.

We understand that Dr. Mary Walker is opposed to woman's rights. She believes only she and other sensible men can understand the blessed privileges of the ballot.—Louisville Post.

General Merritt says he hugs himself because he is an American citizen. A man who would rob his wife of that marital right is scarcely worthy to be called an American citizen.—Denver Post.

FOR SALE

That valuable freehold farm, situated on the St. Peter's Road, eight miles from Charlottetown, which was owned by the late Henry M. McLeod. This is one of the most desirable farms ever offered for sale in this province. It is situated in the nicest farming section in Queen's County. It consists of 125 acres, 95 of which are in a high state of cultivation, the balance being covered with hard and soft wood. It is well fenced with spruce hedges and has a large orchard. Railway Station, Queen's County Court House and School House all on the premises; wharf and cheese factory are within easy reach. The dwelling house and barns are all that can be desired and are in good repair. Intending purchasers must see the property to appreciate the many advantages it offers to the aspiring agriculturist. The property may be inspected any day up to the first of September, when to parties interested full particulars and terms will be given by the undersigned.

Another farm of sixty acres half a mile from the above with three never failing springs of water will be sold separately or in connection if desired. SARAH S. MACLEOD, HENRY S. MACLEOD, Administrators of the estate of the late Henry M. McLeod. 1906613w
