Fire gutted the home and destroyed most of the contents of Fred Murphy early Friday evening after their young son, aged 4, ignited some lighter fluid which he had found. The young boy was able to escape from the flaming house by himself as his parents were away briefly at the time and his eight brothers and sisters were outside playing. The Kensington Fire Department prevented the flames from spreading and the Red Cross Disaster Committee provided the 11-member Murphy family with a house, clothing and fuel within two hours of the blaze.

Presentations Made At High School Banquet

"The developments of that sense of belonging is a very important factor in learning how to live," said Dr. George Fisher, speaking at the graduates banquet of Kensington High School on Wednesday evening. "If there is an honest desire to accomplish, nothing is impossible. Success in life requires effort, humility, honesty and faith," he said. That life may be full and rewarding, he urged the young people to be active in their church and community.

The ladies of the Home and School Association catered to the banquet which was well attended by the members of the graduating class, their parents, the teaching staff, school trustees, secretary, and clergymen, and consisted of a full course lobster supper. Following the Toast to the Queen, Mr. Lorne Moase, B.A. proposed a toast to the graduates which was responded to by Mr. Gerald MacLeod.

All participated in a hearty singsong, with Mr. Elmer Power, B.A., B. Ed., as pianist. Betty Cameron read the class prophecy. Miss Maureen Forbes of Summerside played a piano selection, "Spanish Dance," and Miss Ruth Cairns also of Summerside rendered a vocal solo, "Where Ever You Walk." Of special interest was the display of the class picture which was framed for hanging in the corridor with those of former years. Following the banquet, four teachers who are to be engaged elsewhere next year were remembered with gifts in appreciation of their assistance and cooperation in the Home and School Association. Rev. E. H. Bean was Master of Ceremonies, and Mrs. Elwood Clark made the presentations.

A gift was also presented to Rev. L. M. Murray in appreciation of his assistance in training the students for the music festival. The following members of the Home and School Association were remembered with gifts: Mr. Thomas Hall who has accepted the position of Assistant Professor of Education at Acadia University, Wolfville, N.S. Mr. and Mrs. J. Weeks Murphy. Mr. Murphy has been engaged to teach in Summerside next year. Mr. and Mrs. Theo Ling. Second Oil Well To Be Drilled At Wellington

Imperial Oil will drill a second well at Wellington as soon as the one presently being drilled is completed. This was announced yesterday by G.L. Colpitts, producing advisor for the company who was guest speaker at a joint luncheon of Rotary and the Maritime Board of Trade.

Observing that 132 wells were sunk before the famous Leduc well was discovered, Mr. Colpitts said it is one thing to know that oil should exist in a certain area and it is another thing to find it.

Mr. Colpitts described in detail the fortunate development of the oil wells in western Canada which now constitute a prime factor in the economy of Canada west of Toronto and went on to say "The crude oil market on the eastern seaboard and Quebec amounts to some 300,000 barrels a day. While that market is beyond the economic reach of the western oil fields, it would be a "natural" for any crude oil found in this part of the country."

DECIDED ADVANTAGE
"Because it will never be far from tidewater and good transportation any oil we may find will have an immediate market in the refineries close at hand." "It would back out imported crude oil just the same way that the prairies backed out imported oil in the region it now serves," he said.

Touching on the main oil activities here, Mr. Colpitts said, in terms of modern needs, however, oil in large commercial quantities has not yet been found in the Maritime area. To try and bring that fortunate day closer, the activity will be exploratory with test wells being drilled wherever the geology is most favourable. That, I might add, is the kind of operation we carried out at Wellington."

The meeting was presided over by Frank Curtis, Past President

Horse racing this year will be a special project of the Summerside Firemen and a top-notch card of races is expected to be lined up for the carnival. Bill Lynch's Shows will again be one of the feature attractions and there will be no charge this year to the midway.

The director of the carnival, Charles Hogan, submitted his report to date along with a number of recommendations which will result in a bigger and better show in 1958.

Committee Named To Study School Problem At Alberton

A decision to provide additional classroom space at Alberton was taken at a special ratepayers meeting last night and a committee was appointed to present estimated costs of three proposals, a new school, the addition of two rooms on the high school, or the finishing of two rooms in the basement of the high school. Mr. Winston Currie, principal presided and explained the purpose of the meeting. The only self-sealing asphalt shingles proved on over 300,000 homes — cost as little as $14.50 a month

Johns-Manville patented Seal-O-Matic Asphalt Shingles have a continuous stripe of special adhesive on the underside of each shingle. The sun's heat automatically seals down the entire shingle edge and bonds it so firmly that it holds fast even in gale winds. The continuous seal also prevents rain and snow from being driven up under the shingle and thereby causing leaks.
